RUFFER INVESTMENT COMPANY LIMITED

Chairman's Review

Performance

The Company's investment portfolio earned a negative total return of 0.3% over the 12 months to 30 June 2012. This is calculated after all expenses of management and allowing for the payment of dividends, which amounted to a total of 3.10p per share. The target rate of return, derived from the Company's investment objective, for the year was 1.0%, being twice the Bank of England base rate for the period. Over the same period the FTSE Allshare fell 3.1% on a total return basis. Further details of the performance are given in the Investment Manager's Report on page 12. The Company's Net Asset Value ("NAV") at 20 September 2012 was 1.951. Notwithstanding the failure to achieve the Company's objective for the 12 months to 30 June 2012 the Board remains confident in the ability of the Investment Manager to achieve the Company's objectives in the future.

Earnings and Dividends

Earnings for the year were 4.05p per share on the revenue account and 5.21p loss per share on the capital account. In the course of the year dividends totalling 3.10p per share were paid. A third interim dividend of 1.60p per share in respect of the year to 30 June 2012 was approved on 20 September 2012 and will be paid on 19 October 2012.

Share Issuance

At the start of the year, the Company had the ability to issue 9,963,841 redeemable participating shares under a blocklisting facility. On 24 November 2011, at the Company's AGM, a resolution to issue up to a further 10% of the Company's share capital by way of a block listing facility was passed. As at 20 September 2012, the date of this report, out of a possible total of 23,157,682 shares, 9,963,841 had been issued at a 2% or higher premium and 6,236,159 shares had been issued at a 3% or higher premium to the Company's prevailing Net Asset Value. 14,350,000 of these new shares were issued during the year ended 30 June 2012. The Board have satisfied themselves that the issuance of shares at a premium of more than 1.1% to the prevailing NAV is value enhancing to existing shareholders.

As at the date of this report the Company had 143,338,416 redeemable participating preference shares of 0.01p each and 2 Management shares of £1.00 each in issue. Therefore, the total voting rights in the Company at the date of this report were 143,338,418.

Annual General Meeting

The Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Company will be held at 10.30 a.m. on Wednesday 21 November 2012 at the Company's registered office at Trafalgar Court, Les Banques, St Peter Port, Guernsey.

Share Buyback Authority

Despite the shares trading at a premium to NAV, aside from very short periods, for the year to 30 June 2012, the Board has resolved to seek, at the AGM on 21 November 2012, a renewal of its authority to buy back shares at a discount to NAV in the terms to be stated in a Special Resolution. No shares have been bought back under authorisations granted at previous AGMs.

Share Redemption Facility

The Company has a Redemption Facility operable in November each year. Given the fact that the Company has been trading at a premium to its NAV for most of the previous year the Board has resolved not to offer this Facility in November 2012.

Jonathan Ruffer

In closing I would like to pay a particular tribute to Jonathan Ruffer, who acted as the lead investment manager for this Company from its inception on 8 July 2004, until he handed over the reins to Hamish Baillie on 31 March 2012. During that period the Company's net asset value has risen by a splendid 120%, handsomely outperforming both its stated benchmark and also the FT Allshare, which had produced a total return of 75% for the period to 30 June 2012. This record speaks eloquently of Jonathan's talent in managing the Company's investments.

Hamish had been acting in concert with Jonathan in managing the Company's investments for the previous 18 months and, as a portfolio manager working closely with Jonathan, he has been involved in the background since the company's inception. Hamish is ably backed up by Jonathan's long-term deputy manager, Steve Russell. Jonathan moved from being Chief Investment Officer to Chairman of Ruffer LLP on 31 March 2012 and as such has relinquished all day-to-day management of funds. However, he remains central to Ruffer LLP's long term strategic and asset allocation process. As before, the investment company will continue to be managed in accordance with Ruffer's house philosophy. It is satisfying to observe that the market missed not a beat in continuing to accord the Company a premium over its NAV, which remained constant over the period of this seamless handover, almost certainly helped by the fact that this change had been flagged two years previously.

Ashe Windham

Chairman

20 September 2012

- * The calculation of the Company's Total Return includes an amount of 6.30 pence per share which represents the notional amount by which dividends paid to date would have grown if they had not been paid out as dividends but reinvested within the company.

