- (2) Chengming Company shall authorise Operation Company to go through daily work exchange and business negotiations on behalf of Chengming Company with its superiors, including but not limited to attending meetings, business engagements and accepting inspections from relevant departments. During the term of entrusted operation and management, unless as otherwise agreed between the two parties, Chengming Company shall follow and cooperate with Operation Company in centralised operation and management of Qiongming Expressway.

- (3) Resolution and approval procedures of matters and plans falling within the annual budget and final accounts of Chengming Company shall be implemented according to the policies and regulations of Operation Company without the need to obtain separate authorisation or approval from Chengming Company, and such procedures performed by Operation Company shall be deemed as resolved and approved by Chengming Company. Where cooperation from Chengming Company is required, it shall provide assistance based on the relevant procedures of Operation Company. Resolution and approval procedures of matters and plans not covered in the annual budget and final accounts of Chengming Company shall be implemented according to the policies and regulations of Operation Company after approval from Chengming Company is obtained, and such procedures performed by Operation Company shall be deemed as resolved and approved by Chengming Company.
- (4) Chengming Company shall recognise business operations conducted by Operation Company in its own name or in the name of Chengming Company representing Chengming Company within the scope entrusted and bear legal responsibilities thereof. Where Chengming Company suffers losses caused by Operation Company, Operation Company shall assume full responsibility and make compensations accordingly. Acts conducted by Operation Company beyond the entrusted scope are not related with Chengming Company and Operation Company alone shall be held accountable in this regard.

Term of entrusted operation and management : From 1 January 2026 to 31 December 2028, which may be early terminated upon agreement by both parties due to change of controlling shareholder or actual controller of Chengming Company, and may be extended upon agreement by both parties after expiration, provided that requirements of the then applicable Listing Rules are complied with.

- Entrusted operation and management service fee and payment method : Operation Company shall charge a certain percentage of entrusted operation and management service fee based on the toll income (exclusive of tax) achieved after it is entrusted to take over relevant business of Chengming Company. Set out below is the detailed settlement and payment method:
- (1) 3% of the annual total toll income (exclusive of tax) shall be charged as the annual entrusted operation and management service fee;
 - (2) Payment method: on a monthly basis, Chengming Company shall pay Operation Company entrusted operation and management service fee of the previous month within 10 business days based on the cleared revenue (exclusive of tax) of Chengming Company as stated in the monthly “Toll Income Clearing Statement” (《通行費收入清分報表》) issued by Sichuan Intelligent Transportation System Management Co., Ltd. (四川智能交通系統管理有限責任公司); and
 - (3) Annual settlement method: Chengming Company shall, within 10 business days from completion of annual audit, pay Operation Company entrusted operation and management service fee of the previous year based on the annual toll income (exclusive of tax) as set out in the audited financial statements subject to the charge standard agreed in the New Entrusted Operation and Management Contract on a “make-even” basis.
- Pricing policy : The entrusted operation and management service fee is arrived at after arm’s-length negotiations between the two parties with reference to (i) calculations based on the toll revenue (exclusive of tax) generated from the relevant business of entrusted operation and management of Qionghong Expressway; (ii) the charge standards applied to expressways invested in and operated by other subsidiaries of the Company which are under entrusted operation and management by Operation Company; and (iii) traffic volume forecast of Qionghong Expressway in the forthcoming years.

2. Annual Caps for the Three Years Ending 31 December 2028

Historical transaction amounts

Set out below are the historical transaction amounts of the annual entrusted operation and management service fees paid to Operation Company by Chengming Company (exclusive of tax):

	For the year ended 31 December 2023 (RMB million)	For the year ended 31 December 2024 (RMB million)	For the eleven months ended 30 November 2025 (RMB million)
Annual entrusted operation and management service fee paid to Operation Company by Chengming Company	6.60	5.89	5.54 ^(Note)

Note: The Company expects that the actual transaction amount for the year ending 31 December 2025 will not exceed the established annual cap.

Annual caps

The annual caps determined by the Board for the three years ending 31 December 2026, 2027 and 2028 are set out below (exclusive of tax):

	Annual cap for the year ending 31 December 2026 (RMB million)	Annual cap for the year ending 31 December 2027 (RMB million)	Annual cap for the year ending 31 December 2028 (RMB million)
Annual entrusted operation and management service fee payable to Operation Company by Chengming Company	6.60	6.60	7.20

Basis for determining the annual caps

In determining the above annual caps, the Company adopted the calculation basis of “estimated annual entrusted operation and management service fee = estimated annual total toll revenue * 3%” and “estimated annual total toll revenue = estimated annual traffic volume * average vehicle toll price (i.e., the daily average toll per vehicle)” and primarily considered the following factors:

- (i) the estimated annual traffic volume for 2026 to 2028 arrived at based on the estimated annual traffic volume for 2025 and the growth rates for traffic volume from 2025 to 2028 calculated with reference to the forecasted traffic volume for Qiongming Expressway from 2025 to 2028 in the Qiongming Expressway Traffic Volume Analysis and Forecast Study Report issued to the Company by Sichuan Highway Planning, Survey, Design and Research Institute Co., Ltd. (an independent third party) in July 2023;
- (ii) the average vehicle toll price was determined with reference to the average vehicle toll price from 2023 to the first eleven months of 2025, and based on the average vehicle toll price for the first eleven months of 2025; and
- (iii) historical transaction amounts of the entrusted operation and management service fees paid to Operation Company by Chengming Company.

3. Reasons for and Benefits of Entering into the New Entrusted Operation and Management Contract

Operation Company was established by the Company on 29 April 2020 as a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company which is designated to take over the management of, among others, toll collection, maintenance, asset operation and development business of Chengguan Expressway, Chengpeng Expressway, Chengwenqiong Expressway and Qiongming Expressway, and with the proposal of gradually expanding management services to external expressways. Through the entrusted operation and management model and leveraging its professional operation and management model and economies of scale, Operation Company has significantly reduced the administrative expenses and maintenance costs while enhancing operational efficiency of Chengming Company, and effectively improved the operational capabilities of Qiongming Expressway.

The Directors (including independent non-executive Directors) are of the opinion that, the New Entrusted Operation and Management Contract is entered into in the usual and ordinary course of business of the Group on normal commercial terms, the terms of which are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Company and its shareholders as a whole.
