In 2025, however, due to the gradual post-merger adjustment of key production lines and organizational structure including employee severance, disposal of obsolete equipment, and closure of non-operating subsidiaries together with significant foreign exchange fluctuations in operating currencies, the Company recorded an overall loss for the year. Nevertheless, the Company's operating revenue and gross profit in the first quarter of 2026 increased substantially, and profitability has returned to normal. The Company expects to maintain a growth trend in 2026 compared with 2025.
- II. In 2025, as the delisting process of BIGL had not yet been completed, the earnings distribution plan required additional considerations. Starting from 2026, the Company expects to receive higher dividend remittances from its subsidiaries, which will further support the self-liquidating repayment plan for the acquisition financing.

2025 Business Report

Dear Shareholders,

Greetings. We would like to express our sincere appreciation for your continued encouragement and support over the past year, and for taking the time out of your busy schedules to attend the 2026 Annual General Meeting of the Company. We hereby present a summary of the Company's 2025 operating results and its 2026 business plan as follows:

2025 Operating Results

In 2025, the global market was impacted by U.S. tariff policies and significant foreign exchange volatility. However, driven by demand for AI computing and cloud storage, end-market prices for HDDs and SSDs increased substantially. According to the financial data and market supply-demand outlook released by Seagate and Western Digital (WD), which together dominate the global HDD market, HDD order demand has already been booked through 2027.

In addition, according to a report by Mizuho Securities analyst Vijay Rakesh, generative AI applications such as SORA2, VEO3, and Grok Imagine, which provide AI-based video generation capabilities, are expected to increase data storage demand by 7 to 11 times between 2024 and 2030. At the same time, AI tokens generated by large language models are doubling every six months.

Compared with SSDs, HDDs not only provide larger storage capacity, but also significantly lower cost per unit of storage, with current pricing differences estimated to exceed 20 times. As a result, HDDs remain the most cost-effective solution for backup data, archival records, and other infrequently accessed but long-term storage requirements. Seagate has currently obtained qualification from five hyperscale cloud service providers and is supplying HDDs with storage capacity of up to 36TB per drive. In the first half of 2026, Seagate plans to obtain qualification from three additional hyperscale customers and further increase HDD capacity to 44TB, thereby enhancing storage efficiency and supporting continued expansion of the HDD market. Western Digital has also announced that its 40TB UltraSMR energy-assisted perpendicular magnetic recording (ePMR) HDD, currently the world's highest-capacity HDD product, is undergoing qualification with two hyperscale data center customers and is expected to enter mass production in the second half of 2026. Meanwhile, WD's Heat-Assisted Magnetic Recording (HAMR) HDD products are also being qualified by two hyperscale customers, with large-scale production expansion expected in 2027.

In the automotive market, global vehicle sales in 2025 reached approximately 96.47 million units, representing a 5% increase from the previous year. Among major markets, China recorded 9% growth, the United States approximately 1%, India 7%, and Japan 3%, demonstrating that China remains the fastest-growing automotive market.

From an operational perspective, the Company completed the tender offer for Broadway Industrial Group Limited in Singapore on December 23, 2024, and acquired a 93.05% equity interest. As a result, the Company's operating scale expanded significantly in 2025, with revenue increasing from NT$1.782 billion in 2024 to NT$9.323 billion in 2025, representing growth of more than four times. The Company has also become a qualified first-tier supplier to two of the world's largest storage device manufacturers. As for the automotive parts business, uncertainty arising from U.S. tariff policies and reliance on foreign automotive brands operating in China and export markets have created operational challenges. Nevertheless, supported by the Company's major new energy vehicle (NEV) customer in China and continued growth in the domestic Chinese market, the adverse impact from weakness in overseas automotive markets has been partially offset, allowing the automotive parts business to remain relatively stable.

