VOLUNTARY ANNOUNCEMENT CYBERSECURITY INCIDENT

This announcement is published on a voluntary basis by the board (the “Board”) of directors (the “Director(s)”) of Get Nice Holdings Limited (the “Company” and together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”).

The Company announces that the servers of Get Nice Securities Limited and Get Nice Futures Company Limited, being subsidiaries of the Group, experienced a cyberattack in the evening of 19 July 2026 resulting in a temporary interruption of their electronic trading systems and related services including stock withdrawal. Our technical team took prompt action to isolate the affected systems. During the downtime, the dealing hotline remained uninterrupted and clients could contact our dealing desk directly through the dealing hotline for manual order placement. The electronic trading systems and related services of Get Nice Securities Limited resumed operations at 9:00 a.m. on 22 July 2026. The electronic trading systems and related services of Get Nice Futures Company Limited will be resumed as soon as practicable.

Data security and our client’s trading interests are our highest priorities. The Group has taken immediate actions to contain the situation. A market leading cybersecurity firm had been engaged on 20 July 2026 to conduct an investigation into and to further enhance the Group’s network and system security measures. Currently, there is no evidence that any information has been misused.

The Company has reported the incident to the Hong Kong Police, The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, and the Securities and Futures Commission of Hong Kong.

In case of enquiries, affected clients can contact Mr. Larry Ng at larryng@getnice.com.hk for more information about the incident.

It is expected that the incident will not cause material adverse effect on the operation and financial performance of the Group and there is no inside information that has not been disclosed by the Company in relation to the incident.

Shareholders and potential investors are advised to exercise caution in dealing in the shares of the Company.
