Explanations under the Scope of the CMB’s Corporate Governance Communique

The explanations on the agenda items pursuant to the CMB’s “Corporate Governance Communique” (II – 17.1) published on the Official Journal, issue no. 28871, on 03.01.2014, are made available on the following agenda item, and the additional explanations are submitted to you for your information in this section.

1. Shareholding Structure

Additional Definition Group	Remaining Balance	Nominal / Capital	Capital
Shares that may be Traded in the Stock Exchange	86.425.882,531	57,62%	150.000.000,00
Shares that may not be Traded in the Stock Exchange	63.574.117,469	42,38%

2. Privileged Shares

i. Privileges regarding the election of the Board of Directors

Out of the members of the Board of Directors, three members are elected among the candidates nominated by the Group “A” shareholders, two members by the Group “B” shareholders, two members by the Group “C” members, one member by the Group “D” shareholders and, one member by the Group “E” members.

ii. Privileges regarding the Voting Right

Whereas, the shares of the Groups A, B, C and D were entitled to 100 votes per share as per the Articles of Association during the incorporation of the Company, and the Turkish Commercial Code No. 6102, the article 479(2) “Privileges regarding the Voting Right” provides that each share may be entitled to fifteen votes at maximum and, this restriction would not be applied if it was provided that there was a justified reason or due to such reasons that require institutionalization. Accordingly, a legal action initiated before the Commercial Court of First Instance located where the registered office is situated for establishing a provisional injunction to be excluded from the said restriction has been refused and, the decision thereof has been approved before the Court of Cassation. Therefore, the respective provisions of the article 479 (2) of the Turkish Commercial Code have applied to the Group “A”, “B”, “C” and “D” shares. 1 vote cast for 1 share in any type of the shares during the General Assembly Meetings of the Company.

iii. Privileges regarding Termination and Liquidation

In case of the appointment of a liquidation board, this board shall consist of four people, each of whom is elected by the Group “A”, “B”, “C” and “E” shareholders respectively.

Each shareholder is entitled to dividend in proportion to his/her shares. There is no privilege granted with respect to the profit distribution.

3. Information on Changes concerning Management and Operations as may Significantly Affect the Activities of our Company or Significant Affiliates and Subsidiaries:
