A creditor has the right, within thirty (30) days of receipt of the notice from the Company or, in the case of a creditor who does not receive such notice, within forty-five (45) days of the date of the announcement, to require the Company to repay its debts or to provide a corresponding guarantee. For a reduction of registered capital, the Company shall reduce the amount of capital contributions or shares in proportion to the shareholders' shareholdings percentages.
(Newly Added)	Article 26 If the Company still has losses after making up for them in accordance with paragraph 2 of Article 157 of these Articles of Association, it may reduce its registered capital to make up for the losses. Where the registered capital is reduced to make up for losses, the Company shall not make distributions to shareholders, nor shall it exempt shareholders from their obligations to make capital contributions or pay for shares. Where the registered capital is reduced in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the provisions of paragraph 2 of the Article 25 under these Articles of Association shall not apply. However, the Company shall announce the reduction on a designated

	media platform or the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 30 days from the date on which the general meeting passes a resolution to reduce the registered capital. After the Company reduces its registered capital in accordance with the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs, it shall not distribute profits until the accumulated amount of the statutory reserve and the discretionary reserve reaches 50% of the Company's registered capital.
Article 25 The Company may, in accordance with the procedures set out in the Company's Articles of Association and with the approval of the relevant governing authority of the State, repurchase its issued shares under the following circumstances: (1) for the purposes of reducing its registered capital; (2) merging with another company that holds shares in the Company; (3) using the shares for employee stock ownership plans or share incentive; (4) a shareholder who objects to a resolution on the merger or division of the Company adopted at a shareholders' general meeting requests that the Company purchase his shares; (5) using the shares for the conversion of the convertible corporate bonds which are issued by the Company; (6) necessary for the Company to maintain its value and its shareholders' rights and interests; (7) other circumstances permitted by laws administrative regulations. Except for the above circumstances, the Company shall not trade in its own shares.	Article 27 The Company shall not repurchase its own shares unless in the following circumstances: (1) reducing its registered capital; (2) merging with another company that holds shares in the Company; (3) using the shares for employee stock ownership plans or share incentive; (4) a shareholder who objects to a resolution on the merger or division of the Company adopted at a general meeting requests that the Company purchase his shares; (5) using the shares for the conversion of the convertible corporate bonds which are issued by the Company; (6) necessary for the Company to maintain its value and its shareholders' rights and interests; (7) other circumstances permitted by laws, administrative regulations and securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed.
Article 26 With the approval of the relevant governing authority of the State, the Company may repurchase shares in one of the following ways: (1) by making a general offer for the repurchase of shares to all its shareholders on a pro rata basis; (2) by repurchasing shares through public dealing on a stock exchange; (3) by repurchasing shares outside of the stock exchange by means of an off market agreement; (4) any other methods which are accepted by the securities regulatory authority under the State Council.	Article 28 The Company may repurchase its own shares by means of public centralized trading or other methods as recognized by laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed and the CSRC. If the Company repurchases its shares due to the circumstances as stipulated in Items (3), (5) and (6) of Article 27 of these Articles of Association, this shall be conducted by way of public and centralized trading.
Article 27 The Company must obtain prior approval of the shareholders in a general meeting (in the manner stipulated in the Company's Articles of Association) before it can repurchase shares outside of the stock	(Deleted)

exchange by means of an off market agreement. The Company may, by obtaining prior approval of the shareholders in a general meeting (in the same manner), terminate or amend the agreement which has been entered into in the above manner or waive any of its rights thereunder. An agreement for the share repurchase referred to in the preceding paragraph includes (without limitation) an agreement pursuant to which the Company agrees to undertake the obligation and acquire the right to the repurchased shares. The Company may not assign an agreement for the repurchase of its shares or any right contained in such an agreement.
Article 28 The repurchase by the Company of its own shares for a reason specified in Items (1) or (2) of Article 25 of the Company's Articles of Association, a resolution shall be made at a general meeting; the repurchase by the Company of its own shares for a reason specified in Items (3), (5) or (6) of Article 25 of the Company's Articles of Association, a resolution shall be made at a meeting of the board of directors by more than two-thirds of the directors attending the meeting according to the provisions of the Company's Articles of Association or the authorization of the general meeting. If the Company repurchases its shares pursuant to Item (1) of Article 25, it shall cancel such shares within ten (10) days of the date of such repurchase. If the Company repurchases its shares pursuant to Item (2) or Item (4) of Article 25, it shall transfer or cancel such shares within six (6) months. If the Company repurchases its shares pursuant to Items (3), (5) or (6) of Article 25, the total number of shares held by the Company shall not exceed ten per cent (10%) of all the shares issued by the Company and the Company shall transfer or cancel such shares within three (3) years. The aggregate par value of the cancelled shares shall be deducted from the Company's registered capital. Provided that if the accounting treatment on repurchase of shares of the Company in accordance with applicable accounting principles and standards provides otherwise, such accounting treatment shall be adopted.	Article 29 The repurchase by the Company of its own shares for a reason specified in Items (1) or (2) of Article 27 of the Company's Articles of Association, a resolution shall be made at a general meeting; the repurchase by the Company of its own shares not exceeding five per cent (5%) of its issued A Shares for a reason specified in Items (3), (5) or (6) of Article 27 of the Company's Articles of Association, a resolution shall be made at a meeting of the board of directors by not less than two-thirds of the directors attending the meeting. Repurchase by the Company of its H shares shall be conducted in accordance with securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed. If the Company repurchases its shares pursuant to Item (1) of Article 27 of these Articles of Association, it shall cancel such shares within ten (10) days of the date of such repurchase. If the Company repurchases its shares pursuant to Item (2) or Item (4) of Article 25, it shall transfer or cancel such shares within six (6) months. If the Company repurchases its shares pursuant to Items (3), (5) or (6) of Article 25, the total number of shares held by the Company shall not exceed ten per cent (10%) of all the shares issued by the Company and the Company shall transfer or cancel such shares within three (3) years.
Article 29 Unless the Company is in the course of liquidation, it must comply with the following provisions in relation to repurchase of its issued shares: (1) where the Company repurchases shares at par value, payment shall be made out of the account balance of distributable profits of the Company or out of the	(Deleted) proceeds from the issue of new shares made for the purpose of repurchasing old shares; (2) where the Company repurchases shares at a premium to its par value, payment for the amount of the par value shall be made out of the account balance of distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds from the issue of new shares made for the purpose of repurchasing old shares. Payment of the portion in excess of the par value shall be made as follows: (i) if the shares being repurchased were issued at par value, payment shall be made out of the account balance of distributable profits of the Company; (ii) if the shares being repurchased were issued at a premium to its par value, payment shall be made out of the account balance of distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds from the issue of new shares made for the purpose of repurchasing old shares, provided that the amount paid out of the proceeds from the issue of new shares shall not exceed the aggregate amount of premiums received by the Company on the issue of the shares repurchased, nor shall it exceed the book value of the Company's capital common reserve fund account (including the amount of premiums received on the issue of new shares) at the time of the repurchase; the Company shall make the following payments out of the Company's distributable profits: (iii) payment for the acquisition of the right to repurchase its own shares; (iv) payment for variation of any contract for the repurchase of its shares; (v) payment for the release of its obligation(s) under any contract for the repurchase of shares; after the Company's registered capital has been reduced by the aggregate par value of the cancelled shares in accordance with the relevant provisions, the amount deducted from the distributable profits of the Company for payment of the par value of shares which have been repurchased shall be credited to the Company's capital common reserve fund account.

CHAPTER 5: FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE FOR ACQUISITION OF SHARES	(Deleted)
Article 30 The Company and its subsidiaries shall not, at any time, provide any form of financial assistance to a person who acquires or proposes to acquire the shares of the Company. This includes any person who directly or indirectly incurs any obligations as a result of the acquisition of shares of the Company (the "Obligor"). The Company and its subsidiaries shall not, at any time, provide any form of financial assistance to the Obligor	(Deleted) for the purposes of reducing or discharging the obligations assumed by such person. This Article shall not apply to the circumstances specified in Article 32 of this Chapter.

