Fearing Kejriwal arrest, AAP goes into a huddle

MALLICA JOSHI
New Delhi, October 31

WHO REPLACES DELHI chief minister Arvind Kejriwal if he is arrested on Thursday? To try and answer this question, if the need arises, the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) is reaching out to a few of its trusted MLAs and advisors, sources said.

Kejriwal has been summoned for questioning by the Enforcement Directorate (ED) on November 2 in connection with the excise policy case. On Tuesday, party leaders, including ministers Gopal Rai, Atishi and Saurabh Bharadwaj, said that the BJP wants to get Kejriwal arrested to "destroy" the AAP.

"A conspiracy has been underway to eliminate the AAP government since it came to power, and now BJP leaders are preparing for Arvind Kejriwal's arrest through the ED. BJP leaders have been shouting since Monday that since the Supreme Court has rejected Manish Sisodia's bail application, Arvind Kejriwal will be arrested," Rai said.

According to the sources, AAP is also discussing the mobilisation of ground support in case Kejriwal is arrested on Thursday.

For AAP, finding a leader to temporarily replace Kejriwal is not going to be easy. With its former deputy chief minister Manish Sisodia and Rajya Sabha MP Sanjay Singh in jail in the same case and former health minister Satyendar Jain on bail in a different matter relating to money laundering, its pick of leaders is limited.

This is not the first time that the party has had to go into a huddle, fearing the CM's arrest. When he was called for questioning by the CBI in April, a few names were suggested, but Kejriwal was allowed to go after being questioned for nine hours. According to party sources, the names of senior leaders like Gopal Rai and Sanjay Singh were discussed at the time.

While governance in Delhi is not an immediate problem since Kejriwal, as Chief Minister, does not hold any portfolio, the more pressing concern, sources said, was to keep the AAP's flock together. The party has 62 MLAs in a 70-member Assembly. While several of its MLAs are serving their third term (since 2013) there are a few new entrants—some from the BJP and Congress.

"The challenge is to find someone who is acceptable to MLAs and who can exert a degree of authority, because if the CM is arrested, it is going to be the biggest challenge that the AAP will have faced so far. The ideal choice would be someone who has been in the party since the beginning and is trusted by the top leadership," said a party source.

'Nothing worse than the silence of the audience'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
Mumbai, October 31

"MY JOB WAS created so that kings could be humanised for their subjects and big stars could be seen as fallible. Don't be mad at me because I have pointed out the cracks (in society). Japanese people fill gold in the cracks and make it beautiful. That's what we are doing here," said comedian Vir Das while talking about rules of stand-up comedy and the role it plays.

About the audience getting offended by comedians, Das said, "We are like this big joint family having dinner together. Someone is going to hate the bhindi and somebody may want chanaa. What I love about my art form is that we can fundamentally disagree about it and laugh about it at the same time."

Das along with actors Shefali Shah and Jim Sarbh was the chief guest at The India Express Adda, which was moderated by Anant Goenka, Executive Director, The Indian Express Group, in Mumbai on Monday evening. The three artists have been nominated for the International Emmy Awards 2023 to be presented in New York on November 20. Shah has been nominated for her performance as top cop Vartika Chaturvedi in the second season of Netflix's 'Delhi Crime' (2022). For Sarbh, it was his performance as Dr Homi Bhabha on the SonyLIV show 'Rocket Boys Season 2' (2023)

Actors Jim Sarbh, Shefali Shah and Vir Das, who have been nominated for the International Emmy Awards 2023, at the Express Adda in Mumbai on Monday.

NARENDRA VASKAR

that won him his Emmy nomination, and for Vir Das, it was his Netflix special, 'Landing' (2022).

Speaking about shows based on real-life stories and personalities, Shah said, "One thing that occurred to not just me but all the people involved in 'Delhi Crime Season 1' was that when you are creating a show based on a real-life incident, you need immense sensitivity. When Richie Mehta (writer and director of the show) met me for the first time, he categorically said that we are not going into the rape (incident). There's enough damage done there. Our show was more about what happened in the next five days after the incident."

The actor became a household name in the '90s with popular television series such as 'Hasratein' (1997), 'Kabhie Kabhie' (1997) and 'Raathein' (1999) as well as won critical acclaim with movies such as 'Satya' (1998), 'Monsoon Wedding' (2001) and 'Gandhi, My Father' (2007).

Sarbh, who plays the role of legendary scientist Homi Bhabha in 'Rocket Boys', said, "We haven't had to use the atom bomb or nuclear bomb. (If we did) it would change everything, including how we looked at Homi Bhabha... I really did think about that a lot when 'Delhi Crime Season 1' came out — what does it mean to take a tragedy and turn it into a hit show? It's a very odd juxtaposition."

The actor, who has been part of a number of projects based on real-life stories, said, "Maybe people are realising that there are good stories out there in India that have not been looked at."

Das, who has dabbled in various formats including stand-up comedy, theatre, and movies, is currently touring with 'Mind Fool'. He noted how the audience has made comedians humble. "Earlier, comedians were like, 'Here are my jokes, if you are offended, I am off to the next city.'" Now, the comedians have to be humble about the fact that "the audience has a voice", he said. "There is nothing worse in this world than the silence of the audience."

When asked whether he identifies as an Indian or as a global citizen, Das said, "I am a citizen of India. Every fabric of my being identifies as Indian. But that doesn't mean that I identify with your version of India. There are too many versions of India for me to identify just one of them."

Cop killed, convoy attacked in Manipur

JIMMY LEIVON
Imphal, October 31

THE FRAGILE PEACE in Manipur was broken on Tuesday as suspected militants shot dead a sub-divisional police officer (SDPO) in the state's Moreh town, along the border with Myanmar. In the evening, a large number of state forces along with a column of Assam Rifles, which had left Imphal for Moreh, came under attack. The combined team, led by an IG, DIG, and two SP rank officers, came under fire at two locations along the Indo-Myanmar Road, leaving at least three police personnel injured.

Police sources said the SDPO was shot around 9.45 am while he was overseeing the construction of a helipad, jointly taken up by the state force and the BSF.

He received a bullet in his abdomen and was evacuated to a clinic, but succumbed to injuries around 10.15 am. Police suspect he was shot from a long distance by a sniper.

The deceased, Chingtham Anand Kumar, a Meitei resident of Haobam Marak Chingtham Leikai in Imphal West district, is survived by his wife and four children. Kumar has in the past been involved in several counter-insurgency operations, for which he received the police gallantry medal. His family said he had been posted in Moreh for the last two years.

Calling it a "cold-blooded killing", Manipur Chief Minister N Biren Singh assured that the perpetrators would be brought to justice. "His dedication to serve and protect the people will always be remembered," he said.

An emergency meeting of the state Cabinet was also held at the chief minister's Office, where the law and order situation was discussed.
