Dissent Rights - Continuance

Registered Shareholders as at the Record Date have the right to dissent with respect to the Continuance Resolution and, if the Continuance becomes effective, to be paid the fair value of their Common Shares in accordance with the provisions of Section 190 of the CBCA. A Shareholder's right to dissent in respect to the Continuance Resolution is more particularly described in the Circular under the section headed "Business to be Conducted at the Meeting – Continuance of Corporation to British Columbia – Dissent Rights" and the text of Section 190 of the CBCA is set forth in Appendix "H" of the Circular. Please refer to the Circular for a description of the right to dissent in respect of the Continuance Resolution.

Failure to strictly comply with the requirements set forth in Section 190 of the CBCA with respect to the Continuance Resolution may result in the loss of any right to dissent. Persons who are beneficial owners of Common Shares as at the Record Date registered in the name of a broker, custodian, nominee or other intermediary who wish to dissent should be aware that only the registered Shareholders as at the Record Date are entitled to dissent. Accordingly, a beneficial Shareholder as at the Record Date wishing to exercise the right to dissent in respect of the Continuance Resolution must make arrangements for the registered Shareholder to dissent on behalf of the beneficial Shareholder or, alternatively, such beneficial Shareholder may make arrangements for its Common Shares to be registered in such beneficial Shareholder's name prior to the time the written objection to the Continuance Resolution is required to be received by the Corporation.