Article 31 For the purposes of this Chapter, “financial assistance” includes (without limitation) the following: (1) gift; (2) guarantee (including the assumption of liability by the guarantor or the provision of assets by the guarantor to secure the performance of obligations by the Obligor), compensation (other than compensation in respect of the Company’s own default) or release or waiver of any rights; (3) provision of loan or the conclusion of any agreement under which the obligations of the Company are to be fulfilled before the obligations of the other party, any change to such loan or parties to the agreement, or the assignment of rights under such loan or agreement; (4) any other form of financial assistance given by the Company when the Company is insolvent or has no net assets, or if such financial assistance will substantially reduce the Company’s net assets. For the purposes of this Chapter, “assumption of obligations” includes the assumption of obligations by the Obligor by way of entering into any contract or making an arrangement (irrespective of whether such contract or arrangement is enforceable or not and irrespective of whether such obligation is to be borne solely by the Obligor or jointly with other persons) or by any other means which results in a change in his financial position.	(Deleted)
Article 32 The following actions shall not be deemed as activities prohibited by Article 30 of this Chapter: (8) the provision of financial assistance by the Company where the financial assistance is given in good faith in the interests of the Company, and the principal purpose of which is not for the acquisition of shares of the Company, or the financial assistance provided is an incidental part of a general plan of the Company; (9) the lawful distribution of the Company’s assets by way of dividend; (10) the distribution of dividend by allotment of shares; (11) the reduction of registered capital, the repurchase of shares of the Company or the reorganisation of the share capital structure of the Company effected in accordance with the Company’s Articles of Association;	(Deleted)

(12) the provision of loans by the Company within its scope of business and in the ordinary course of its business (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the net assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of the Company's distributable profits); (13) contributions made by the Company to the employee share ownership schemes (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the net assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of the Company's distributable profits).
CHAPTER 6: SHARE CERTIFICATES AND REGISTER OF SHAREHOLDERS	Section 3 Transfer of Shares
Article 33 Share certificates of the Company shall be in registered form. The share certificate of the Company shall, aside from matters required by the Company Law and the Special Regulations, also contain other matters required to be stated therein by the stock exchange(s) on which the Company's shares are listed.	(Deleted)
Article 34 Share certificates of the Company shall be signed by the Chairman of the Company's board of directors. Where the stock exchange(s) on which the Company's shares are listed require other senior officer(s) of the Company to sign on the share certificates, the share certificates shall also be signed by such senior officer(s). The share certificates shall take effect after being sealed or imprinted with the seal of the Company. The share certificate shall only be sealed with the Company's seal under the authorisation of the board of directors. The signatures of the Chairman of the board of directors or other senior officer(s) of the Company may also be in printed form.	(Deleted)
Article 35 The Company shall keep a register of shareholders which shall contain the following particulars: (1) the name (title), address (residence), occupation or nature of each shareholder; (2) the class and number of shares held by each shareholder; (3) the amount paid up or payable for the shares held by each shareholder; (4) the share certificate number(s) of the shares held by each shareholder; (5) the date on which each person was entered in the register as a shareholder;	(Deleted)

(6) the date on which any shareholder ceases to be a shareholder. Unless there is evidence to the contrary, the register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence of the shareholders' holding of shares of the Company.
Article 37 The Company shall have a complete register of shareholders which shall comprise the following parts: (1) the register of shareholders which is maintained at the Company's residence (other than those share registers which are described in sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Article); (2) the register of shareholders of Overseas Listed Foreign Invested Shares of the Company which is maintained in the same place as the overseas stock exchange on which the shares are listed; and (3) the register of shareholders which are maintained in such other place as the board of directors may consider necessary for the purposes of the listing of the Company's shares.	(Deleted)
Article 38 Different parts of the register of shareholders shall not overlap. No transfer of any shares registered in a certain part of the register shall, during the continuance of that registration, be registered in any other part of the register. Amendments or rectification of the register of shareholders shall be made in accordance with the laws of the place where the register of shareholders is maintained.	(Deleted)
Article 39 All Overseas Listed Foreign Invested Shares shall be transferred by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or any other form which the directors may approve. The instrument of transfer of any share may be executed by hand without seal. If the shareholder is a recognised clearing house or its nominee defined by the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong), the share transfer form may be executed by hand or in mechanically printed form. All Overseas Listed Foreign Invested Shares listed in Hong Kong which have been fully paid up may be freely transferred in accordance with the Company's Articles of Association. However, unless such transfer complies with the following requirements, the board of directors may refuse to recognise any instrument of transfer and would not need to provide any reason therefor: (1) a fee of HK$2.50 per instrument of transfer or such higher amount as the board of directors may from	(Deleted) time to time require but not exceeding the amount agreed from time to time in the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited has been paid to the Company for registration of the instrument of transfer and other documents relating to or which will affect the ownership of the shares; (2) the instrument of transfer only relates to Foreign-Listed Foreign Invested Shares listed in Hong Kong; (3) the stamp duty which is chargeable on the instrument of transfer has already been paid; (4) the relevant share certificate(s) and any other evidence which the board of directors may reasonably require to show that the transferor has the right to transfer the shares have been provided; (5) if it is intended that the shares be transferred to joint owners, the number of joint owners shall not be more than four (4); (6) the Company does not have any lien on the relevant shares. If the Company refuses to register any transfer of shares, the Company shall provide the transferor and transferee with a notice of refusal to register such transfer within two (2) months of formal application for the transfer.

Article 40 No change may be made in the H Share register of shareholders as a result of a transfer of shares within thirty (30) days prior to the date of a shareholders' general meeting or within five (5) days prior to the record date set by the Company for its distribution of dividends. Changes in the A Share register of shareholders shall comply with applicable PRC laws and regulations.	(Deleted)
Article 41 When the Company convenes a shareholders' meeting, distributes dividends, enters into liquidation or undertakes any other acts which requires determination of rights attaching to the shares of the Company, the board of directors or the convener of the shareholders' meeting shall decide on a date for the registration of rights attaching to the shares of the Company. The shareholders of the Company shall be such persons who appear in the register of shareholders at the close of such registration date.	(Deleted)
Article 42 Any person who has objections and requests to have his name (title) entered in or removed from the register of shareholders may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for rectification of the register.	(Deleted)
Article 44	(Deleted)

Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to the Company's Articles of Association and a bona fide purchaser acquires or becomes the registered owner of such shares, his name (title) shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.
Article 45 The Company shall not be liable for any damages sustained by any person by reason of the cancellation of the original share certificate or the issuance of the replacement share certificate unless the claimant is able to prove that the Company has acted in a deceitful manner.	(Deleted)
(Newly Added)	Article 30 Shares of the Company shall be transferred in accordance with the applicable laws.
(Newly Added)	Article 31 The Company shall not accept its own shares as the subject matter of a pledge.
Article 46 Shares held by the promoter of the Company may not be transferred within one (1) year of the date of establishment of the Company. Shares issued by the Company prior to the public offering of its shares may not be transferred within one (1) year of the date of listing of its shares on a stock exchange. The directors, supervisors, president, senior vice presidents, vice presidents, chief financial officer and other senior officers of the Company shall declare to the Company the status of their respective shareholding in the Company and any change thereof, and during their respective term of office , may not on an annual basis transfer more than twenty-five per cent (25%) of the shares of the Company held by them respectively. The shares held by the aforementioned person may not be transferred within one (1) year of the date of listing of the Company's shares. Any of the aforementioned person may not transfer the shares in the Company held by him/her within six (6) months after he/she leaves office, except for changes in his/her shares as a result of judicial enforcement, succession, bequest, or legal partition of property. Where a director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president, chief financial officer and other senior officer of the Company holds not more than one thousand (1,000) shares of the Company, he/she may transfer all of the shares at a time and shall not be subject to the restriction on transfer percentage specified in the preceding paragraph.	Article 32 Shares issued by the Company prior to the public offering of its shares may not be transferred within one (1) year of the date of listing of its A Shares on the Shanghai Stock Exchange. Where laws, administrative regulations or the securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed imposes other provisions, such provisions shall prevail. The directors and senior officers of the Company shall declare to the Company the status of their respective shareholding in the Company and any change thereof, and during their respective term of office as determined at the time of their appointment, may not on an annual basis transfer more than twenty-five per cent (25%) of the shares of the Company of the same class held by them respectively, unless the changes in shareholdings are a result of judicial enforcement actions, inheritance, bequests, or lawful division of property. Where a director or senior officer of the Company holds not more than 1,000 shares, he/she may transfer all shares at once without being subject to the aforementioned transfer ratio limitations. The shares held by the aforementioned person may not be transferred within one (1) year of the date of listing of the Company's shares. Any of the aforementioned person may not transfer the shares in the Company held by him/her within six (6) months after he/she leaves office.

