OBJECTIVE

The investment objective of the Company is to provide Shareholders with an attractive real long-term total return by investing globally in undervalued securities. The portfolio is managed without reference to the composition of any stock market index.

INVESTMENT POLICY

The Company invests in a focused portfolio of approximately 30 to 40 securities of issuers throughout the world, predominantly in quoted equities. The Company may also invest in unquoted securities, which are not anticipated to exceed 10 per cent of the Company's total assets at the time of investment. No investment in the Company's portfolio may exceed 15 per cent of the Company's total assets at the time of investment.

The Company has the ability to invest in other investment companies or funds but will invest no more than 15 per cent of its gross assets in other listed investment companies (including investment trusts).

The Company may also invest a substantial portion of its assets in debt instruments, cash or cash equivalents when the Investment Manager believes market or economic conditions make equity investment unattractive or while seeking appropriate investment opportunities for the portfolio or to maintain liquidity. In addition, the Company may purchase derivatives for the purposes of efficient portfolio management.

It is intended that, from time to time, when deemed appropriate, the Company will borrow for investment purposes up to the equivalent of 25 per cent of its total assets. By contrast, the Company's portfolio may from time to time have substantial holdings of debt instruments, cash or short-term deposits.

The investment objective and policy are intended to distinguish the Company from other investment vehicles which have relatively narrow investment objectives and which are thus constrained in their decision making and asset allocation. The objective and policy allow the Company to be constrained in its investment selection only by valuation and to be pragmatic in portfolio construction by only investing in securities which the Investment Manager considers to be undervalued on an absolute basis.

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Results

At 30 June 2018, our NAV was 333.2p, a reduction of 1.3 per cent from the 31 December 2017 NAV of 337.7p. The 2017 final dividend of 5.3p per share was paid in May 2018 and this resulted in a total return for the six months of 0.3 per cent. This compares with a total return from the FTSE All-World Index over the same period of 2.1 per cent, while the FTSE All-Share Index total return was 1.7 per cent.

The share price at the end of June 2018 was 308p, which was 3.8 per cent below the year-end share price of 320p. At 30 June 2018, the Company's shares were trading at a discount of 7.6 per cent to the NAV, compared to a 5.2 per cent discount at the previous year end. The share price total return, including dividends reinvested, was -2.1 per cent. The discount has been quite volatile recently and this has resulted in us continuing to buy in shares in line with our stated policy to buy back shares with the objective of maintaining the share price at close to the NAV. In the first six months of 2018, we bought back 775,000 shares, which represented 1.8 per cent of the shares in circulation at the start of the period, at a total cost of £2.4 million. Shares bought back have not been cancelled, but instead are held in treasury with the intention of re-issuing them when demand warrants doing so.

At the Annual General Meeting held in April 2018, Shareholders again approved a resolution permitting the Company to sell shares from treasury at a small discount to the NAV, with tight restrictions on any potential dilution to the NAV. While no shares were sold from treasury during the first six months of 2018, we will be prepared to do so if we consider it is in the best interests of Shareholders.

Revenue account

The Income Statement on pages 10 and 11 shows revenue per share of 4.7p for the first six months of 2018, which was a 17.5 per cent increase on the 4.0p generated in the same period last year. The revenue per share for the full year in 2017 was 5.3p. The increase in the revenue per share during the period under review resulted principally from portfolio changes with recent purchases having higher dividend yields than the shares that were disposed of. The continued weakness of sterling against foreign currencies also benefitted the revenue per share.

As we have stated in previous annual and half-yearly reports, the decision on which shares we own is driven by our Investment Manager's well-defined investment philosophy of focusing on value regardless of the dividend yield of the shares. While this can result in volatility in our revenue per share from year to year, we continue to believe it will produce a better total return over the longer term.

Investment Manager

As detailed in the 2017 Annual Report, on 17 January 2018, Franklin Resources, Inc. announced the acquisition of Edinburgh Partners Limited, our Investment Manager. The acquisition completed on 1 May 2018. An adjustment was made to the carrying value of the Company's investment in Edinburgh Partners Limited and incorporated in the financial statements in the 2017 Annual Report. It is considered that the acquisition is a positive move for Edinburgh Partners, particularly given the complementary investment styles based on value investing. Importantly, the individuals responsible for the investment management of your Company remain the same.

Economic and stock market review and investment performance

After the strong rises in equity markets seen in both 2016 and 2017, returns were much more muted in the first half of 2018. Overall, while a negative total return was seen in the first quarter of the year, this was outweighed by the positive total return achieved during the second quarter, resulting in a marginally positive total return over the half-year. In sterling terms, the US equity market was the best performing of the world's major equity markets achieving a 5.2 per cent return; this was achieved almost equally from the equity market and the US dollar strengthening against sterling.

Concerns over trade sanctions and their potential impact on the global economy cast a shadow over non-US equity markets. In addition, European equity markets were impacted by the results of the Italian election with the anti-establishment Five Star Movement becoming Italy's largest political party. Both the main European and Asian (ex Japan) Indices produced negative total returns over the half year but weakness in the Japanese Topix Index was offset by yen strength. There is currently a lack of clarity over the substance of the UK's exit from the European Union and whether the UK can reach an agreement with the other 27 European Union countries before the planned exit date of 29 March 2019. However, despite concerns over Brexit, the UK equity market saw a small positive return during the period under review.

