Article No (44): Distribution of profits: Taking into account the provisions of other relevant regulations, the company's annual net profits shall be distributed after deducting all general expenses and other costs, including the zakat imposed by Sharia, as follows: 1. Avoid (10%) of the net profits to form a statutory reserve. The Ordinary General Assembly may stop this deduction when the said reserve reaches 30% of the paid-up capital. 2. The remainder is then distributed as a first payment to shareholders equivalent to (5%) of the paid-up capital. 3. After the above, it is allocated (5%) of the remainder to reward the members of the Board of Directors, taking into account any decisions or instructions issued in this regard by the competent authorities. 4. The company may also distribute interim dividends to its shareholders on a semi-annual or quarterly basis.	Article No (40): Distribution of profits: -Annual or interim dividends may be distributed from the distributable profits to shareholders in accordance with the controls set by the competent authorities. 2- The Board of Directors recommends to the General Assembly the distribution of a certain percentage of profits in accordance with the controls set by the competent authorities. 3- The Ordinary General Assembly, based on the proposal of the Board of Directors, may set aside a percentage of the net profits to form reserves, to the extent that serves the interest of the company or ensures the distribution of fixed profits as much as possible to shareholders. The said Assembly may also deduct amounts from the net profits to achieve social purposes for the company's employees. 4- The Ordinary General Assembly may - based on the proposal of the Board of Directors - decide to spend these reserves or the reserves that the shareholders previously decided to set aside, including any reserves that were set aside in accordance with any regulatory requirements prior to the date of approval of these bylaws, in a manner that benefits the company or the shareholders.