Article 47 If a director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president, chief financial officer and other senior officer of the Company, or the shareholder of Domestic Invested Shares who holds five per cent (5%) or more of the shares of the Company, sells his shares in the Company within six (6) months of acquiring the same, or buys within six (6) months of selling his shares of the Company, gains arising therefrom shall belong to the Company and the board of directors of the Company shall recover such gains from him/her/it and make timely disclosure of the relevant circumstances. However, a securities company that acquires five per cent (5%) or more of the shares of the Company as a result of its underwriting commitment to purchase unsold shares shall not be subject to the six (6) month time limit when selling such shares. If the board of directors of the Company fails to act in accordance with the preceding paragraph, shareholders shall have the right to demand that the board of directors act accordingly within thirty (30) days. If the board of directors of the Company fails to act within the said time period, shareholders shall have the right, in the interests of the Company, to directly initiate proceedings in the court in their own name. If the board of directors of the Company fails to act in accordance with the first paragraph of this Article, the responsible directors shall be jointly liable in accordance with laws.	Article 33 If a director, senior officer of the Company, or a shareholder who holds five per cent (5%) or more of the shares of the Company, sells his/her/its shares or other securities with an equity nature in the Company within six (6) months of acquiring the same, or buys within six (6) months of selling his/her/its shares or other securities with an equity nature of the Company, gains arising therefrom shall belong to the Company and the board of directors of the Company shall recover such gains from him/her/it, except for a securities company that acquires five per cent (5%) or more of the shares of the Company as a result of its underwriting commitment to purchase unsold shares or other circumstances stipulated by the CSRC. The term “shares or other securities with an equity nature” held by a director, senior officer, or natural person shareholder as mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall include those held or through accounts in the names of other persons by his/her spouses, parents, children. If the board of directors of the Company fails to act in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article, shareholders shall have the right to demand that the board of directors act accordingly within thirty (30) days. If the board of directors of the Company fails to act within the said time period, shareholders shall have the right, in the interests of the Company, to directly initiate proceedings in the court in their own name. If the board of directors of the Company fails to act in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article, the responsible directors shall be jointly liable in accordance with laws.

The general meeting may be held not only in person at the meeting venue in the form of an on-site meeting, but also simultaneously through electronic communication means.
	Section 2 Convening of the General Meeting

(Newly Added)	Article 55 The board of directors shall convene a general meeting on time and within the prescribed period. Subject to the consent of more than half of all the independent directors, an extraordinary general meeting shall be convened with proposal by more than half of the independent directors to the board of directors. The board of directors shall, in accordance with the requirements of the laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association, give a written response as to whether or not it agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting within 10 days upon receipt of such proposal. If the board of directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, a notice of meeting shall be issued within 5 days after resolution of the board of directors is passed; any modifications to the original proposal in the notice shall require the approval of a majority of all independent directors. If the board of directors does not agree to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall make an announcement with relevant explanations.
(Newly Added)	Article 56 The audit and risk management committee shall propose to the board of directors in writing to convene an extraordinary general meeting. The board of directors shall give a written response as to whether it agrees to convene such extraordinary general meeting within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association. If the board of directors agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, a notice of meeting shall be issued within 5 days after the relevant resolution of the board of directors is passed. Any changes made to the original proposal in the notice shall be approved by the audit and risk management committee. If the board of directors does not agree to convene the extraordinary general meeting, or fails to give a response within 10 days after receipt of the proposal, it shall be deemed to be unable to or have failed to perform its duty of convening the general meeting, and the audit and risk management committee may itself convene and preside over such meeting by itself.
(Adjusted from the original Article 84)	Article 57

	Where any shareholders request for an extraordinary general meeting to be convened, the following procedures shall be followed: Shareholders who individually or in aggregate hold not less than ten per cent (10%) of the Company's shares (including preferred shares with restored voting rights) shall have the right to request in writing the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting. The board of directors shall, according to the laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association, give written feedback of consenting to or refusing the convening of such extraordinary general meeting within ten (10) days after it has received the request. If the board of directors consents to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall give notice for such general meeting within 5 days after it has so resolved. The consent of the concerned shareholders shall be obtained if any change is to be made to the request in the notice. If the board of directors refuses to convene an extraordinary general meeting , or it fails to give any feedback within ten (10) days after it has received the request, the shareholders who individually or in aggregate hold not less than ten per cent (10%) of the Company's shares (including preferred shares with restored voting rights) shall have the right to request in writing the supervisory committee to convene the extraordinary general meeting . If the audit and risk management committee consents to convene the extraordinary general meeting, a notice of meeting shall be issued within 5 days after receiving the requests. Any modifications to the original proposal in the notice shall require the approval of the relevant shareholders. If the audit and risk management committee fails to issue a notice of meeting within the required period, it shall be deemed that the audit and risk management committee failed to convene and preside over general meeting and a shareholder alone or shareholders in aggregate holding not less than ten per cent (10%) (including preferred shares with restored voting rights) of the Company's shares for not less than 90 days in succession may convene and preside over such meeting.
(Newly Added)	Article 58 If the audit and risk management committee or shareholders decide(s) to itself/themselves convene a general meeting, it or they must notify the board of directors thereof in writing, and simultaneously report the same to the Shanghai Stock Exchange for record.

	When the audit and risk management committee or convening shareholders issue the notice of the general meeting and announce the resolution(s) of the general meeting, it or they shall submit the relevant supporting documentation to the Shanghai Stock Exchange. Until the resolution(s) of the general meeting is/are announced, the shareholding percentages of the convening shareholders (including preferred shares with restored voting rights) may not be below ten per cent (10%).
(Adjusted from paragraph 2 of the original Article 84)	Article 59 When the audit and risk management committee or shareholders itself/themselves convene a general meeting, the board of directors and the secretary to the board of directors shall give their cooperation. The board of directors shall provide the register of shareholders as of the date of record. The necessary expenses of the meeting shall be borne by the Company.
	Section 3 Proposals and Notice of the General Meeting
(Adjusted from paragraph 2 of the original Article 65)	Article 60 The contents of a proposal shall be within the scope of the duties and powers of the general meeting, have definite themes and specific matters for resolutions, as well as in compliance with the relevant applicable laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed, and the relevant provisions of the Company's Articles of Association.
Article 65 When the Company convenes a shareholders' general meeting, shareholder(s) holding 3% or more of the total voting shares of the Company shall have the right to propose interim motions in writing to the convener ten (10) days prior to the date of such meeting. Within two (2) days upon receipt thereof, the convener shall issue a supplemental notice of the shareholders' general meeting to announce the content of such interim motions. The content of the motions mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall fall within the functions and powers of the shareholders' general meeting, shall contain clear subjects for discussion and specific matters to be resolved and shall comply with relevant provisions of the laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association.	Article 61 The board of directors, the audit and risk management committee and shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding not less than 1% of the shares of the Company (including preferred shares with restored voting rights) shall be entitled to propose motions to the general meeting. Shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding not less than 1% of the shares of the Company (including preferred shares with restored voting rights) shall have the right to propose interim motions in writing to the convener twelve (12) working days prior to the date of such meeting. Within ten (10) days upon receipt thereof, the convener shall issue a supplemental notice of the general meeting to announce the content of such interim motions, and submit such interim motions to the general meeting for consideration, except for those that violate the laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed or these Articles of