The best performing sector within the portfolio was oil & gas, where the portfolio has a significant exposure. During the period, the Brent oil price increased by 17.9 per cent from US$67 to US$79. Strong performances were seen in Apache, BP and Total. In contrast, the weakest performing sector within the portfolio was the financial sector with Bank Mandiri, Commerzbank and ING being the stocks that were most adversely affected. In the case of Bank Mandiri and Commerzbank, following strong performance, we had partially reduced the size of the holdings in February 2018. Subsequent to the half-year end, we added to the holdings in Commerzbank and ING having considered that the recent share price falls have been overdone. During the six months under review, the three best performing stocks in the portfolio were Tesco, Nokia and Ubisoft Entertainment, the latter being sold following its strong performance, as it was considered to be fully valued. Along with Commerzbank, Celgene and PostNL had relatively disappointing performances in the period, the latter despite having a high dividend yield. Our Investment Manager believes all three stocks remain undervalued.

Portfolio activity

A key feature of the half year under review was the reduction in the Company's financial sector exposure from 31.8 per cent to 21.7 per cent of net assets. The banking stocks, BNP Paribas, Credicorp and HSBC, were completely disposed of during the period. Credicorp shares had performed well since purchase and the valuation discounted a more optimistic scenario for the Peruvian economy. Despite an attractive dividend, HSBC appeared fully valued and better opportunities existed within the sector. There was also a reduction in financial sector exposure as a result of the sale of the Company's holding in its Investment Manager, Edinburgh Partners Limited, to Franklin Resources, Inc.

There was a reduction in the Company's exposure to the consumer goods sector from 12.2 per cent to 6.3 per cent of net assets which resulted from the sales of Ubisoft Entertainment in France and Whirlpool in the US, as well as partial disposals of a number of other shareholdings, including Goodbaby International in China and Panasonic in Japan.

The one sector in which a substantial increase in investment was made was the telecommunications sector with an increase from 4.2 per cent to 9.6 per cent of net assets. New stocks purchased included China Mobile, Singapore Telecommunications and the US-based Verizon. Well-covered dividends, strong and rising dividend yields and having little exposure to inflation-induced cost increases are the principal attractive characteristics of these stocks. China Mobile is the dominant mobile carrier in China, with a rapidly growing fixed-line business. There was relatively little change in the percentage of assets held within other sectors.

From a geographical perspective, there was relatively little change in the overall composition of the portfolio. The Company's highest exposure is to European equities which reduced marginally from 32.5 per cent of net assets at the previous year end to 32.2 per cent at 30 June 2018. There was also a marginal reduction in Asia Pacific exposure which reduced from 19.5 per cent to 18.7 per cent and in Japanese equity exposure from 19.7 per cent to 18.6 per cent. We continue to have a relatively low weighting in US equities, although during the period there was an increase from 8.2 per cent to 10.3 per cent of net assets, following the purchase of Verizon stated above. The most significant reduction in geographical exposure was in the UK which saw a reduction from 12.7 per cent to 8.9 per cent of net assets, as a result of the sale of Edinburgh Partners and HSBC and the partial disposals of AstraZeneca and BP. Following the sale of Credicorp in Peru, we now no longer have a direct exposure to Latin America, although the Company continues to maintain an exposure to emerging economies through its holding in the Edinburgh Partners Emerging Opportunities Fund which represents 2.2 per cent of net assets.

The consequence of the reduced geographical equity exposures detailed above has resulted in cash and other net assets increasing significantly during the period from 2.8 per cent to 9.1 per cent of net assets. This reflects our Investment Manager's view that it is becoming increasingly difficult to identify stocks that are considered to be materially undervalued. The Investment Manager has managed the portfolio with reasonably high cash balances in the past when they consider share prices to be on the higher side of fair value, while they await the opportunity to invest in undervalued stocks.

Outlook

While it is possible that the US under the leadership of President Trump will continue to pursue policies which could result in a significant slowdown in global growth through the imposition of trade tariffs, our Investment Manager believes that this is more likely to be rhetoric rather than substance. We believe that the global economy is continuing on an improving trend and thus the gradual trend of rising interest rates is likely to continue. This is not necessarily a negative for equity markets but it is expected to increase the volatility in share prices and to increase the downside risk for the share prices of those companies on very high ratings whose earnings come in below expectations.

Our Investment Manager continues to be wary of expensively-rated companies but perceives there to be selective value in certain areas such as banking and telecommunication stocks. In particular, a number of bank shares in the portfolio are on significant discounts to their tangible book value.

As mentioned above, the portfolio continues to maintain a significant position in the oil & gas sector, which performed strongly during the period as the oil price continued to rise. This is in contrast to the view of a number of commentators that believe the world is on the brink of a significant slowdown. We continue to remain confident on the structure of the portfolio and will use the current relatively high level of cash balances to invest in new stocks or add to existing investments when opportunities occur.