Shareholder Information

Investment Management

The Investment Manager of the Company is Ruffer LLP (the “Investment Manager”). The key terms of the Investment Management Agreement and specifically the fee charged by the Investment Manager are set out in Notes 6 and 14 of the financial statements. The Board believes that the investment management fee is competitive with other investment companies with similar investment mandates.

The Board reviews on an ongoing basis the performance of the Investment Manager and considers whether the investment strategy utilised is likely to achieve the Company’s investment objective of realising a positive total annual portfolio return, after all expenses, of at least twice the return of the Bank of England base rate.

Having considered the portfolio performance and investment strategy, the Board has unanimously agreed that the interests of the shareholders as a whole are best served by the continuing appointment of the Investment Manager on the terms agreed.

The Investment Management Agreement will continue in force until terminated by the Investment Manager or the Company giving to the other party thereto not less than 12 months notice in writing.

Directors

The details of the Directors of the Company during the year and at the date of this Report are set out on page 4 and on the Management and Administration summary on page 45.

Directors’ Interests

The Directors who held office at 30 June 2012 and up to the date of this Report held the following numbers of redeemable participating preference shares beneficially:

Directors	30.06.12 Shares	30.06.11 Shares
Wayne Bulpitt	20,000	20,000
Jeannette Etherden	36,627	36,627
Christopher Spencer	14,157	14,157
Ashe Windham	70,000	68,000
Peter Luthy*	120,000	—

*Peter Luthy holds these shares jointly with his wife.

Significant Shareholdings

Disclosure and Transparency Rules are now comprised in the FSA handbook. Such rules require substantial Shareholders to make relevant holding notifications to the Company and to the FSA. The Company must then disseminate this information to the wider market.

Going Concern

The Directors believe that it is appropriate to continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing the Annual Financial Report since the assets of the Company consist mainly of securities which are readily realisable and, accordingly, the Company has adequate financial resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future.

The Board also has the discretion to operate the Redemption Facility, offering shareholders the possibility of redeeming all or part of their shareholding for cash at the NAV, if it appears appropriate to do so.

Corporate Governance

As a result of the changes to the United Kingdom Listing Regime, currently the United Kingdom Listing Authority requires all overseas companies with a “Premium Listing” (which includes the Company) to “comply or explain” against the United Kingdom Corporate Governance Code (the “Code”).

On 30 September 2011, the Guernsey Financial Services Commission (“GFSC”) issued a new Code of Corporate Governance (the “GFSC Code”) which came into effect on 1 January 2012. The GFSC Code replaces the existing GFSC guidance, “Guidance on Corporate Governance in the Finance Sector”. The GFSC Code provides a framework that applies to all entities licensed by the GFSC or which are registered or authorised as a collective investment scheme. Companies reporting against the United Kingdom Corporate Governance Code or the Association of Investment Companies Code of Corporate Governance are deemed to comply with the GFSC Code.

The Board, having reviewed the Code, considers that it has maintained procedures during the year ended 30 June 2012 to ensure that it complies with the Code and its special circumstances as an investment company registered in Guernsey. The Company complies with United Kingdom listing rules and hence is deemed to comply with the GFSC Code.

The Board

The Board currently comprises six non-executive Directors, all of whom are independent with the exception of Wayne Bulpitt and Peter Luthy.

Under the Code Wayne Bulpitt and Peter Luthy are considered not to be independent by reason of being Directors of other funds managed by the Company’s Investment Manager. None of the Directors has a contract of service with the Company.

The Board meets on at least four occasions each year, at which time the Directors review the management of the Company’s assets and all other significant matters so as to ensure that the Directors maintain overall control and supervision of the Company’s affairs. The Board is responsible for the appointment and monitoring of all service providers to the Company.

Chairman, Senior Independent Director and Chief Executive

The Chairman of the Board is Ashe Windham. A biography for Mr Windham and all other Directors appears on page 4. In considering the independence of the Chairman, the Board has taken note of the provisions of the Code relating to independence, and has determined that Mr Windham is an independent Director.

As the Chairman is an independent Director, no appointment of a senior independent Director has been made. The Company has no employees and therefore there is no requirement for a chief executive.

Attendance at the Board and other Committee meetings during the year was as follows:

	Number of Meetings held	Wayne Bulpitt	Jeannette Etherden	Peter Luthy	Christopher Spencer	Ashe Windham	John V Baldwin
Board Meetings	4	4	3	4	4	4	4
Audit Committee Meetings	2	1	1	2	2	2	2
Ad-hoc Board Meetings	3	2	1	2	3	1	3

Performance Evaluation

The Chairman evaluates the performance of each of the Directors on an ongoing basis, taking into account the effectiveness of their contributions and their commitment to the role. The Chairman conducts formal appraisals with each Director on an annual basis. The Board conducts a similar appraisal of the Chairman.

Re-election

In accordance with the Company’s Articles of Association, at each Annual General Meeting (“AGM”) one-third of the Directors, (or if their number is not three or an integral multiple of three), the number nearest to, but (except where there are less than three Directors) not greater than one-third, shall retire from office.

On 24 November 2011 at the 7th AGM of the Company, John Baldwin, Ashe Windham, Peter Luthy and Wayne Bulpitt retired as Directors of the Company and being eligible had offered themselves for re-election and were re-elected as Directors of the Company by the Shareholders.

As Peter Luthy and Wayne Bulpitt are Directors of other companies managed by the Company's Investment Manager they are deemed to be non-independent Directors and therefore stand for re-election at each annual general meeting.

The Directors may at any time appoint any person to be a Director either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing Directors. Any Director so appointed shall hold office only until, and shall be eligible for re-election at, the next general meeting following their appointment but shall not be taken into account in determining the Directors or the number of Directors who are to retire by rotation at that meeting if it is an AGM.

Supply of Information

The quarterly board meetings are the principal source of regular information for the Board enabling it to determine policy and to monitor performance and compliance. The Board also receives regular weekly and monthly reports on portfolio activity and performance as well as occasional reports on items of interest. A representative of the Investment Manager attends each board meeting thus enabling the Board to discuss and review the Company's operations, strategy and performance.

All of the Directors have direct access to the Company Secretary, and may, at the expense of the Company, seek independent professional advice on any matter that concerns them in the furtherance of their duties.

Directors' Responsibilities in Respect of the Financial Statements

The Directors are responsible for preparing the Report of the Directors and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Company law requires the Directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law they have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") and applicable law.

The financial statements are required by law to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the Company and of the profit or loss of the Company for that period.

In preparing those financial statements the Directors are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether International Financial Reporting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to assume that the Company will continue in business.

The Directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements have been properly prepared in accordance with The Companies (Guernsey) Law, 2008. They have general responsibility for taking such steps as are reasonably open to them to safeguard the assets of the Company and to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.

Directors' Responsibility Statement

The Directors confirm that they have complied with the above requirements in preparing the financial statements and that to the best of their knowledge and belief:

- (a) The Annual Financial Report, prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards, gives a true and fair view of the assets, liabilities, financial position and profit of the Company; and
- (b) The Chairman's Review, Investment Manager's Report and Report of the Directors includes a fair review of the development and performance of the business and the position of the Company together with a description of the principal risks and uncertainties that the Company faces.

The Directors recognise their responsibilities stated above.

Disclosure of Information to the Auditor

The Directors who held office at the date of approval of these financial statements confirm that, so far as they are each aware, there is no relevant audit information of which the Company's auditor is unaware; and each Director has taken all the steps that they ought to have taken as a Director to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the Company's auditor is aware of that information.

Audit Committee

The Company's Audit Committee is comprised of the independent Directors, with Christopher Spencer appointed as Chairman. The Audit Committee has the following remit: to meet bi-annually and to consider, inter-alia: (a) annual and interim financial statements; (b) auditor reports; and (c) terms of appointment and remuneration for the auditor (including overseeing the independence of the auditor particularly as it relates to the provision of non-audit services). The Board is satisfied that the Audit Committee contains members with sufficient recent and relevant financial experience.

The Audit Committee has considered the requirement for an annual internal audit of the Company. On the basis that the Company is an investment company with no employees, and, due to the Company's service providers all being regulated entities who themselves are subject to internal audits, the Audit Committee is of the opinion that an internal audit is not necessary for the Company.