Article 66 The Company shall, based on the written replies which it receives from the shareholders twenty (20) days before the date of the shareholders' general meeting, calculate the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders who intend to attend the meeting. If the number of voting shares represented by the shareholders who intend to attend the meeting amount to one half or more of the Company's total voting shares, the Company may hold the meeting; if not, then the Company shall, within five (5) days, notify the shareholders by way of public announcement the matters to be considered at, and the place and date for, the meeting. The Company may then hold the meeting after publication of such announcement. A shareholders' general meeting shall not decide on any matter not stated in the notice for the meeting.	(Deleted)
Article 67 A notice of a meeting of the shareholders of the Company shall include the following requirements:	(Merged with Article 62)

(1) be in writing; (2) specify the form, place, date and time of the meeting; (3) state the matters to be discussed at the meeting; (4) provide such information and explanation as are necessary for the shareholders to make an informed decision on the matters to be discussed at the meeting. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, where a proposal is made to merge the Company with another, to repurchase the shares of the Company, to reorganise its share capital or to restructure the Company in any other way, the terms of the proposed transaction must be provided in detail together with copies of the proposed agreement, if any, and the cause and effect of such proposal must be properly explained; (5) include a disclosure of the nature and extent of the material interests (if any) of any director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president, chief financial officer or other senior officer in the proposed transaction and explain the effect which the proposed transaction will have on them in their capacity as shareholders provided that it is different from the effect on other shareholders of the same class; (6) include the full text of any special resolution to be proposed at the meeting; (7) include a conspicuous statement that a shareholder entitled to attend and vote at such meeting is entitled to appoint one (1) or more proxies to attend and vote at such meeting on his behalf and that a proxy need not be a shareholder; (8) specify the time and place for lodging proxy forms for the relevant meeting; (9) the registration date for the shareholders entitled to attend the meeting; (40) name and telephone number of the standing contact person of the meeting;
(Newly Added)	Article 63 For the proposal of election of directors in general meetings, the notice of such meetings shall include details of the candidate of directors for disclosure, and include at least the following: (1) personal details such as education, work experiences and concurrent positions; (2) whether there is any connected relationship with the Company or the controlling shareholder and de facto controller of the Company; (3) shareholding in the Company; (4) whether previously punished by CSRC or other relevant departments or stock exchange; (5) other contents as required by the laws, administrative regulations and securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed.

If several persons are authorized as the attorneys of the shareholder, the letter of authorization shall specify the number of the shares to be represented by each attorney.
Article 71 The instrument appointing a voting proxy and, if such instrument is signed by a person under a power of attorney or other authority on behalf of the appointor, a notarially certified copy of that power of attorney or other authorization documents shall be deposited at the residence of the Company or at such other place as is specified for that purpose in the notice convening the meeting, not less than twenty four (24) hours before the time for holding the meeting at which the proxy proposes to vote or the time appointed for the passing of the resolution. If the appointor is a legal person, its legal representative or such person as is authorised by resolution of its board of directors or other governing body may attend any meeting of shareholders of the Company as a representative of the appointor.	(Adjusted to Articles 66 - 68)
Article 72 Any form issued to a shareholder by the Company's board of directors for use by such shareholder for the appointment of a proxy to attend and vote at meetings of the Company shall be such as to enable the shareholder to freely instruct the proxy to vote in favour of or against the motions, such instructions being given in respect of each individual matter to be voted on at the meeting. Such a form shall contain a statement that, in the absence of specific instructions from the shareholder, the proxy may vote as he thinks fit. The Company has the right to request a proxy who attends a shareholders' meeting to provide evidence of his or its identity. If a shareholder which is a legal person appoints its legal representative to attend a meeting on its behalf, the Company has the right to request such legal representative to produce evidence of his identity and a notarially certified copy of the resolutions of such shareholder's board of directors in respect of the appointment of the proxy or the power of attorney executed by such other organisation which has the capacity to appoint the proxy.	(Adjusted to Articles 66 - 68)
Article 73	(Adjusted to Articles 66 - 68)

A vote given in accordance with the terms of a proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the death or loss of capacity of the appointor or revocation of the proxy or the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy is given, provided that the Company did not receive any written notice in respect of such matters before the commencement of the relevant meeting.

	Section 5 Voting and Resolutions of the General Meetings
Article 74	Article 77

Resolutions of shareholders' general meetings shall be divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions. An ordinary resolution must be passed by votes representing one half or more of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting. A special resolution must be passed by votes representing two-thirds or more of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meeting.	Resolutions of general meetings shall be divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions. An ordinary resolution must be passed by a majority of the voting rights represented by the shareholders present at the general meeting. A special resolution must be passed by votes representing two-thirds or more of the voting rights represented by the shareholders present at the general meeting.
Article 83 The following matters shall be resolved by a special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting: (1) increase or reduction in the share capital of the Company and the issue of shares of any class, warrants and other similar securities by the Company; (2) issue of debentures of the Company; (3) division, split, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company; (4) amendment of the Company's Articles of Association; (5) acquisition or disposal of major assets in one year or provision of securities for third parties which exceeds thirty per cent (30%) of the latest audited total assets of the Company; (6) stock incentive plans; (7) any other matters considered by the shareholders in general meeting, and resolved by way of an ordinary resolution, to be of a nature which may have a material impact on the Company and should be adopted by a special resolution in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association.	Article 78 The following matters shall be resolved by a special resolution at a general meeting: (1) increase or reduction in the registered share capital by the Company; (2) division, split, merger, dissolution, liquidation or change of corporate form of the Company; (3) amendment of the Company's Articles of Association; (4) acquisition or disposal of major assets in one year or provision of securities by the Company for third parties which exceeds thirty per cent (30%) of the latest audited total assets of the Company; (5) stock incentive plans and employee stock ownership plans; (6) any other matters which shall be resolved at a general meeting determined by the shareholders in general meeting, and resolved by way of an ordinary resolution, to be of a nature which may have a material impact on the Company and should be adopted by a special resolution in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed and the Company's Articles of Association.
Article 82 The following matters shall be resolved by an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' general meeting: (1) work reports of the board of directors and the supervisory committee; (2) annual profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans formulated by the board of directors; (3) appointment or removal of members of the board of directors and members of the supervisory committee, their remuneration and manner of payment; (4) annual budgets and final accounts, balance sheets and profit and loss accounts and other financial statements of the Company; (5) matters other than those which are required by the laws, administrative regulations or the Company's Articles of Association to be adopted by a special resolution.	Article 79 The following matters shall be resolved by an ordinary resolution at a general meeting: (1) work reports of the board of directors; (2) profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans formulated by the board of directors; (3) appointment or removal of members of the board of directors, their remuneration and manner of payment; (4) the Company's financial report; (5) the appointment or dismissal of the accounting firms of the Company engaged in the Company's audit business; (6) the change of the use of the raised funds; (7) the provision of financial assistance to others by the Company for the acquisition of shares of the Company or its parent company;

