New CPI base reflects spending reality: Garg

- MoSPI secy says it's not appropriate to assess weights' effect on inflation volatility

KULDEEP SINGH
New Delhi, February 8

PUSHING BACK ON the claims that the reduced weight of food and beverages in the new consumer price index (CPI) series would diminish the headline inflation during food price spikes, Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation (MoSPI) Secretary Saurabh Garg has said it would not be appropriate to make such an assessment. The primary objective of the CPI base revision is to develop a robust, transparent and representative index that accurately reflects price movement across time as per household consumption behaviour, he said.

"It would not be appropriate to make an assessment regarding the impact of the revised weights on inflation volatility," the secretary said. He stressed that a lower food weight naturally means food price changes contribute less to the headline CPI movements during spikes, but this reflects updated expenditure realities.

The ministry will release the CPI data based on the new 2024 series on February 12, along with back-series data at the all-India level and a linking factor to enable seamless comparisons and transitions between the old (2012 base) and new series. The weight of food and beverages in the new series will be 36.7%, much below the 45.86% in the current series with 2012 as the base year. The weight of food, without beverages, in the new series will be 34.77%. Economists have projected that this will reduce food-led volatility in the headline inflation. The SBI Research had stated that in the months when food inflation is higher, the new CPI will be low by 20-30 basis points.

The MoSPI secretary explained that the decline to 36.75% partly results from adopting the international Classification of Individual Consumption According to Purpose (COICOP) 2018 framework, which features 12 divisions instead of the previous six broad categories. Certain expenditure items previously grouped under food and beverages now reclassified under categories such as "restaurants and services", leading to a redistribution of weights across divisions. If the old classification was retained for comparison, the food and beverages share would fall only to around 40.10% (from 45.86%). "As per the new classification, the share of food and beverages, which currently stands at 36.75% for 2024 series, would have been around 42.62% for the 2012 series," Garg said.

The shift also captures real changes in household spending patterns from the latest Household Consumption Expenditure Survey (HCES 2023–24), including higher outlays on housing (now including rural housing), services, and transport, the secretary said. These updates, aligned with global standards, aim to make the index more representative rather than to understate pressures from food costs.

SAURABH GARG, SECRETARY, MoSPI

> As per the new classification, the share of food and beverages, which currently stands at 36.75% for 2024 series, would have been around 42.62% for the 2012 series

GST eating into cab drivers' net earnings: IAMAI

APPLYING GOODS AND services tax (GST) on every ride booked through online platforms is reducing the take-home income of driver partners, and there is a need to re-look at its applicability to cab booking services, the internet platforms' industry body IAMAI said in a letter to the government.

The Internet and Mobile Association of India (IAMAI), which represents online firms, like Rapido, Uber, and Ola, in a letter to the Finance Ministry last month, said that the issue not only impacts private online aggregators but also government-supported digital mobility platforms like Bharat Taxi.

Under the current structure, 5% GST is applied on every ride billed through digital platforms, and there is a direct and disproportionate impact on driver earnings and the affordability of these services by consumers, the industry body said. "We request the GST Council and the Finance Ministry to re-examine the applicability of Section 9(5) and structure of GST on app-based mobility services with a view to exempting SaaS models from its ambit," IAMAI said.

The section cited by IAMAI on GST structure states that "electronic commerce operator (ECO) is required to pay tax on supply of services such as passenger transport service, accommodation services, housekeeping services & restaurant services, if such services are supplied through ECO". IAMAI said under the SaaS-based technology model, the aggregator is not involved in fare collection, as the payments are settled directly between the driver and the passenger, resulting in an inherent impossibility for the aggregator to discharge GST at 5% on the ride value. —PTI

Shah calls for end to communism

UNION HOME MINISTER Amit Shah on Sunday said the country needs to get rid of the "destructive" communist ideology at the earliest and appealed to Naxalites to lay down their arms, assuring them a red carpet from the government. "Wherever communists remained in power, they could not bring development. Communism is an ideology indicative of destruction, and the country is required to get rid of it immediately," he said. —PTI

साहित्य खरेदीच्या चौकशीत अडकले २० जण

पुणे, दि. ८ : पुणे महापालिकेच्या भांडार विभागाने दोन कोटी रुपयांचे साहित्य खरेदी केली, पण अनेक वर्ष झाले तरी ते साहित्य विनावापर गोदामात टाकले होते. पुणेकरांच्या निधीची अशाप्रकारे उधळपट्टी झाल्याचे समोर आल्याने आता भांडार विभाग, घनकचरा विभागातील सुमारे २० अधिकारी, कर्मचाऱ्यांना प्रशासनाने कारणे दाखवा नोटीस बजावल्याने खळबळ उडाली आहे. विशेष म्हणजे यामध्ये काही निवृत्त अधिकाऱ्यांचाही समावेश आहे. भांडार विभागाने २०१५ मध्ये चतुर्थ श्रेणी कर्मचाऱ्यांसाठी ७५ लाख रुपयांचे गणवेशाचे कापड, ६९.७१ लाखाच्या साड्या खरेदी केल्या. त्याचे पैसे ठेकेदाराला दिले. पण गेल्या नऊ वर्षात एकाही कर्मचाऱ्याला गणवेशाचे कापड, साड्या दिलेल्या नाहीत.हे साहित्य वडगाव बुद्रूक येथील सावित्रीबाई फुले अभ्यासिकेत पडून आहे. त्याच प्रमाणे घनकचरा विभागाच्या मागणीनुसार भांडार विभागाने ५० लाख रुपये खर्च करून ऑगस्ट २०२३ मध्ये २० हजार किलो सिटी वेस्ट ट्रीटमेंट पावडर, ४ हजार लिटर लिक्विड बायोकॅटॅलिस्ट इकोचीपची खरेदी केली. हे पावडर व लिक्कीड कचऱ्याची दुर्गंधी कमी करण्यासाठी वापरली जाते.
