Dear Sir / Madam,

Subject: Clarification on significant increase in Trading Volume of Securities

Ref: Letter No. NSE/CM/Surveillance/16839 dated April 15, 2026

This has reference to your email and letter dated April 15, 2026, bearing Ref. No. NSE/CM/Surveillance/16839, seeking clarification on the significant increase observed in the trading volume of the Company's securities.

In this regard, we would like to submit that the Company has been in due compliance with the requirements of Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 ("SEBI LODR Regulations"), and has consistently made timely disclosures of all material events and information that may have a bearing on the operations and performance of the Company. All such disclosures are duly available in the public domain.

Further, we confirm that, to the best of our knowledge and based on information presently available with the Company:

i. there is no material event or information, including any impending announcement, which, in our opinion, may have a bearing on the price or volume behaviour of the Company's securities and which has not already been disclosed;

ii. there is no unpublished price sensitive information ("UPSI") pending disclosure in terms of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015; and

iii. the Company is not in possession of any information or development that could reasonably explain the recent increase in the trading volume of its securities.

The observed movement in trading volume appears to be driven by external market dynamics, including general market conditions and investor sentiment, and is not attributable to any specific event or information within the knowledge of the Company that warrants disclosure under the SEBI LODR Regulations.

The Company remains committed to maintaining the highest standards of corporate governance and ensuring prompt, fair and transparent disclosures in compliance with applicable regulatory requirements. Any material development, if and when arising, shall be duly intimated to the stock exchanges in accordance with the SEBI LODR Regulations.

You are requested to kindly take the above on record.

Thanking You.