	(8) matters which shall be resolved at a general meeting other than those which are required by the laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed or the Company's Articles of Association to be adopted by a special resolution.
Article 75 A shareholder (including a proxy), when voting at a shareholders' general meeting, may exercise such voting rights as are attached to the voting shares which he/ represents. Except where the cumulative voting system is adopted for voting on the election of directors and supervisors under Article 76 hereof, each share shall have one (1) vote. No voting rights shall be attached to the Company's shares held by the Company, and such shares shall be excluded for the purpose of calculating the total number of voting shares held by the shareholders present at the shareholders' general meeting. Where any shareholder, under the listing rules, is required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to vote only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.	Article 80 A shareholder may exercise the voting rights as are attached to the voting shares which he/she/it represents, and each share shall have one (1) vote, except for voting on the election of directors by cumulative voting in accordance with the provisions of the Company's Articles of Association. When a general meeting considers major matters affecting the interests of medium and small investors, the votes of medium and small investors shall be counted separately. The results of such separate vote counting shall be promptly disclosed to the public. No voting rights shall be attached to the Company's shares held by the Company, and such shares shall be excluded for the purpose of calculating the total number of voting shares held by the shareholders present at the general meeting. If a shareholder's acquisition of voting shares violates the first and second paragraphs of Article 63 of the Securities Law, the voting rights represented by the portion exceeding the required ratio must not be exercised within thirty-six (36) months from the acquisition date and these shares are not included in the total number of the voting shares held by the attendees of the general meeting. The board of directors, independent directors, shareholders holding 1% or more of the voting shares or investor protection agencies established in accordance with laws, administrative regulations or the provisions of the CSRC may publicly solicit shareholders' voting rights. The solicitation of shareholders' voting rights shall fully disclose to the solicited person information such as the specific voting intention. No payment or other form of de facto payment shall be made to the shareholders' voting rights for such solicitation. Save for the statutory conditions, the Company shall not impose any limitation related to minimum shareholding on the collection of voting rights.
(Newly Added)	Article 81 When the matters relating to the connected transactions are being considered at the general meeting, the connected shareholders shall not participate in the voting, and the number of voting shares represented by them will not be counted in the total number of valid votes; the announcement of the general meeting

	resolutions shall fully disclose the voting by the non-connected shareholders.
(Adjusted from the original Article 62)	Article 82 Unless the Company is in a crisis or other special circumstances, without the approval of the general meeting by way of special resolution, the Company may not conclude any contract with any person other than directors or senior officers whereby such a person is put in charge of the management of the whole or a substantial part of the Company's business.
Article 76 The voting on the election of directors and supervisors at the shareholders' general meeting shall apply the cumulative voting system, which means that each share held by a shareholder shall have the same number of voting rights as the number of directors and supervisors to be elected and the voting rights held by a shareholder can be collectively exercised. In the event of any discrepancy between the relevant rules issued by regulatory authorities and the Articles of Association and its appendices, the shareholders' general meeting may decide to adopt an appropriate cumulative voting system subject to compliance with the laws and regulations. Details on the implementation of the cumulative voting system are set out in the rules of procedures of the Shareholders' General Meeting.	Article 83 The list of candidates for directors shall be submitted to the general meeting for voting by way of a proposal. The voting on the election of directors at the general meeting shall apply the cumulative voting system, which means that each share held by a shareholder shall have the same number of voting rights as the number of directors to be elected and the voting rights held by a shareholder can be collectively exercised. Details on the implementation of the cumulative voting system are set out in the Rules of Procedures of the General Meeting. If a general meeting approves the proposal for the election of directors, the new directors shall take office from the date of the general meeting's resolution.
Article 77 Except where the cumulative voting system is adopted, the shareholders' general meeting shall vote on all motions one by one. If there are different motions on the same issue, the motions shall be voted on in chronological order according to the sequence they are proposed. Except for the reasons of force majeure or other special reasons which cause the shareholders' general meeting to be adjourned or no resolutions can be made, the shareholders' general meeting will not shelve or refuse to vote on any motions.	Article 84 Except where the cumulative voting system is adopted, the general meeting shall vote on all motions one by one. If there are different motions on the same issue, the motions shall be voted on in chronological order according to the sequence they are proposed. Except for the reasons of force majeure or other special reasons which cause the general meeting to be adjourned or no resolutions can be made, the general meeting will not shelve or refuse to vote on any motions.
(Newly Added)	Article 85 No amendment shall be made to a proposal when it is considered at the general meeting; if changed, such amendments shall be deemed as a new proposal and shall not be voted at the current meeting.

Article 78 At any shareholders' general meeting, a resolution shall be decided on a show of hands unless voting by way of a poll is required under the listing rules or demanded by the following persons before or after any vote by a show of hands: (1) the chairman of the meeting; (2) at least two (2) shareholders present in person or by proxy entitled to vote thereat; (3) one (1) or more shareholders present in person or by proxy who represent(s), individually or in aggregate, 10% or more of all shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting. Unless voting by way of a poll is required under the listing rules or demanded by the persons, the chairman may declare that a resolution has been passed on a show of hands and the record of such in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that such resolution has been passed. There is no need to provide evidence of the number or proportion of votes in favour of or against such resolution. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who demands the same.	(Deleted)
Article 79 A poll demanded on the election of the chairman of the meeting, or on a question of adjournment of the meeting, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs, and any business other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may be proceeded with, pending the taking of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.	(Deleted)

Article 118 A director may resign from his position prior to the expiration of his term of service. The resigning director shall submit a written resignation report to the board of directors. Except for special circumstances, the board of directors shall disclose the information in connection thereof within two (2) days. If the number of the members of the board of directors falls below the statutory minimum due to the resignation of a director, the resigning director shall perform his duties as a director in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, department rules and the Company's Articles of Association until a new director is elected and takes his position. If the resignation of an independent director will lead to the situation that the proportion of independent directors in the board of directors or its committees fails to conform to rules of regulatory authorities or the Company's Articles of Association, or there is lack of accounting professionals among the independent directors, the independent director who plans to resign shall continue to perform his duties until the day when a new independent director is elected.	(Adjusted to original Article 104 and wording is amended)

Except for the circumstance mentioned in the preceding paragraph, a director's resignation shall take effect upon the delivery of the resignation report with the board of directors.
	Section 3 Independent Directors
(Newly Added)	Article 125 An independent director shall conscientiously perform his/her duties in accordance with the laws and administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association, play the roles of participating in decision-making, supervising checks and balances, and professional consulting in the board of directors, safeguard the Company's overall interests, and protect the legitimate rights and interests of small and medium shareholders.
(Adjusted from original Article 136)	Article 126 Independent directors shall keep their independence. None of the following persons may be appointed as an independent director: (1) anyone who holds a position in the Company or its subsidiaries, or his spouse, parents, children or major social relations; (2) any natural-person shareholder who directly or indirectly holds not less than than one per cent (1%) of the shares issued by the Company or who ranks in the top ten (10) shareholders of the Company, or his spouse, parents or children; (3) anyone who holds a position in any of shareholder who directly or indirectly holds not less than than five per cent (5%) of the shares issued by the Company or of the top five (5) shareholders of the Company, or his spouse, parents or children; (4) anyone who holds a position in a subsidiary of the controlling shareholder or de facto controller of the Company, or his spouse, parents or children; (5) anyone who has significant business contacts with the Company or its controlling shareholder, de facto controller or their respective subsidiaries, or anyone who holds a position in entities that have significant business contacts with the Company or such entities' controlling shareholders or de facto controllers; (6) anyone who provides financial, legal, consulting, sponsoring or any other service for the Company, its controlling shareholder, de facto controller or their respective subsidiaries, including but not limited to the project team members of intermediary agencies that provide services, the reviewers at all levels, the persons who sign on the report, partners, directors, senior managers and main responsible persons;

	(7) anyone who has fallen under any of the circumstances listed in Items (1) to (6) in the past twelve (12) months; (8) any other person who has no independence as provided for in laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed and the Company's Articles of Association. The subsidiaries of the controlling shareholder or de facto controller of the Company as mentioned in Items (4) to (6) of the preceding paragraphs shall not include the enterprises that are under the control of the same state-owned assets administration with the Company and have no related-party relationship with the Company according to relevant provisions. Independent directors shall conduct self-examinations on their independence every year and submit the self-examination results to the board of directors. The board of directors shall evaluate the independence of serving independent directors every year and give special opinions, which shall be disclosed simultaneously in the annual reports.
(Adjusted from original Article 137)	Article 127 To act as an independent director of the Company, the following conditions shall be satisfied: (1) having the qualification for acting as an independent director of a listed company in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and other relevant provisions; (2) meeting the requirements for independence as provided in Article 136 of the Company's Articles of Association; (3) having the basic knowledge on the operation of the listed company and being familiar with relevant laws, regulations and rules; (4) having than five (5) or more years' work experience in law, accounting or economics which are necessary for performing the duties and responsibilities of an independent director; (5) having good personal morality and having no such bad records as major dishonesty; (6) other conditions as provided for in laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed and the Company's Articles of Association.
(Newly Added)	Article 128 The independent directors, as members of the board of directors, shall owe a duty of loyalty and diligence to the Company and all shareholders, and shall prudently perform the following duties:

	(1) to engage in board deliberations and provide clear opinions on matters under discussion; (2) to monitor potential material conflicts of interest between the Company and its controlling shareholders, de facto controllers, directors or senior management officers, safeguarding the legitimate rights and interests of minority shareholders; (3) to offer professional and objective recommendations on the Company's business development, thereby enhancing the quality board decision-making; (4) to fulfil any additional responsibilities stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, the requirements of the securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed and the provisions of the Company's Articles of Association.
(Adjusted from original Article 106)	Article 129 The independent directors shall have the following special functions and powers: (1) independently engaging intermediaries to conduct audit, consultation or verification of specific matters of the Company; (2) proposing the board of directors to convene extraordinary general meetings; (3) proposing to convene meetings of the board of directors; (4) publicly soliciting shareholders' rights according to law; (5) expressing independent opinions on matters that may damage the rights and interests of the Company or its minority shareholders; (6) other functions and powers as prescribed by laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed and the Company's Articles of Association. An independent director who exercises the functions and powers as prescribed in Items (1) to (3) of the preceding paragraphs shall obtain the consent of more than half of all the independent directors. The Company shall make a disclosure in a timely manner if an independent director exercises the competences specified in paragraph 1. If an independent director is unable to exercise the aforesaid competences, the Company shall disclose the specific circumstances and reasons therefor.
(Newly Added)	Article 130 The following matters shall be submitted to the Board for deliberation with the consent of more than half of all independent directors of the Company: (1) connected transactions that should be disclosed;

	(2) plans for the Company and relevant parties to change or waive commitments; (3) decisions made and measures taken by the board of directors in relation to the acquisition; (4) other matters specified by law, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association.
(Newly Added)	Article 131 The Company shall establish a special meeting mechanism attended by all independent directors. Matters to be reviewed by the Board of Directors, such as connected transactions, shall obtain prior approval from the special meeting of independent directors. The Company shall convene special meetings of independent directors on a regular or irregular basis. Matters listed in item (I) to item (III) of paragraph 1 of Article 120 and Article 121 shall be considered at a special meeting of independent directors. The special meeting of independent directors may study and discuss other matters of the Company as needed. A special meeting of independent directors shall be convened and presided over by 1 independent director jointly elected by a majority of the independent directors; in the event that the convener fails to or is unable to perform his/her duties, 2 or more independent directors may convene and elect 1 representative to preside over the meeting at their discretion. The special meeting of independent directors shall prepare meeting minutes in accordance with regulations, and the opinions of the independent directors shall be recorded in the minutes. Independent directors shall sign and confirm the minutes. The Company shall facilitate and support the convening of a special meeting of independent directors.
	Section 4 Committees of the Board of Directors
(Adjusted from paragraph 3 of original Article 103)	Article 132 The board of directors shall establish a nomination committee, an audit and risk management committee, an investment and development committee, an examination and remuneration committee and a sustainable and development committee, which shall perform their duties in accordance with these Articles of Association and the authorization of the board of directors. Proposals made by the special committees shall be submitted to the board of directors for review and decision. The rules of procedures for special committees shall be formulated by the board of directors.

	All such committees shall be comprised of directors. The nomination committee shall be comprised of three (3) to four (4) directors and chaired by the Chairman of the board of directors with the majority members being independent directors. The audit and risk management committee shall be comprised of three (3) to four (4) directors not holding senior officer positions and chaired by an independent director who is the accounting professional with the majority members being independent directors. The investment and development committee shall be comprised of three (3) to four (4) directors. The examination and remuneration committee shall be comprised of three (3) to four (4) directors and chaired by an independent director with the majority members being independent directors. The sustainable development committee shall be comprised of three (3) to four (4) directors.
(Newly Added)	Article 133 The nomination committee is responsible for formulating the standards and procedures for the selection of directors and senior management, selecting and reviewing director and senior management candidates and their qualifications, and making recommendations to the Board of Directors on the following matters: (1) Nomination, appointment or removal of directors; (2) Engagement or removal of senior management; (3) Other matters stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory authorities of the places where the Company's shares are listed and the rules of procedures of board of directors. If the recommendations of the nomination committee are not adopted or fully adopted by the Board of Directors, the opinion of the nomination committee and the specific reasons for its non-adoption shall be recorded in the resolutions of the Board of Directors and disclosed accordingly.

Article 141

(Deleted)

~~Each of the Company's directors, supervisors, president, senior vice presidents, vice presidents, chief financial officer and other senior officers shall exercise his powers or perform his duties in accordance with the fiduciary principle; and shall not put himself in a position where his duty and his interest may conflict. This principle includes (without limitation) discharging the following obligations:~~

- ~~(1) to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;~~
- ~~(2) to act within the scope of his powers and not to exceed such scope;~~
- ~~(3) to exercise the discretion vested in him personally and not to allow himself to act under the control of other persons and, unless and to the extent permitted by laws, administrative regulations or with the informed consent of shareholders given in a general meeting, not to delegate the exercise of his discretion to other persons;~~
- ~~(4) to treat shareholders of the same class equally and to treat shareholders of different classes fairly;~~
- ~~(5) unless otherwise provided for in the Company's Articles of Association or except with the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting, not to enter into any contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company;~~
- ~~(6) not to use the Company's property for his own benefit without the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting;~~
- ~~(7) not to exploit his position to accept bribes or other illegal income or expropriate the Company's property in any way, including (without limitation) usurpation of opportunities which are beneficial to the Company;~~
- ~~(8) not to accept commissions in connection with the Company's transactions without the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting;~~
- ~~(9) to comply with the Company's Articles of Association, to perform his official duties faithfully, to protect the Company's interests and not to exploit his position and power in the Company to advance his own interests;~~
- ~~(10) not to compete with the Company in any way without the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting;~~
- ~~(11) not to misappropriate the Company's funds or lend such funds to any other person, not to use the Company's assets to set up deposit accounts in his own name or in any other name or use such assets to guarantee the debts of a shareholder of the Company or any other personal liabilities;~~
- ~~(12) not to release any confidential information relating to the Company which he has obtained during his term of office without the informed consent of the shareholders in a general meeting and not to use such information other than for the Company's benefit, save that disclosure of such information to~~ the court or other governmental authorities is permitted if: (i) disclosure is made under compulsion of law; disclosure is required for public interests; disclosure is required for the interests of the relevant director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president, chief financial officer or other senior officer; (13) to strictly comply with the relevant laws and regulations and the relevant rules of the stock exchanges on which the shares of the Company are listed in respect of dealings in the securities of the Company.

Article 142 Each director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president, chief financial officer and other senior officer of the Company shall not direct the following persons or institutions (“associates”) to act in a manner which he is prohibited from so acting: (1) the spouse or minor child of the director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president, chief financial officer or other senior officer; (2) the trustee of the director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president, chief financial officer or other senior officer or of any person described in sub paragraph (1) above; (3) the partner of the director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president, chief financial officer or other senior officer or any person referred to in sub paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article; (4) a company in which the director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president, chief financial officer or other senior officer, whether alone or jointly with the persons referred to in sub paragraphs (1), (2) and (3) of this Article or other directors, supervisors, president, senior vice presidents, vice presidents, chief financial officer and other senior officers, has de facto control; (5) the directors, supervisors, president, senior vice presidents, vice presidents and other senior officers of a company which is being controlled in the manner set out in sub paragraph (4) above.	(Deleted)
Article 143 The fiduciary duties of the directors, supervisors, president, senior vice presidents, vice presidents, chief financial officer and other senior officers of the Company do not necessarily cease with the expiry of their tenure. The duty of confidentiality in respect of trade secrets of the Company survives the expiry of their tenure. Other duties may continue for such period as the principle of fairness may require depending on the amount of time which has lapsed between the expiry of their tenure and the act concerned, and the circumstances and the terms under which the relationship between the relevant director, supervisor,	(Deleted)