The following table presents a comparison of the relevant operating results for 2024 and 2025:

Unit: NTD thousand	Analysis Item	2024	2025	YoY Change (%)
Profit & Loss	Operating Revenue	1,782,271	9,323,367	423.12%
	Gross Profit	344,630	995,975	189.00%
	Net Profit After Tax	335,545	(430,353)	(228.25%)
	Comprehensive Income	411,299	(531,608)	(229.25%)
Profitability	Return on Assets (%)	6.16	(3.16)	(151.30%)
	Return on Equity (%)	17.25	(18.64)	(208.06%)
	Operating Profit to Paid-in Capital (%)	(56.88)	(3.69)	93.51%
	Pre-Tax Income to Paid-in Capital (%)	67.92	(48.31)	(171.13%)
	Net Profit Margin (%)	18.83	(4.62)	(124.54%)
	Basic EPS (NTD)	7.34	(6.81)	(192.78%)
	Diluted EPS (NTD)	7.20	(6.81)	(194.58%)

The Company's 2025 budget projected operating revenue of NT$9,323,367 thousand and a net loss after tax of NT$(430,353) thousand. The primary factors contributing to the loss include the impact of U.S. tariff policies on production plans of end customers for metal components, operational restructuring of the robotics subsidiary, and further relocation of HDD production capacity and supply operations from China to Thailand. During the transition process, the Company disposed of old equipment and invested in new automation equipment, while significant foreign exchange volatility also resulted in higher recognized exchange losses. Nevertheless, the majority of these operational adjustments were completed in 2025, and operations are expected to stabilize in 2026.

In order to enhance product competitiveness, the Company's major research and development initiatives are summarized as follows:

*HDD Segment: In addition to the successful mass production of the customer's mainstream 32TB storage applications, the Company is cooperating with customers in the joint development of next-generation higher-capacity storage solutions.

*Metal Components Segment: Enhance tooling capabilities for high-precision metal processing products and expand into precision metal processing applications beyond the automotive sector.

*Stamping Equipment Segment: In response to customer demand, the Company has completed the planning of 1,200-ton stamping equipment and plans to complete the R&D and design of 1,500-ton stamping equipment in 2026.

*Service Robotics Segment: Launch of the outdoor Version 3.0 service robot platform to meet market demand in Europe and the United States.

2026 Business Plan

Driven by strong end-market demand for HDD products in 2025, the Company successfully achieved rapid growth in operating scale. In the automotive metal stamping components business, the Company secured orders and commenced production for BYD in the China market, while maintaining stable operations in Indonesia. In the stamping equipment business, the Company actively expanded its sales channels and entered the AI thermal management application market, with current order discussions primarily focused on large-tonnage equipment.

For automotive components and HDD actuator arm metal and assembly processing businesses, due to the large variety of components involved, total sales volume in 2026 is preliminarily estimated to reach approximately 135 million units/sets. The production and sales policy for metal components is entirely order-driven. Since customers in both sectors provide rolling forecasts ranging from two weeks to six months, procurement of raw materials and production scheduling are arranged accordingly, enabling effective control and forecasting of inventory levels and labor costs. In addition, stamping equipment and robotics products are manufactured strictly on a build-to-order basis upon receipt of confirmed customer orders.

Looking ahead to 2026, in the automotive metal stamping components business, the Company will continue pursuing new projects from existing customers while expanding its customer base beyond the automotive sector. In the stamping equipment business, in addition to confirmed customer orders currently on hand, the Company will continue strengthening its branding and intellectual property protection strategy while actively pursuing greater market share. In the service robotics business, beyond deepening existing market penetration, the Company has also deployed products in several major locations in Taiwan since 2025 and plans to collaborate with local Taiwanese partners to further expand service coverage areas.

In the HDD sector, following the acquisition of Broadway Industrial Group Limited, the Company officially entered the data storage supply chain. According to a report by Knowledge Sourcing Intelligence, the global HDD market is expected to grow from US$24.196 billion in 2025 to US$28.045 billion by 2030, representing a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of approximately 3%. Growth is primarily driven by increasing demand for nearline HDDs, particularly from AI model training, cloud backup, and video generation applications. Compared with HDDs, SSDs remain unable to fully satisfy commercial market requirements in terms of cost efficiency. Meanwhile, the world's two largest storage brands have both launched and commercialized large-capacity HDD products, making high-capacity HDDs a new blue ocean market opportunity. The expansion of hyperscale data centers and increasing enterprise storage demand, coupled with the rapid emergence of new AI applications highlighting the value of large-scale datasets, are expected to further strengthen demand for traditional HDD products.

