TDP wins Nandyal, Jagan cries foul

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
HYDERABAD, AUGUST 28

TELUGU DESAM Party (TDP) nominee Bhuma Brahmananda Reddy on Monday comfortably won the bye-election from Nandyal Assembly constituency of Andhra Pradesh, polling for which was held on August 23. The 32-year-old defeated his main rival, YSRCP's Silpa Chandra Mohan Reddy (57), by a margin of 27,466 votes.

At the end of counting, TDP's Brahmananda Reddy had won 97,076 votes, while the YSRCP nominee polled 69,610. Congress candidate Abdul Khader polled 1,382 votes. In the fourth position was NOTA, with 1,231 voters choosing it — 211 of the NOTA votes were through postal ballots.

The bye-election was held using Voter Verifiable Paper Audit Trail, in which the polling machine dispenses a slip with the symbol of the party a person has voted for but the voter cannot take it home.

The bypoll to Nandyal was necessitated by the death of YSRCP MLA Bhuma Nagi Reddy who had defected to the TDP

The bypoll results came as a big disappointment for YSRCP and its chief Y S Jagan Mohan Reddy who was hoping for a win at Nandyal to set up fight for 2019 Lok Sabha election. The loss is another blow for the party which has already lost 20 MLAs who defected to TDP. "TDP used the government's might and money power to win this election," Jagan said after the counting.

Although the Nandyal bye-election was expected to witness a tough contest between the ruling TDP and Opposition YSRCP, the latter's choice of candidate appears to have spoilt its chances. Silpa Chandra Mohan Reddy is a TDP rebel who quit the party on June 13 and joined YSRCP, just before the date for the bypoll was announced. YSRCP leaders from Kurnool district, where Nandyal falls, were not very happy with Chandra Mohan Reddy getting the ticket and did not fully support him, said a party leader.

The bye-election to Nandyal was necessitated by the death of YSRCP MLA Bhuma Nagi Reddy, who had defected to TDP. The bypoll went on to become a prestige battle between Chief Minister N Chandrababu Naidu and Jagan, with the latter suggesting that the result would be a referendum on the TDP government in the state.

"There was a lot of sympathy for the Bhuma family after the deaths of Bhuma Nagi Reddy in March (2017) and Shoba Nagi Reddy in 2014. TDP also spent a lot of money to woo voters," claimed Chandra Mohan Reddy. He added that he could not campaign properly because of poor health. "That could be one of the reasons for my defeat. I respect the people's verdict," he said.

Bhuma Brahmananda Reddy said, "People voted for TDP which represents good governance and development."

Bawana bypoll win a shot in arm for AAP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
NEW DELHI, AUGUST 28

WHAT STARTED as a close contest ended with the AAP comfortably winning the Bawana assembly bypolls in Delhi with a margin of over 24,000, and 45 per cent of the votes. The BJP and Congress finished a distant second and third, respectively.

The polls had offered AAP a chance to stall the run of three key electoral losses — the Punjab and Goa assembly elections, and the MCD polls. The BJP had hoped to build on the momentum from its victory in the MCD polls earlier this year. And, for the Congress, this was a chance to return to the assembly, where they haven't had any representation since 2015.

AAP candidate Ram Chander got 59,886 votes (45.38%) while BJP's Ved Prakash, who had won the 2015 assembly polls on an AAP ticket, received 35,834 votes (27.15%). Congress candidate, Surender Kumar, the legislator from 1998 to 2013, trailed with 31,919 votes (24.19%).

Speaking to workers after the win, Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal said, "The work that we are doing is not reaching the public. We have to stay alert. We have to discuss the work that we have been doing and for this we need to work a little hard."

The BJP's Delhi chief Manoj Tiwari said he took full responsibility for the loss. "I am the unit chief and I will take responsibility for the loss," he said.

Congress spokesperson Sharmistha Mukherjee said, "Congress is the only party which has made gains in Bawana. We improved our vote share to nearly 25 per cent from 7.87 per cent in the 2015. On the other hand, the vote shares of both AAP and BJP have gone down."

With electronic voting machines equipped with VVPAT (Voter Verifiable Paper Audit Trail) being used in all polling stations for the first time in this constituency, a total of 1,413 people opted for NOTA or the 'none of the above' category.

People taught Centre a lesson, says Kejriwal

SHRADHA CHETTRI
NEW DELHI, AUGUST 28

AS THE Aam Aadmi Party won the Bawana bypoll with a margin of 24,052 votes, the 'paanch saal Kejriwal' song once again reverberated at the Chief Minister's residence.

After making a conscious effort for months to keep away from "controversies" and "any direct confrontation with the Centre", Kejriwal returned briefly to his old, combative style in a half-hour speech that targeted both the central government and the BJP.

"Kendriya sarkar adanaga adana bandh kare, janta ko yeh nahin pasand. (The Centre has to stop interfering, people don't like it). With this election, people of Delhi have sent a strong message — that they are still standing with the AAP," said Kejriwal, addressing a large number of volunteers gathered to celebrate the victory at his Civil Lines home.

Inside AAP, this election is being seen as a "turning point" for a party that has suffered consecutive defeats — in assembly polls in Punjab and Goa, the municipal elections in Delhi, and the bypoll in Rajouri Garden.

The Chief Minister dared the BJP to overturn the elected government in Delhi, calling the party "kuda (garbage)".

"In Goa, Arunachal Pradesh and Nagaland, the BJP has been trying to buy MLAs. This will not work in Delhi. Of the 66, only one turned out to be a traitor. Our MLAs are made of a different mettle. If you try to break us, then, like today, people of Delhi will teach you a lesson," he said.

Refuting allegations that the AAP only speaks about electronic voting machines (EVMs) during 'losses', Kejriwal raised the issue once again, arguing that the use of VVPAT machines had ensured free and fair polling.

The win also gave him an opportunity to reach out to his party's volunteers, whose morale, AAP leaders admit, had taken a hit in the last few months. He kept his advice simple: "Stay alert and work harder."

"I have seen the work that we are doing has not been reaching the public," he said amid slogans of Bharat Mata Ki Jai.

Parrikar wins Panaji, BJP 'comfortable' 23 in Goa

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
PANAJI, AUGUST 28

GOA CHIEF Minister Manohar Parrikar bagged Panaji Assembly seat for a sixth term, winning the by-election "comfortably" by 4,803 votes in the results announced on Monday.

With Health Minister Vishwajeet Rane, who had won the election earlier this year on a Congress ticket before turning a rebel and going over to the BJP camp, retaining Valpoi, the ruling coalition now has 23 MLAs — an easy majority in the 40-member House.

Post-victory, Parrikar said at a press meet at the BJP's headquarters: "There was no stress on government, but obviously numbers count in democracy and governance. So now it is 14 (BJP) plus three plus three plus three. It is 23-strong. It's a comfortable victory."

Besides three Independents, the BJP has three members each of Goa Forward Party and Maharashtrawadi Gomantak Party in the ruling alliance.

Calling it a "strong result", Parrikar said numbers will now give a boost to the government's "moral strength", and will dilute the Congress's claims that the ruling party does not have public mandate.

There were cheers in Congress camp, too. The party pointed out that Girish Chodankar, who polled 5,059 votes in Panaji, got the most votes against Parrikar in all elections the CM has won from the constituency since 1994.

"I would call it a dignified defeat. I won their hearts but couldn't secure their votes," Chodankar said.