president, senior vice president, vice president and the senior officer on one hand and the Company on the other hand was ended.
Article 144 Subject to Article 55, a director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president, chief financial officer and other senior officer of the Company may be relieved from liabilities for specific breaches of his duty with the informed consent of the shareholders given at a general meeting. Article 147 The Company shall not pay taxes for a director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president, chief financial officer or other senior officer in any manner.	(Deleted)
Article 148 The Company shall not directly or indirectly make a loan to or provide any security for a director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president, chief financial officer or other senior officer of the Company or of the Company's holding company or any of their respective associates. The foregoing prohibition shall not apply to the following circumstances: (1) the provision by the Company of a loan to or a security for its subsidiary; (2) the provision by the Company of a loan or a security or any other funds to any of its directors, supervisors, president, senior vice presidents, vice presidents, chief financial officer and other senior officers to meet expenditure incurred or to be incurred by him for the sake of the Company or for the purpose of enabling him to perform his duties properly, in accordance with the terms of a service contract approved by the shareholders in a general meeting; (3) if the ordinary business scope of the Company includes the provision of loans and security, the Company may make a loan to or provide a security to any of the relevant directors, supervisors, president, senior vice presidents, vice presidents, chief financial officer and other senior officers or their respective associates on normal commercial terms.	(Deleted)
Article 149 Any person who receives funds from a loan which has been made by the Company acting in breach of the preceding Article shall, irrespective of the terms of the loan, forthwith repay such funds.	(Deleted)
Article 150 A security for the repayment of a loan which has been provided by the Company acting in breach of Article	(Deleted)

148(1) shall not be enforceable against the Company, save in the following circumstances: (1) the security was provided in connection with a loan which was made to an associate of any of the directors, supervisors, president, senior vice presidents, vice presidents, chief financial officer and other senior officers of the Company or of the Company's holding company and the lender did not know of the relevant circumstances when providing the loan; or (2) the collateral which has been provided by the Company has already been lawfully disposed of by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.
Article 151 For the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this Chapter, a "security" includes an undertaking or property provided to secure the obligor's performance of his obligations.	(Deleted)
Article 152 In addition to any rights and remedies provided by the laws and administrative regulations, where a director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president, chief financial officer and other senior officer of the Company breaches the duties which he owes to the Company, the Company has a right: (1) to demand such director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president, chief financial officer or other senior officer to compensate for losses sustained by the Company as a result of such breach; (2) to rescind any contract or transaction which has been entered into between the Company and such director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president, chief financial officer or other senior officer, or between the Company and a third party (where such third party knows or should have known that such director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president or other senior officer representing the Company has breached his duties owed to the Company); (3) to demand such director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president, chief financial officer or other senior officer to account for profits made as result of the breach of his duties; (4) to recover any monies which should have been received by the Company and which were received by such director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president, chief financial officer or other senior officer instead, including (without limitation) commissions; and (5) to demand repayment of interest earned or which may have been earned by such director, supervisor, president, senior vice president, vice president, chief financial officer or other senior officer on monies that should have been paid to the Company. Article 153 The Company may purchase liability insurance for directors, supervisors, president, senior vice presidents, vice presidents, chief financial officer and other senior officers.	(Adjusted to Articles 107 and 147)
Article 154 The Company shall, with the prior approval of shareholders in a general meeting, enter into a contract in writing with a director or supervisor wherein his emoluments are stipulated. The aforesaid emoluments include: (1) emoluments in respect of his service as director, supervisor or senior officer of the Company; (2) emoluments in respect of his service as director, supervisor or senior officer of any subsidiary of the Company; (3) emoluments in respect of the provision of other services in connection with the management of the affairs of the Company and any of its subsidiaries; (4) payment by way of compensation for loss of office, or as consideration for or in connection with his retirement from office. No proceedings may be brought by a director or supervisor against the Company for anything due to him in respect of the matters mentioned in this Article except pursuant to the contract mentioned above.	(Deleted)
Article 155 The contract concerning the emoluments between the Company and its directors and supervisors should provide that in the event that the Company is acquired, the Company's directors and supervisors shall, subject to the prior approval of shareholders in a general meeting, have the right to receive compensation or other payment in respect of his loss of office or retirement. For the purposes of this paragraph, the acquisition of the Company includes any of the following: (1) an offer made by any person to all the shareholders; (2) an offer made by any person with a view to making the offeror become a "controlling shareholder" within the meaning of Article 56. If the relevant director or supervisor does not comply with this Article, any sum so received by him shall belong to those persons who have sold their shares as a result of the acceptance of such offer. The expenses incurred in distributing such sum on a pro rata basis amongst such persons shall be borne by the relevant director or supervisor and shall not be paid out of such sum.	(Deleted)

CHAPTER 3: CALLING OF SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETING	CHAPTER 3: CALLING OF GENERAL MEETING
Article 7 Shareholders' general meetings are divided into annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. Shareholders' general meetings shall be convened by the board of directors. Annual general meetings are held once every year and within six (6) months from the end of the preceding financial year. The board of directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two (2) months of the occurrence of any one of the following events: (1) where the number of directors is less than the number stipulated in the Company Law or two-thirds of the number specified in the Articles of Association; (2) where the unrecovered losses of the Company amount to one third of the total amount of its share capital; (3) where shareholder(s) who individually or jointly holds 10% or more of the Company's issued and outstanding voting shares request(s) in writing for the convening of an extraordinary general meeting; (4) whenever the board of directors deems necessary or the supervisory committee so requests; (5) other circumstances specified in laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations or the Articles of Association.	Article 7 General meetings are divided into annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. Annual general meetings are held once every year and within six (6) months from the end of the preceding financial year. An extraordinary general meeting shall be convened on an ad hoc basis. When circumstances specified in the Company Law or the Articles of Association requiring the convening of an extraordinary general meeting arise, such meeting shall be held within 2 months. If the Company is unable to convene a general meeting within the aforementioned time frame, it shall report to the China Securities Regulatory Commission ("CSRC") Beijing Branch and the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed, providing explanations for the delay and making a public announcement.

Article 8 The supervisory committee shall have the right to propose to the board of directors to convene an extraordinary shareholders' general meeting, and shall put forward its proposal to the board of directors in writing. The board of directors shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, give a written reply as to whether it agrees to hold the extraordinary shareholders' general meeting or not within 10 days of the receipt of the proposal. If the board of directors agrees to convene the extraordinary shareholders' general meeting, it shall serve a notice of such meeting within 5 days after the resolution of the board of directors is made. In the event of the notice making any change to the original motion, the consent of the supervisory committee shall be obtained. If the board of directors does not agree to convene the extraordinary shareholders' general meeting or fails to give a reply within 10 days of the receipt of the proposal, the board of directors shall be deemed to be unable or to have failed in performing its duty of convening a shareholders' general meeting, and the supervisory committee may convene and preside over the meeting by itself.	(Deleted)
(Newly Added)	Article 8 The board of directors shall convene a general meeting on time and within the prescribed period. Subject to the consent of more than half of all the independent directors, an extraordinary general meeting shall be convened with proposal by more than half of the independent directors to the board of directors. The board of directors shall, in accordance with the requirements of the laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association, give a written response as to whether or not it agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting within 10 days upon receipt of such proposal. If the board of directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, a notice of meeting shall be issued within 5 days after resolution of the board of directors is passed; any modifications to the original proposal in the notice shall require the approval of a majority of all independent directors. If

	the board of directors does not agree to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall make an announcement with relevant explanations.
(Newly Added)	Article 9 The audit and risk management committee shall propose to the board of directors in writing to convene an extraordinary general meeting. The board of directors shall give a written response as to whether or not it agrees to convene such extraordinary general meeting within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association. If the board of directors agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, a notice of meeting shall be issued within 5 days after the relevant resolution of the board of directors is passed. Any change made to the original proposal in the notice shall be approved by the audit and risk management committee. If the board of directors does not agree to convene the extraordinary general meeting, or fails to give a response within 10 days after receipt of the proposal, it shall be deemed to be unable to or have failed to perform its duty of convening the general meeting, and the audit and risk management committee may itself convene and preside over such meeting by itself.
Article 9 Where any shareholders request for the convention of an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting the following procedures shall be followed: Shareholders who individually or in aggregate hold not less than ten per cent (10%) of the Company's shares with voting right shall have the right to request in writing the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting. The board of directors shall, according to the laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association, give written feedback of consenting to or refusing the convening of such extraordinary shareholders' general meeting within ten (10) days after it has received the request.	Article 10 Where any shareholders request for the convention of an extraordinary general meeting, the following procedures shall be followed: Shareholders who individually or in aggregate hold not less than ten per cent (10%) of the Company's shares (including preferred shares with restored voting rights) with voting right shall have the right to request in writing the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting. The board of directors shall, according to the laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association, give written feedback of consenting to or refusing the convening of such extraordinary general meeting within ten (10) days after it has received the request.

