Zorlu Holding A.Ş. was the principal shareholder with 56.08% share in capital as of 30.09.2023.

Key rating drivers, as strengths and constraints, are provided below.

Strengths

Constraints

- Recovering gross profit and EBITDA margins in 9M2023 following a decline in FY2022,
- Moderate level of net debt/EBITDA multipliers despite an increase as of FYE2022,
- Sufficient cash flow metrics supported by CFO and FFO,
- Top-tier market position supported by broad sales and after-sales network further strengthened by omnichannel capabilities,
- Efficiency and cost advantages of manufacturing under one roof of Vestel City,
- Strong compliance with the corporate governance principles,
- Noteworthy focus on R&D and innovation as a value creation strategy within the scope of 'Smart Life 2030 Vision'.

- NWC deficit throughout the analysis period as a result of short-term weighted maturity profile of rising borrowings,
- High and increasing level of other receivables from related parties,
- Notable non-cash contribution of revaluation gains in equity,
- Ongoing sectoral contraction in the main export market,
- Leading economic indicators signal global economic slowdown while quantitative actions aim to restrict consumption growth and achieve a soft-landing in the domestic side.

Considering the aforementioned points, the Company's the Long-Term National Issuer Credit Rating has been affirmed at 'A (tr)'. The Company's profit margins, leverage profile, cash flow metrics, market positions, multi-channel marketing abilities, asset quality, corporate governance practices, and R&D capabilities along with liquidity profile, equity structure, and deterioration in local and global macroeconomic conditions have been evaluated as important indicators for the 'Stable' outlooks for the Long and Short-Term National Issuer Credit Ratings. The Company's sales and profitability performance, leverage indicators, liquidity and cash flow metrics, and input costs will be closely monitored by JCR Eurasia Rating in the upcoming periods. The macroeconomic indicators at national and international markets, as well as market conditions and legal framework about the sector will be monitored as well.