Although market demand continues to rise, the HDD industry still faces challenges arising from tariff policy changes and global economic uncertainties. The Company has proactively optimized cost management and production planning across the Group to improve operational efficiency and mitigate adverse cost impacts, thereby maintaining stable and sustainable contributions to overall operations.

Once again, we thank all shareholders for your continued support and encouragement. Integrity, quality first, and sustainable management remain the Company's core principles. In 2026, the management team and all employees will remain committed to executing the business plan, investing in R&D, enhancing product diversity, creating new business opportunities, and increasing shareholder value.

We wish all shareholders good health and success in the coming year.

Sincerely,

Chairman Wee Liang Kiang

General Manager Wee Hong Jie

Chief Accountant Cheng Ya Hsin

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

The Board of Directors and Shareholders
Patec Precision Industry Co., Ltd.

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of Patec Precision Industry Co., Ltd. and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the “Group”), which comprise the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the consolidated statements of comprehensive income, changes in equity and cash flows for the years then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies (collectively referred to as the “consolidated financial statements”).

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the Group as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers and International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), International Accounting Standards (IAS), IFRIC Interpretations (IFRIC), and SIC Interpretations (SIC) endorsed and issued into effect by the Financial Supervisory Commission of the Republic of China.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants and the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with The Norm of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountant of the Republic of China, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2025. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Attachment V

Key audit matter in the audit of the Group's consolidated financial statements is stated below:

Major Customers Contributing to Sales Revenue after Business Combination

Following the acquisition of Broadway Industrial Group Limited ("BIGL"), the Group's consolidated operating revenue increased significantly in 2025. Such growth was primarily driven by major customers newly added as a result of the business combination with BIGL, which accounted for approximately 75% of total sales revenue. Given that the recognition of sales revenue from these major customers involves whether it is carried out in accordance with appropriate operating procedures and accounting principles, and has a significant impact on the presentation of the consolidated financial performance, the authenticity of sales revenue from such customers was identified as a key audit matter. Refer to Note 4 to the Group's financial statements for the accounting policy of revenue recognition.

Our audit procedures for the aforementioned key audit matter are described as follows:

1. Understand and test the design and implementation of internal controls related to the sales revenue recognition.
2. Sample the revenue details, review the relevant supporting documents, test the receipt, and verified the consistency of the sales counterparties and the recipients to confirm the authenticity of sales transactions.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers, International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), International Accounting Standards (IAS), IFRIC Interpretations (IFRIC), and SIC Interpretations (SIC) endorsed and issued into effect by the Financial Supervisory Commission of the Republic of China, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance, including the audit committee and supervisors, are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing of the Republic of China, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

1. Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
2. Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
3. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
4. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditors' report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditors' report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
5. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
6. Obtain sufficient and appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision, and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2025 and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditors' report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partners on the audits resulting in this independent auditors' report are Kuan-Hao, Li and Yi-Chi, Chein.

52. In the case of joint Members, the joint Members shall select a representative among them to exercise their voting powers and the vote cast by such representative, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint Members.
53. A Shareholder who holds Shares for the benefit of others need not use all his votes or cast all the votes he holds in the same way as he uses his votes in respect of Share he holds for himself. The qualifications, scope, methods of exercise, operating procedures and other requirements for separate votes shall be in compliance with the Applicable Listing Rules.
54. Any corporation which is a Member of the Company may, by resolution of its board or other governing body, authorise such natural person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any general meeting or at any meeting of a Class of Members of the Company.
55. (1) Subject to the Law and the Applicable Listing Rules, Shares held by the following persons shall not be counted in the total number of issued Shares of the Company which are entitled to vote for when calculating the quorum at a general meeting and Members belonging to the following persons shall abstain from voting in respect of all Shares held by them:

