Attn: Shri Amit Phatak
Assistant Manager

Dear Sirs,

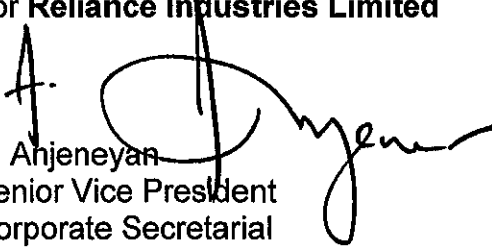

We refer to your e-mail seeking clarification on the news item published in the "The Times of India" edition dated December 09, 2014.

Reliance Foundation was promoted by the Company in 2009 to address social development imperatives of India, specially quality, formal and vocational education, affordable high-quality health care, meaningful rural development and urban renewal and protection and promotion of India's priceless heritage of arts and culture.

As part of its ongoing endeavours, Reliance Foundation does evaluate several opportunities for partnership or alliance. Reliance Foundation will make appropriate announcements, if any such initiatives are finalised.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
For Reliance Industries Limited