Nomination Committee

The Board as a whole fulfils the function of a Nomination Committee. Any proposal for a new Director will be discussed and approved by the Board. The Board will determine whether in future an external search consultancy or open advertising is used in the appointments of non-executive Directors.

Directors' Remuneration

The level of Directors' fees is determined by the whole Board on an annual basis and therefore a separate Remuneration Committee has not been appointed. When considering the level of Directors' remuneration the Board considers the industry standard and the level of work that is undertaken. Since all Directors are non executive, the Company is not required to comply with the principles of the Code in respect of executive Directors' remuneration. Directors' fees are disclosed fully in each Annual Financial Report. During a board meeting held on 24 November 2011, it was approved, with effect from 1 January 2012, to increase the basic fee payable to the Chairman and each non-executive Director from £28,500 to £35,000 and £20,000 to £25,000 respectively. None of the Directors had a service contract with the Company during the year and accordingly a Director is not entitled to any minimum period of notice or to compensation in the event of their removal as a Director.

Internal Control

The Board is responsible for establishing and maintaining the Company's system of internal controls and for maintaining and reviewing their effectiveness. The system of internal controls is designed to manage rather than to eliminate the risk of failure to achieve business objectives and as such can only provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance against material misstatement or loss.

The Board considers on an ongoing basis the process for identifying, evaluating and managing any significant risks faced by the Company. The Board has contractually delegated to external parties various functions as listed below. The duties of investment management, accounting and custody are segregated. - Investment Management is provided by Ruffer LLP, a company authorised by the FSA.
- Administration, Accounting, Registrar and Company Secretarial duties are performed by Northern Trust International Fund Administration Services (Guernsey) Limited, a company licensed and regulated by the Guernsey Financial Services Commission.

Investment Manager's Report

For the year ended 30 June 2012

In the twelve month period from 1 July 2011 to 30 June 2012 the asset value per share fell by 0.6p after allowing for a dividend of 3.1p. At the period end the net asset value per share was 191.93p*, representing a total return of -0.3% over 12 months compared to the target return of 1.0%, being twice the Bank of England base rate. Over the same period the FTSE Allshare fell 3.1% on a total return basis.

Since launch on 8 July 2004, the net asset value of the company has risen by 120% , including dividends, and over the same period the FTSE Allshare produced a total return of 75%.

Were our investors only to read this report each year they could be forgiven for thinking that little has changed over the last 12 months. The 2011 report referred to the economic problems in the periphery of Europe, the exorbitantly high price attributed to safe haven assets, the continuation of ultra loose monetary policy and the importance of index-linked bonds in protecting us from the secondary effects of such a policy. All these concerns are as pertinent today as they were 12 months ago and they continue to influence the mix of assets in the portfolio. Yet to conclude that nothing has changed in the last 12 months is far from the truth. We have moved a long way and although the oft touted accusation aimed at European policy makers of "kicking the can down the road" has thus far averted a breakup of the Euro, it has not brought us any closer to a permanent solution. Greece has effectively defaulted on investors in its sovereign debt and Spain and Italy are being sucked into the vortex as their borrowing costs continue to rise. Politically the landscape has changed as well; Angela Merkel looks a lonely figure in the pro-austerity camp as momentum has moved to leaders with a pro-growth agenda. What has not changed is the stance of central bankers across the world, whose tool-cupboards are looking increasingly bare and one dimensional. With interest rates already at rock bottom levels the Federal Reserve has resorted to guaranteeing that they will remain so for at least another 18 months. In the United Kingdom the Bank of England approved another round of quantitative easing (£50bn) and the European Central Bank reduced interest rates by 0.25%; neither of these initiatives had much of an impact on financial markets.