DIRECTORS' STATEMENT OF PRINCIPAL RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The important events that have occurred during the period under review and the key factors influencing the Financial Statements are set out in the Chairman's Statement on pages 3 to 6. The principal factors that could impact the remaining six months of the financial year are also detailed in the Chairman's Statement.

The Board considers that the following are the principal risks associated with investing in the Company: investment and strategy risk, key manager risk, discount volatility risk, market risk, foreign currency risk and regulatory risk. Other risks associated with investing in the Company are liquidity risk, credit risk, interest rate risk, gearing risk, operational risk and other financial risks. These risks, and the way in which they are managed, are described in more detail under the heading "Principal risks and uncertainties" within the Strategic Report in the Company's Annual Report and Financial Statements for the year ended 31 December 2017. The Company's principal risks and uncertainties are unchanged since the date of that report.

DIRECTORS' STATEMENT OF RESPONSIBILITIES IN RESPECT OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Directors confirm that to the best of their knowledge:

- The condensed set of Financial Statements, prepared in accordance with Financial Reporting Standard ("FRS") 104: "Interim Financial Reporting", gives a true and fair view of the assets, liabilities, financial position and profit of the Company; and
- This Half-Yearly Report includes a fair review of the information required by:
 - (a) 4.2.7R of the Disclosure Guidance and Transparency Rules, being an indication of important events that have occurred during the first six months of the financial year and their impact on the condensed set of Financial Statements; and a description of the principal risks and uncertainties for the remaining six months of the year; and
 - (b) 4.2.8R of the Disclosure Guidance and Transparency Rules, being related party transactions that have taken place in the first six months of the current financial year and that have materially affected the financial position or performance of the Company during that period; and any changes in the related party transactions described in the last Annual Report that could do so.

This Half-Yearly Report was approved by the Board of Directors and the above responsibility statement was signed on its behalf by:

Fair value hierarchy

In accordance with FRS 102 and FRS 104, the Company must disclose the fair value hierarchy of financial instruments.

The different levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

- 1 Quoted price for an identical asset in an active market.
- 2 The price of a recent transaction for an identical asset, as long as there has not been a significant change in economic circumstances or a significant lapse of time since the transaction took place.
- 3 A valuation technique:
 - a) using observable market data; or
 - b) using non-observable market data.

All of the Company's financial instruments fall into level 1, except its investment in Edinburgh Partners Limited, which fell into level 3 and was fair valued using an unquoted price derived from inputs that are not based on observable market data by using recognised valuation methodologies, in accordance with IPEVC Valuation Guidelines. A reconciliation of the fair value movements of level 3 investments is shown on page 16.

10 Status of the Company

It is the intention of the Directors to conduct the affairs of the Company so that it continues to satisfy the conditions for approval as an investment trust company as set out in Sections 1158 and 1159 of the Corporation Tax Act 2010.

11 Going concern

The Company's business activities, together with factors likely to affect its future development and financial performance, are set out in the Chairman's Statement on pages 3 to 6 and the Directors' Statement of Responsibilities in respect of the Financial Statements on page 9. The Company's principal risks are listed in the Directors' Statement of Principal Risks and Uncertainties on page 9.

The Company's assets consist principally of a diversified portfolio of listed global equity shares, which in most circumstances are realisable within a short period of time and exceed its current liabilities by a significant amount. The Directors have concluded that the Company has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future, being a period of at least 12 months from the date this Half-Yearly Report is approved. For this reason, they have adopted the going concern basis in preparing the Financial Statements.

RISK FACTORS

This document is not a recommendation, offer or invitation to buy, sell or hold shares of the Company. If you wish to deal in the shares of the Company, you may wish to contact an authorised professional investment adviser.

An investment in the Company should be regarded as long term and is only suitable for investors who are capable of evaluating the risks and merits of such investment and who have sufficient resources to bear any loss which might result from such investment.

The market value of, and the income derived from, the ordinary shares can fluctuate. The Company's share price may go down as well as up. Past performance is not a guide to future performance. There is no guarantee that the market price of the ordinary shares will fully reflect their underlying NAV. Fluctuations in exchange rates will affect the value of overseas investments (and any income received) held by the Company. Investors may not get back the full value of their investment. There can be no guarantee that the investment objective of the Company will be met. The levels of, and reliefs from, taxation may change.

This Half-Yearly Report contains "forward-looking statements" with respect to the Company's plans and its current goals and expectations relating to its future financial condition, performance and results. By their nature, all forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to future events that are beyond the Company's control. As a result, the Company's actual future financial condition, performance and results may differ materially from the plans, goals and expectations set forth in the Company's forward-looking statements. The Company undertakes no obligation to update the forward-looking statements contained within this Half-Yearly Report or any other forward-looking statements it makes.

The Company is a public company. It is registered in Scotland and its shares are traded on the London Stock Exchange. The Company is not regulated or authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority.

The Directors of the Company, the directors of Edinburgh Partners AIFM Limited and the directors and employees of Edinburgh Partners Limited may (subject to applicable laws and regulations) hold shares in the Company and may buy, sell or offer to deal in the Company's shares from time to time.