If the board of directors consents to convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting, it shall give notice for such shareholders' general meeting within 5 days after it has so resolved. The consent of the concerned shareholders shall be obtained if any change is to be made to the request in the notice. If the board of directors refuses to convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting, or it fails to give any feedback within ten (10) days after it has received the request, the shareholders who individually or in aggregate hold not less than ten per cent (10%) of the Company's shares shall have the right to request in writing the supervisory committee to convene the extraordinary general meeting or class meeting. If the supervisory committee consents to convene the extraordinary general meeting or the class meeting, it shall give the notice for such shareholders' general meeting within five (5) days after it has received the request. The consent of the concerned shareholders shall be obtained if any change is to be made to the request in the notice. If the supervisory committee fails to give notice of convening the shareholders' general meeting within the provided time limit, the supervisory committee shall be deemed to have failed to convene and preside the shareholders' general meeting, and the shareholders who individually or in aggregate hold not less than ten per cent (10%) of the Company's shares for more than ninety (90) consecutive days may at their own discretion convene and preside such a meeting. Any reasonable expenses incurred by the shareholders concerned by reason of failure by the board of directors to duly convene a meeting shall be repaid to shareholders concerned by the Company and any sum so repaid shall be set off against sums owed by the Company to the defaulting directors.	If the board of directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall give notice for such general meeting within 5 days after it has so resolved. The consent of the concerned shareholders shall be obtained if any change is to be made to the request in the notice. If the board of directors refuses to convene an extraordinary general meeting, or it fails to give any feedback within ten (10) days after it has received the request, the shareholders who individually or in aggregate hold not less than ten per cent (10%) of the Company's shares (including preferred shares with restored voting rights) shall have the right to request in writing the audit and risk management committee to convene the extraordinary general meeting or class meeting. If the audit and risk management committee agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, a notice of meeting shall be issued within 5 days after receiving the requests; any modifications to the original proposal in the notice shall require the approval of the relevant shareholders. If the audit and risk management committee fails to issue a notice of meeting within the required period, it shall be deemed that the audit and risk management committee failed to convene and preside over general meeting and a shareholder alone or shareholders together holding not less than ten per cent (10%) of the Company's shares (including preferred shares with restored voting rights) for not less than 90 days in succession may convene and preside over such meeting.
Article 10 Where any shareholders' general meeting is convened by the shareholders as a result of the directors' failure to convene a meeting at shareholders' request the procedure of convention shall as far as possible follow the case where the board of directors convenes a shareholders' general meeting, and all reasonable expenses so incurred shall be borne by the Company,	(Adjusted to Article 12)

and any sum so borne shall be set off against sums owed by the Company to the defaulting directors.
Article 11 In the event that the supervisory committee or the shareholders intend to convene a shareholders' general meeting, the supervisory or the shareholders concerned shall issue a written notice to the board of directors and, at the same time, notify the accredited representative's offices of China Securities Regulatory Commission ("CSRC") at the locality of the Company and the stock exchange. Before announcing the decision to convene the shareholders' general meeting, the shareholding of those shareholders who convened the meeting shall not be less than 10%. The supervisory and the shareholders convening the shareholders' general meeting shall, at the time of issuing the notice of shareholders' general meeting and the announcement to convene the shareholders' general meeting, submit relevant materials to the accredited representative's offices of China Securities Regulatory Commission ("CSRC") at the locality of the Company and the stock exchange.	Article 11 In the event that the audit and risk management committee or the shareholders intend to convene a general meeting, the audit and risk management committee or the shareholders concerned shall issue a written notice to the board of directors and, at the same time, notify the Shanghai Stock Exchange. Before announcing the decision to convene the general meeting, the shareholding of those shareholders (including preferred shares with restored voting rights) who convened the meeting shall not be below 10%. The audit and risk management committee and the shareholders convening the general meeting shall, at the time of issuing the notice of general meeting and the announcement to convene the general meeting, submit relevant materials to the and the Shanghai Stock Exchange.
Article 12 With regard to the shareholders' general meeting convened by the supervisory or shareholders on its/their own initiative, the board of directors and its secretary shall offer cooperation. The board of directors shall provide the register of shareholders as of the shareholding record date. If the board of directors fails to provide the register of shareholders, the convener may apply to the securities registration and clearing authority to obtain it upon presentation of the announcement relating to the notice of the shareholders' general meeting. The register of shareholders obtained by the convener shall not be used for other purposes except for convening the shareholders' general meeting.	Article 12 With regard to the general meeting convened by the audit and risk management committee or shareholders on its/their own initiative, the board of directors and its secretary shall offer cooperation, and the necessary expenses of the meeting shall be borne by the Company. The board of directors shall provide the register of shareholders as of the shareholding record date. CHAPTER 7: RESOLUTION AND DECISION OF THE SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETING	CHAPTER 6: RESOLUTION AND DECISION OF THE GENERAL MEETING

~~A shareholder (including a proxy), when voting at a shareholders' general meeting, may exercise such voting rights as are attached to the voting shares which he represents. Except where the cumulative voting system is adopted for voting on the election of directors and supervisors under the Articles of Association and the provisions hereof, each share shall have one (1) vote.~~

No voting rights shall be attached to the Company's shares held by the Company, and such shares shall be excluded for the purpose of calculating the total number of voting shares held by the shareholders present at the shareholders' general meeting.

~~Where any shareholder, under the listing rules, is required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to vote only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.~~

A shareholder may exercise such voting rights as are attached to the voting shares which he represents. Except where the cumulative voting system is adopted for voting on the election of directors under the Articles of Association and the provisions hereof, each share shall be entitled to one (1) vote.

When the general meeting deliberates on matters related to connected transactions, connected shareholders shall abstain from voting, and the voting shares they represent shall not be counted in the total number of valid votes. The announcement of the general meeting's resolutions shall fully disclose the voting results of non-connected shareholders.

When a general meeting considers major matters affecting the interests of medium and small investors, the votes of medium and small investors shall be counted separately. The results of such separate vote counting shall be promptly disclosed to the public.

No voting rights shall be attached to the Company's shares held by the Company, and such shares shall be excluded for the purpose of calculating the total number of voting shares held by the shareholders present at the general meeting.

If a shareholder's acquisition of voting shares violates the first and second paragraphs of Article 63 of the Securities Law, the voting rights represented by the portion exceeding the required ratio must not be exercised within thirty-six (36) months from the acquisition date and these shares are not included in the total number of the voting shares held by the attendees of the general meeting.

The board of directors, independent directors, shareholders holding 1% or more of the voting shares or investor protection agencies established in accordance with laws, administrative regulations or the provisions of the CSRC may publicly solicit shareholders' voting rights. The solicitation of shareholders' voting rights shall fully disclose to the solicited person information such as the specific voting intention. No payment or other form of de facto payment shall be made to the shareholders' voting rights for such solicitation. Save for the statutory conditions, the Company shall not impose any limitation related to minimum shareholding on the collection of voting rights.

Article 39

The voting on the election of directors ~~and supervisors~~ at the ~~shareholders'~~ general meeting shall apply the cumulative voting system according to the Articles of Association, which means that each share held by a shareholder shall have the same number of voting rights as the number of directors ~~and supervisors~~ to be elected and the voting rights held by a shareholder can be collectively exercised.