So much for the theory, why then has your investment company not managed to make better progress in the last year? The answer lies in the offsetting nature of the investments we hold. Fluctuations in the net asset value have been minimal despite significant market volatility; at times of market stress our protective investments have done well and offset the losses in equities. So far, so good. However, when equities have bounced we have not enjoyed the full effect of the recovery and this has meant that the portfolio has broadly trended sideways through the ups and downs of equity market movements. This is symptomatic of the broader economic backdrop where there is an almost Pavlovian connection between investors and monetary policy. The typical cycle is one where deteriorating market sentiment is followed by intervention in the form of quantitative easing or some similar form of stimulus; this adrenaline shot leads to a sharp rally in equity prices until the effect starts to wear off and sentiment once more begins to deteriorate. This cannot continue in perpetuity. Each time central banks intervene their efforts have less of an impact than the prior intervention and such reflationary policies gradually undermine confidence in paper currencies and monetary stability. Our index-linked bonds should benefit from this in the longer run but in the interim we need to work hard to find investment opportunities that will carry the portfolio while we wait. There have been many positive contributors in this respect: the 'nifty fifty' megacap theme, where companies like Wal-Mart, Merck, Kraft, Johnson & Johnson and Vodafone have all performed well; listed German property companies have also contributed as have turnaround stories such as Better Capital. We need to find more of these.

Investment Policy

The principal objective of the Company is to achieve a positive total annual return, after all expenses, of at least twice the Bank of England base rate. The Company predominantly invests in internationally listed or quoted equities or equity related securities (including convertibles) and/or bonds which are issued by corporate issuers, supra-nationals or government organisations.

Investment policies

In selecting investments the Company will adopt a stock picking approach and will not adopt any investment weightings by reference to any benchmark. Both the Board and the Investment Manager believe that the adoption of any index related investment style would inhibit the ability of the Company to deliver its objectives.

The Company invests across a broad range of assets, geographies and sectors in order to achieve its objective. This allocation will change over time to reflect the risks and opportunities identified by the Investment Manager across global financial markets, with an underlying focus on capital preservation. The allocation of the portfolio between equities and bonds will vary from time to time so as to enable the Company to achieve its objective. There are no restrictions on the geographical or sectoral exposure of the portfolio (except those restrictions noted below).

The universe of equity, equity related securities or bonds in which the Company may invest will be wide and may include companies domiciled in, and bonds issued by entities based in, non-European countries, including countries that may be classed as emerging or developing. This may result in a significant exposure to currencies other than sterling.

Investment restrictions and guidelines

It is not intended for the Company to have any structural gearing. The Company has the ability to borrow up to 30% of the NAV at any time for short term or temporary purposes, as may be necessary for settlement of transactions, to facilitate share redemption or to meet ongoing expenses.

The Company will not invest in the securities of any company that is not quoted or does not have a listing on a Relevant Market. For the avoidance of doubt this will not prohibit the Company from investing in collective investment schemes (including open-ended investment companies) such as funds registered under UCITS.

The proportion of the portfolio invested into companies based in emerging or developing countries will be limited, at the time of any investment, to below 15% of the Company's gross assets.

The Directors have determined that the Company will not engage in currency hedging except where the Investment Manager considers such hedging to be in the interests of efficient portfolio management.

The Directors have determined that not more than 10%, in aggregate, of the value of the gross assets of the Company at the time of acquisition may be invested in other listed investment companies (including listed investment trusts) except that this restriction will not apply to investments in such entities which themselves have stated investment policies to invest no more than 15% of their gross assets in other listed investment companies (including listed investment trusts). Regardless of the above restriction, the Directors have further determined that no more than 15% in aggregate of the Company's gross assets will be invested in other listed investment companies (including listed investment trusts and collective investment schemes).

General

In accordance with the requirements of the FSA, any material changes in the Investment Policy of the Company may only be made with the approval of shareholders.

RUFFER INVESTMENT COMPANY LIMITED

Notes to the Financial Statements

1. Significant accounting policies

Basis of preparation

The financial statements are prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"), which comprise standards and interpretations approved by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") and are in compliance with The Companies (Guernsey) Law, 2008. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss.

This annual report and financial statements, covering the year from 1 July 2011 to 30 June 2012, has been audited.

Standards, amendments and interpretations that are not yet effective

The following standards and interpretations, which have not been applied in these financial statements, were in issue at the reporting date but not yet effective:

- IFRS 9 – Financial instruments: Classification and measurement (effective date – 1 January 2013)
- IFRS 10 – Consolidated Financial Statements (effective date – 1 January 2013)
- IFRS 11 – Joint arrangements (effective date – 1 January 2013)
- IFRS 12 – Disclosure of interest in other entities (effective date – 1 January 2013)
- IFRS 13 – Fair value measurement (effective date – 1 January 2013)
- Amendments to IFRS 1 – Presentation of Items of Other Comprehensive Income (effective date – 1 July 2012)

The Board anticipate that the adoption of these standards and interpretations in a future period will not have a material impact on the financial statements of the Company, other than IFRS 9 and IFRS 13. The Company is currently evaluating the potential effect of these standards.

Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are recognised on the Company's Statement of Financial Position when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Investment assets at fair value through profit or loss ("investments")

Purchases and sales of investments are recognised on the trade date (the date on which the Company commits to purchase or sell the investment). Investments purchased are initially recorded at fair value, being the consideration given and excluding transaction or other dealing costs associated with the investment.

Subsequent to initial recognition, investments are measured at fair value. Gains and losses arising from changes in the fair value of investments and gains and losses on investments that are sold are recognised through profit or loss in the Statement of Comprehensive Income within net gains/losses on investments assets at fair value through profit or loss.

Forward foreign currency contracts

Forward foreign currency contracts are treated as derivative contracts and as such are recognised at fair value on the date on which they are entered into and subsequently re-measured at their fair value. Fair value is determined by rates in active currency markets. All derivatives are carried as assets when fair value is positive and as liabilities when fair value is negative. The gain or loss on re-measurement to fair value is recognised immediately through profit or loss in the Statement of Comprehensive Income within other losses and gains in the period in which they arise.

1. Significant accounting policies (continued)

Other financial instruments

For other financial instruments, including other receivables and other payables, the carrying amounts as shown in the Statement of Financial Position approximate to fair values due to the short term nature of these financial instruments. Other financial instruments are stated at amortised cost.

Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the Statement of Financial Position if, and only if, there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or to realise assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Fair value

Investments consist of listed or quoted equities or equity related securities, options and bonds which are issued by corporate issuers, supra-nationals or government organisations and investment in funds.

Investments traded in active markets are valued at the latest available bid prices ruling at midnight on the reporting date.

Shares in investment funds are not listed on an actively traded exchange and these are valued at the latest estimate of NAV from the administrator of the respective investment funds as the most recent price is the best estimate of the amount for which holdings could have been disposed of at the reporting date.

Derecognition of financial instruments

A financial asset is derecognised when: (a) the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired, (b) the Company retains the right to receive cash flows from the asset, but has assumed an obligation to pay them in full without material delay to a third party under a “pass through arrangement”; or (c) the Company has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged, cancelled or expired.

Significant estimates and judgements

The Company makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equate to the related actual results. The main use of accounting estimates and assumptions occurs in the calculation of the sensitivity analysis and fair value hierarchy in Note 18.

Income

Dividend income from equity investments is recognised through profit or loss in the Statement of Comprehensive Income when the relevant investment is quoted ex-dividend. Investment income is included gross of withholding tax. Interest income is recognised through profit or loss in the Statement of Comprehensive Income for all debt instruments using the effective interest rate method.

Expenses

Expenses are accounted for on an accruals basis. Expenses incurred on the acquisition of financial assets at fair value through profit or loss and management fees are charged to the Statement of Comprehensive Income in capital. All other expenses are recognised through profit or loss in the Statement of Comprehensive Income in revenue.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash comprises cash in hand and deemed deposits. Cash equivalents are short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less and bank overdrafts.

Translation of foreign currency

Items included in the Company's financial statements are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which it operates (the "functional currency"). This is the British Pound ("Sterling"), which is the currency in which its shares are denominated. The Company has also adopted Sterling as its presentation currency.

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rate prevailing at the transaction date. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and those from the translation at period end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognised in the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

Translation differences on non-monetary items such as financial assets held at fair value through profit or loss are reported as part of net gains or losses on financial assets through profit or loss in the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

Share issue costs

Share issue costs are fully written off against the share capital account in the period of the share issue.

Redeemable participating preference shares

As the Company's redeemable participating preference shares are redeemable at the sole option of the Directors they are required to be classified as equity instruments.

