- A corporation must execute this form either under its common seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised in writing.

  Corporate representatives must make themselves known to the Company prior to the start of the meeting.

  This form enables you to instruct your proxy how to vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, on the resolutions to be proposed at the meeting. If you want your proxy to vote in a certain way on the resolutions specified please place an 'X' in the relevant boxes. If you have failed to select any of the given options your proxy can vote as he or she chooses or can decide not to vote at all. The proxy can also do this on any other resolution that is put to the meeting. The 'Vote Withheld' option is provided to enable you to abstain on any particular resolution; however, it should be noted that a 'vote withheld' is not a vote in law and will not be counted in the calculation of the proportion of the votes 'For' and 'Against' a resolution.

  Every holder has the right to appoint some other person(s) of their choice, who need not be a shareholder, as their proxy to exercise all or any of their rights to attend, speak and vote on their behalf at the meeting, provided each proxy is appointed to exercise rights in respect of different shares. The appointment of the chairman as proxy has been included for convenience. If you wish to appoint any other person or persons as proxy or proxies delete the words "the chairman of the meeting" and add the name and address of the proxy or proxies appointed. If you do not delete such words and you appoint a proxy or proxies, the chairman shall not be entitled to vote as proxy. If your proxy is being appointed in relation to less than your full voting entitlement, the number of shares in respect of which each such proxy is to vote must be specified. In the absence of any specific direction, a proxy shall be deemed to be entitled to vote in respect of all the shares in the relevant holding. 5.
- entitled to vote in respect of all the shares in the relevant holding.

  To appoint more than one proxy, additional proxy forms may be obtained by contacting the Company's Registrar or you may photocopy this form. The number of shares in respect of which each such proxy is to vote must be specified on the relevant form. 6.
- In the case of joint holders, the signature of any one holder will be sufficient but the names of all the joint holders should be stated and the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, will be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders. For this purpose, seniority will be determined by the order in which the names stand in the 7.
- register of members in respect of the shares.

  Only holders of Ordinary Shares entered on the register of members of the Company at close of business on 4 August 2025 shall be entitled to vote at the meeting or at any such 8. adjournment thereof.
