BRIEF PROFILE:

Mrs. Veena Mankar has over 4 decades of experience in financial services, with banks, non-banking financial institutions and as a strategy consultant. Her expertise is in trade and structured finance, including factoring and forfaiting, finance for SME's and financial inclusion. She started her career with ICICI Ltd (the erstwhile project finance institution and pre cursor to the Bank), worked with Emirates Bank in Dubai, headed the Indian representative office of the WestLB group, Germany and set up a factoring NBFC for the latter in India, as a JV. As a consultant, she has advised several international financial institutions including Standard Bank of South Africa, Banque Indo-Suez Aval, West LB, Germany and FIMBank Malta.

She has been actively engaged in financial inclusion for over a decade, through two entities that she founded, including a non-profit, Swadhaar FinAccess. The latter provides financial education to women from low income and marginalized households. The second, was a business correspondent for banking services and was subsequently acquired by RBL Bank Limited.

She is currently a Director on the Boards of Liberty General Insurance Limited, IDFC Foundation and Swadhaar Fin Access. She is the Chairperson of RBL Fin service Limited. In the past, she has served as the Independent Non-executive Chairperson of IDFC Bank Limited and on the Governing Board of Sa-Dhan.

Mrs. Veena Mankar has a BA in Economics from Lady Shree Ram College, Delhi University, followed by a post-graduation in Business Administration from the Indian Institute of Management in Ahmedabad (1973-75). She has travelled extensively and been a trainer and speaker at several national and international forums.