56. To the extent permitted by the Law and subject to the Applicable Listing Rules, the Board may resolve that the voting power of a Member at a general meeting may be exercised by way of a written ballot or by way of electronic transmission. The way of electronic transmission shall be one of the voting methods at the general meeting. The method for exercising such voting power shall be described in the general meeting notice to be given to the Members if the voting power may be exercised by way of a written ballot or electronic transmission. Any Member who intends to exercise his voting power by way of a written ballot or by way of electronic transmission shall serve the Company with his voting decision at least two (2) days prior to the date of such general meeting. Where more than one voting decision are received from the same Member by the Company, the first voting decision shall prevail, unless an explicit written statement is made by the relevant Member to revoke the previous voting decision in the later-received voting decision. A Member who exercises his voting power at a general meeting by way of a written ballot or by electronic transmission shall be deemed to have appointed the chairman of the general meeting as his proxy to vote his Shares at the general meeting only in the manner directed by his written instrument or electronic document. The chairman of the general meeting as proxy shall not have the power to exercise the voting rights of such Members with respect to any matters not referred to or indicated in the written or electronic document, impromptu proposal and/or any amendment to resolution(s) proposed at the said general meeting. For the purpose of clarification, such Members voting in such manner shall be deemed to have waived their voting rights with respect to any extemporary matters or amendment to resolution(s) proposed at the general meeting.
57. In case a Member who has cast his votes by a written instrument or by way of electronic transmission intends to attend the relevant general meeting in person, he shall, at least two (2) day prior to the date of the general meeting, revoke such votes by serving a notice in the same manner as he cast such votes. In the absence of a timely revocation of such votes, such votes shall prevail. Nonetheless, a Member who attends and votes at a general meeting in person would be deemed to have revoked his prior voting instructions by a written instrument or by way of electronic transmission, notwithstanding that such shareholder has not submitted a revocation notice in accordance with this Article 57.

58. (1) A Member may appoint a proxy to attend a general meeting on his behalf by executing a proxy form produced by the Company stating therein the scope of power authorized to the proxy. A proxy need not be a Member.

59. A Member may only appoint one proxy for each general meeting irrespective of how many Shares he holds and shall serve an executed proxy in compliance with the preceding Article to the Company or its Shareholder Service Agent as the case may be no later than five (5) days prior to the date of the general meeting. In case the Company receives two or more proxies from one Member, the one received first by the Company shall prevail unless an explicit statement by the Member to revoke such proxy is made in the subsequent proxy, provided this subsequent proxy is received no later than five (5) days prior to the date of the general meeting.
60. In case a Member who has served a proxy intends to attend the relevant general meeting in person or to exercise his voting power by way of a written ballot or electronic transmission, he shall, at least two (2) days prior to the date of the general meeting, revoke such proxy by serving a separate written notice to the Company or Shareholder Service Agent; otherwise, the votes cast by the proxy at the general meeting shall prevail.
61. A Member who has served the Company with his voting decision in accordance with Article 56 for the purpose of exercising his voting power by way of a written ballot or by way of electronic transmission may appoint a person as his proxy to attend the meeting in accordance with these Articles, in which case the vote cast by such proxy shall be deemed to have revoked his previous voting decision served on the Company and the Company shall only count the vote(s) cast by such expressly appointed proxy at the meeting.
62. During the Relevant Period, except for trust enterprises or shareholder service agencies duly licensed under the R.O.C. competent authorities or the chairman of a general meeting who is deemed appointed as proxy pursuant to Article 56, where a Person acts as a proxy for two or more Members, the number of voting Shares that the proxy may vote in respect thereof shall not exceed three percent (3%) of the total number of issued and outstanding voting Shares; otherwise, such number of voting Shares in excess of the aforesaid threshold shall not be counted towards the number of votes cast for or against the relevant resolution or the number of voting Shares present at the relevant general meeting but shall be included in the quorum. Upon such exclusion, the number of voting Shares being excluded and attributed to each Member represented by the same proxy shall be determined on a pro-rata basis based on the total number of voting Shares being excluded and the number of voting Shares that such Members have appointed the proxy to vote for.

