

Auditor's Consent Addressed to a Canadian Securities Regulator Related to a Prospectus

November 10, 2023

To the following: Alberta Securities Commission and British Columbia Securities Commission

Dear Sirs / Mesdames:

Re: Artrari One Capital Corp.

I refer to the amended and restated final CPC prospectus of Artrari One Capital Corp. (the "Company") dated November 10, 2023 relating to the sale and issue of up to 3,500,000 common shares of the Company.

I consent to being named and to the use in the above-mentioned prospectus the following reports:

- My audit engagement report dated April 19, 2023 to the shareholders of the Company on the following financial statements:
 1. Statements of financial position as at December 31, 2021 and December 31, 2022; and
 2. Statements of loss, changes in equity, and cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2021 and December 31, 2022, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

My review engagement report dated November 10, 2023 to the shareholders of the Company on the following financial statements:

1. Statement of financial position as at June 30, 2023; and
2. Statement of loss, changes in equity, and cash flows for the quarter ended March 31, 2023, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

I report that I have read the amended and restated final CPC prospectus and all information therein and have no reason to believe that there are any misrepresentations in the information contained therein that are derived from the financial statements upon which I have reported or that are within my knowledge as a result of my audit or review of such financial statements. I have complied with Canadian generally accepted standards for an auditor's consent to the use of a report of the auditor included in an offering document, which does not constitute an audit or review of the amended and restated final CPC prospectus as these terms are described in the CPA Canada Handbook – Assurance.

Sincerely,