18. Financial risk management and associated risks

The Company is exposed to a variety of financial risks as a result of its activities. These risks include market risk (including price risk, foreign currency risk and interest rate risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. These risks, which have applied throughout the year and the Investment Manager's policies for managing them are summarised as follows:

Market risk

Market risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market prices. The Company's activities expose it primarily to the market risks of changes in market prices, interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates.

Market price risk

Market price risk arises mainly from the uncertainty about future prices of the financial instruments held by the Company. It represents the potential loss the Company may suffer through holding market positions in the face of price movements.

The Company's investment portfolio is exposed to market price fluctuations which are monitored by the Investment Manager in pursuance of the investment objectives and policies. Adherence to investment guidelines and to investment and borrowing powers set out in the Placing and Offer for Subscription document mitigates the risk of excessive exposure to any particular type of security or issuer.

Market price sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on the exposure to equity, investment funds and bond price risks at the reporting date. The 10% reasonably possible price movement for equity related securities and investment funds and a 100 basis point increase or a 25 basis point reduction for the interest rate used by the Company is based on the Investment Manager's best estimates.

A 10% (30.06.11: 10%) increase in the market prices of equity related investments as at 30 June 2012 would have increased the net assets attributable to holders of redeemable participating preference shares by £17,214,184 (30.06.11: £16,265,760) and an equal change in the opposite direction would have decreased the net assets attributable to holders of redeemable participating preference shares by an equal opposite amount.

A sensitivity analysis based on the interest rates of bond related investments as at 30 June 2012 has been considered under Interest rate risk on page 34.

Actual trading results may differ from the above sensitivity analysis and these differences could be material.

Foreign currency risk

Foreign currency risk arises from fluctuations in the value of a foreign currency. It represents the potential loss the Company may suffer though holding foreign currency assets in the face of foreign exchange movements.

As a portion of the Company's investment portfolio is invested in securities denominated in currencies other than Sterling (the functional and presentation currency of the Company) the Statement of Financial Position may be significantly affected by movements in the exchange rates of such currencies against Sterling. The Investment Manager has the power to manage exposure to currency movements by using options, warrants and/or forward foreign currency contracts and details of the holdings of such instruments at the date of these financial statements is set out on the following page. The Company will not engage in currency hedging except where it considers such hedging to be in the interests of efficient portfolio management.

As at 30 June 2012, the Company had five (30.06.11: nine) open forward foreign currency contracts.

Foreign currency sensitivity

As at 30 June 2012, if the foreign exchange rates had weakened 10% (30.06.11: 10%) against Sterling with all other variables held constant, net assets attributable to holders of redeemable participating preference shares would be £9,115,952 (30.06.11: £8,585,594) lower net of open forward foreign currency contracts and due mainly as a result of foreign currency losses on translation of these financial assets and liabilities to Sterling. As at 30 June 2012, a 10% (30.06.11: 10%) strengthening of the foreign exchange rates against Sterling would have resulted in an equal but opposite effect on the net assets attributable to holders of redeemable participating preference shares. Any changes in the foreign exchange rate will directly affect the profit and loss, allocated to the capital column of the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

Actual trading results may differ from the above sensitivity analysis and these differences could be material.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk represents the uncertainty of investment return due to changes in the market rates of interest.

The Company invests in fixed and floating rate securities. The income of the Company may be affected by changes to interest rates relevant to particular securities or as a result of the Investment Manager being unable to secure similar returns on the expiry of contracts or sale of securities. Interest receivable on bank deposits or payable on the bank overdraft positions will be affected by fluctuations in interest rates.

The Investment Manager actively manages the Company's exposure to interest rate risk, paying heed to prevailing interest rates and economic conditions, market expectations and their own opinions of likely movements in interest rates. Currently the entire exposure of the Company to fixed interest securities is in the form of index-linked bonds. The value of these investments is determined by current and expected inflation and interest rates.

The value of fixed interest securities will be affected by general changes in interest rates that will in turn result in increases or decreases in the market value of those instruments. When interest rates decline, the value of the Company's investments in fixed rate debt obligations can be expected to rise, and when interest rates rise, the value of those investments may decline.

The investment portfolio details the security type, issuer, interest rate, and maturity date of all of the Company's fixed and floating rate securities as at 30 June 2012.

The table below summarises weighted average effective interest rates for financial instruments.