63. The use and solicitation of proxies not provided for in these Articles shall be governed by the internal rules of the Company, as adopted and amended by the Board from time to time, which shall be in compliance with the Law and the Applicable Listing Rules (in particular, the Regulations Governing the Use of Proxies for Attendance at Shareholder Meetings of R.O.C. Public Companies (as amended, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time)).

- (2) A Director can be a natural person or a Juristic Person. Where a Director is a Juristic Person, it shall designate a natural person as its authorized representative to exercise, on its behalf, the powers of a Director and may replace such representative from time to time so as to fulfil its remaining term of the office. A Director shall not be required to hold any Shares in the Company.
- (3) Directors shall be elected by Members at general meetings. Any Juristic Person which is a Member shall be entitled to appoint a natural person or natural persons as its representative to be nominated for election as a Director in accordance with these Articles. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the principle of cumulative voting shall apply in any election of Directors pursuant to this Article. Each Member entitled to vote in such election shall have a number of votes equal to the product of (i) the number of votes conferred by such Member's Shares and (ii) the number of Directors to be elected at the general meeting. Each Member may divide and distribute such Member's votes, as so calculated, among any one or more candidates for the directorships to be filled, or such Member may cast such Member's votes for a single candidate. At such election, the candidates receiving the highest number of votes, up to the number of Directors to be elected, shall be elected.
- (4) The proceedings and the voting regarding the election of Directors not provided for in these Articles shall be governed by the internal rules of the Company, as adopted and amended by an Ordinary Resolution from time to time, which shall be in compliance with the Law and the Applicable Listing Rules (in particular, the Methods of Election of Directors and Supervisors of R.O.C. Public Companies).

65. The Company adopt and apply a candidate nomination mechanism for election of all the Directors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the Relevant Period, a candidate nomination mechanism shall be adopted for election of Independent Directors. Subject to the Law and the Applicable Listing Rules, the Board may establish detailed rules and procedures for such candidate nomination.
66. Subject to these Articles, each Director shall be appointed to a term of office of three (3) years and is eligible for re-election. In case no election of new Directors is effected prior to the expiration of the term of office of existing Directors, the term of office of such existing Directors shall be extended until the time such Directors are re-elected or new Directors are duly elected and assume their office subject to these Articles. In the event of any vacancy in the Board, the new Director elected in the general meeting shall fill the vacancy for the residual term of office.
67. (1) Notwithstanding the preceding Article, a Director may be removed from office at any time by a Special Resolution adopted at a general meeting.
- (2) Without prejudice to other provisions of these Articles, the Company may put all Directors for re-election before the expiration of the term of office of such Directors. In this event, if it is not specified in a resolution that the existing Directors will not retire until the expiration date of their terms of office or other specified date, they shall be deemed to have retired on the date of such re-election, subject to the successful election of the new Directors at the same meeting.
68. A chairman of the Board (the “Chairman”) shall be elected from among the Directors and appointed in term by a majority of the Directors present at a Board meeting attended by at least two-thirds of all of the Directors then in office. The Chairman shall externally represent the Company and internally preside as the chairman at every Board meeting and at every general meeting convened by the Board. In the event the Chairman is not present at a meeting or cannot or will not exercise his power and authority for any cause, he shall designate one of the Directors to act on his behalf. In the absence of such designation, the Directors present at the meeting shall elect from among themselves an acting chairman.
69. The remuneration of a Director may differ from other Directors, and shall be determined by the Board, regardless of the Company profits or losses of respective years, based on (i) the extent of a Director's involvement with the operations of the Company, (ii) the contribution of a Director to the Company, (iii) the prevailing industry standard and (iv) such other relevant factors.
70. When the number of Directors then in office falls below five (5) due to any Director(s) vacating his office for any reason, the Company shall hold an election for such number of Directors at the next general meeting to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term of such outgoing Director(s). When the number of Directors then in office falls short by one-third of the total number of Directors initially constituting the existing Board, the Company shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within sixty (60) days of the occurrence of that fact for the purposes of electing such number of Directors to fill the casual vacancy.

