

New Earth Resources Corp. Announces GeoXplor Corp. as Project Manager for the Lucky Boy Uranium Project

Vancouver, British Columbia--(Newsfile Corp. - October 31, 2025) - NEW EARTH RESOURCES CORP. (CSE: EATH) ("New Earth" or the "Company") is pleased to announce the appointment of GeoXplor Corp., an arm's length party to the Company, as the official project manager for the Company's Lucky Boy Uranium Project. Over 40 years of experience has enabled GeoXplor to provide expert personnel to supervise and manage projects such as Lucky Boy. This strategic collaboration underscores the Company's commitment to advancing exploration on the Project.

"We are excited to utilize GeoXplor as our project manager on Lucky Boy," said Lawrence Hay, CEO of New Earth Resources Corp. "Since they initially provided us with Lucky Boy as our original listing asset, their familiarity with the Project could prove paramount in our exploration efforts moving forward."

The Company also announces that Mr. Sean Webster has resigned as a director of the Company to focus on other interests. The Company's board of directors thanks Mr. Webster for his contributions to the Company.

About the Company

New Earth Resources Corp. is a Canadian-based mineral exploration company acquiring and developing advanced and early-stage exploration projects. Its flagship project is its 100% owned, past-producing Lucky Boy Uranium Property located in Gila County, Arizona, USA. Consisting of 14 Lode Claims, and spanning approximately 273 acres, the Lucky Boy Project covers a small open pit and underground workings that produced uranium in the 1950's, and again in the 1970's. In addition to Lucky Boy, included in the Company's uranium portfolio are three claims located in Saskatchewan, Canada covering 365 hectares.

The Company also has the option to acquire a 100% interest in 23 claims covering approximately 1,101 hectares in the Strange Lake area of Quebec, Canada, known as the "SL Project", which is prospective for rare earth elements.
