Analysis of the Company's Financial Performance and Condition

The Company recognized a loss of $7,502 for the three months ended June 30, 2024 (2023 - $9,698). The loss for the three months ended June 30, 2024 reflects a base level of expenses incurred as a public company with no commercial operations. These expenses were comparable with those incurred in the three months ended June 30, 2023. During the three months ended June 30, 2024, there was a professional fee recovery of $309 (2023 - expense of $2,160) as a result of annual audit fees billed that were lower than the amount previously accrued. Expenses incurred in the three months ended June 30, 2024 include $4,725 (2023 - $4,725) for administrative and corporate services; $3,063 (2023 - $2,783) for transfer agent, shareholder communications, listing and filing fees; and nominal office and sundry costs.

The Company recognized a $22,428 loss for the six months ended June 30, 2024 compared with a $25,010 loss for the six months ended June 30, 2023. Except for annual SEDAR+ fees charged in the three months ended March 31, 2024 and 2023, the losses for both periods are primarily the result of a pro-forma extension of the expenses incurred in the three months ended June 30, 2024 and 2023.

As a CPC, the Company's routine expenses will be limited to general administrative costs such as corporate and administrative fees, TSX-V listing and filing fees, audit fees and accounting. When the Company has identified a potential Qualifying Transaction, additional legal or other transaction-related costs may be incurred, regardless of whether the transaction is ultimately completed.

As at June 30, 2024, the Company had cash of $164,720 which is sufficient to pay $3,257 in accounts payable and accrued liabilities then outstanding, for its projected operating costs for the next 12 months, and to pursue a limited number of potential Qualifying Transactions. However, the Company will require additional longer-term financing should a Qualifying Transaction not be completed on a timely basis.

Capital Management

The Company is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements other than the expenditure restrictions applicable under Policy 2.4, which will apply following the completion of the IPO. These expenditure restrictions limit the Company's on-going expenditures reasonable expenses relating to a proposed Qualifying Transaction, assurance and audit fees, escrow agent and transfer agent fees, regulatory filing fees and a maximum of $3,000 per month for other general and administrative costs.

("Earlston"), an entity related to the Company by virtue of providing key management services and having certain directors and officers in common.