71. Subject to these Articles, a Director other than an Independent Director may hold any other office (except that of Auditor) or place of profit under the Company in conjunction with his office of Director for such period and on such terms (as to remuneration and otherwise) as the Board may determine, and no Director or intending Director shall be disqualified by his office from contracting with the Company either with regard to his tenure of any such other office or place of profit nor shall any Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such Director holding that office or of the fiduciary relation thereby established.
72. (1) Without prejudice to the duties owed by a Director to the Company under common law of the Cayman Islands and subject to the Law, the Directors shall assume fiduciary duties to the Company and without limitation, the due care of a good administrator, and exercise due care and skill in conducting the business operation of the Company. A Director may be liable to the Company if he acts contrary to his duties. In circumstances where a Director breaches any of such duties and acts for his/her or other Person's interest, the Company may, with the sanction of an Ordinary Resolution, take all such actions and steps as may be appropriate and to the maximum extent legally permissible to seek to recover any and all earnings derived from such act as if such misconduct is done for the benefit of the Company.
- (2) If a Director violates any law in the course of conducting the business of the Company, he shall be jointly and severally liable with the Company for the damages resulting from such violation.
- (3) The preceding two Paragraph of this Article shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the officers of the Company who are authorised to act on its behalf in a senior management capacity.
73. Subject to these Articles, a Director other than an Independent Director may act by himself or his firm in a professional capacity for the Company (except that of Auditor), and he or his firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if he were not a Director.
74. To the extent permitted by the Law, the Company may pay, or agree to pay, a premium in respect of a contract insuring each of the following persons against risks determined by the directors, other than liability arising out of that person's negligence and/or dishonestly: an existing or former director (including alternate director), secretary or officer or Auditor of: the Company; a company which is a subsidiary of the Company; and a company in which the Company has or had an interest (whether direct or indirect).
75. During the Relevant Period, the qualifications, election, removal, power, authority and other requirements for Directors (including Independent Directors), which are not covered by these Articles, shall be in compliance with the Applicable Listing Rules.

INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS

76. During the Relevant Period, the number of Independent Directors of the Company shall not be less than three (3) or one-fifth of the total number of Directors at any time, whichever is greater. One (1) of the Independent Directors shall have resident status of the R.O.C. (such resident status being registered with local government authorities). Subject to the foregoing, the number of Independent Directors to be elected and hold the office shall be stated in the notice of the general meeting in which an election of Independent Directors will be held. When an Independent Director ceases to act, resulting in a number of Independent Directors then in office lower than the prescribed minimum number, an election for an Independent Director shall be held at the next general meeting. When all Independent Directors cease to act, the Company shall convene an extraordinary general meeting to hold an election of Independent Directors within sixty (60) days from the date on which the situation arose.
77. Independent Directors shall possess professional knowledge and shall maintain independence within the scope of their directorial duties, and may not have any direct or indirect interest in the Company. The professional qualifications, restrictions on shareholdings and concurrent positions held by the Independent Directors shall be as prescribed by the Applicable Listing Rules, and the assessment of independence of such Independent Directors shall be in compliance with the Applicable Listing Rules. The Board or other Persons calling a general meeting at which an election for Independent Directors is proposed shall ensure that the requirements of this Article have been satisfied and complied with in relation to any candidate for Independent Director.

78. Subject to the Law, these Articles, the Applicable Listing Rules and any resolutions passed in a general meeting, the business of the Company shall be managed by the Board in such manner as it shall think fit, which may pay all reasonable expenses in connection with business management, including but not limited to expenses incurred in forming and registering the Company and may exercise all powers of the Company.
79. The Board may from time to time appoint any Person to hold such office in the Company as the Board may think necessary for the management of the Company, including but not limited to officers and managers, and for such term and at such remuneration as the Board may think fit. Any Person so appointed by the Board may be removed by the Board.