	30.06.12	Weighted average period for which rate/ yield is fixed	30.06.11	Weighted average period for which rate/ yield is fixed

United States government bonds	-0.9134%	3.86 years	0.6766%	13.75 years

Interest rate sensitivity analysis

An increase of 100 basis points (30.06.11: 100 basis points) in interest rates as at the reporting date would have decreased the net assets attributable to holders of redeemable participating preference shares by £10,810,110 (30.06.11: £10,111,965) and a decrease of 25 basis points (30.06.11: 25 basis points) in interest rates would have increased the net assets attributable to holders of redeemable participating preference shares by £2,702,528 (30.06.11: £2,527,991).

As all the Company's fixed rate securities are index-linked bonds, their yields, and as a consequence their prices, are determined by market perception as to the appropriate level of yields given the economic background.

Key determinants include economic growth prospects, inflation, governments' fiscal positions and rates on nominal bonds of similar maturities. This sensitivity analysis assumes only a 100 basis point increase and a 25 basis point decrease in interest rates, with all other variables unchanged. This would be the equivalent of a 100 basis point increase and 25 basis point decreases in 'real' interest rates and as such is likely to overstate the actual impact of such a move in nominal rates.

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that an issuer or counterparty will be unable or unwilling to meet a commitment that it has entered into with the Company. Failure of any relevant counterparty to perform its obligations in respect of these items may lead to a financial loss.

The Company is exposed to credit risk in respect of cash and cash equivalents and receivables. The credit risk associated with debtors is limited to the unrealised gains on open derivative contracts such as forward foreign currency contracts, as detailed above and receivables. It is the opinion of the Board of Directors that the carrying amounts of these financial assets represent the maximum credit risk exposure as at the reporting date.

The Company will not invest in the securities of any company that is not quoted or does not have a listing on a market specified in the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotions) Order 2001 and such other financial markets as may be specifically agreed from time to time between the Board and the Investment Manager.

All transactions in listed securities are settled/paid upon delivery using approved brokers. The risk of default is considered minimal, as delivery of securities sold is only made once the broker has received payment. Payment is made on a purchase once the securities have been received by the broker. The trade will fail if either party fails to meet their obligation.

The Placing and Offer for Subscription document allows investment in a wide universe of equity related securities and bonds, including countries that may be classed as emerging or developing. In adhering to investment restrictions set out within the document, the Company mitigates the risk of any significant concentration of credit risk.

Fair value

IFRS 7 requires the Company to classify fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements. IFRS 7 establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritises the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy under IFRS 7 are as follows:

Level 1 Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;

Level 2 Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices); and

Level 3 Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs).

The level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement is categorised in its entirety is determined on the basis of the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety. For this purpose, the significance of an input is assessed against the fair value measurement in its entirety. If a fair value measurement uses observable inputs that require significant adjustment based on unobservable inputs, that measurement is a Level 3 measurement. Assessing the significance of a particular input to the fair value measurement in its entirety requires judgment, considering factors specific to the asset or liability.

The determination of what constitutes 'observable' requires significant judgment by the Company. The Company considers observable data to be that market data that is readily available, regularly distributed or updated, reliable and verifiable, not proprietary, and provided by independent sources that are actively involved in the relevant market.

The following table presents the Company's financial assets and liabilities by level within the valuation hierarchy as of 30 June 2012.

19. Capital risk management

The fair value of the Company's financial assets and liabilities approximate to their carrying amounts at the reporting date. For the purposes of this disclosure, redeemable participating preference shares are considered to be capital.

The Company's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Company's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital. There are no externally-imposed capital requirements on the Company.

The Company has the ability to borrow up to 30% of its NAV at any time for short-term or temporary purposes as is necessary for the settlement of transactions, to facilitate redemption (where applicable) or to meet ongoing expenses. The Company does not have, nor does it intend to adopt, any structural gearing. The gearing ratio below is calculated as total liabilities divided by total equity.

	30.06.12 £	30.06.11 £
Total assets	272,324,874	250,799,956
Less: total liabilities	(1,440,211)	(2,551,820)
Total equity	270,884,663	248,248,136

The Board considers this gearing ratio to be adequate since total liabilities above refer only to other payables and unrealised losses on open forward foreign currency contracts.
