

Vijay Mohan Kaul (61 years)

Mr. V. M. Kaul, is a first class Bachelor of Mechanical Engineering from IIT, Delhi with MBA Degree from IGNOU. He is a fellow member of All India Management Association and a member of the Institute of Engineers. Presently, he is a faculty at the International Management Institute (IMI), New Delhi.

Mr. Kaul has over 38 years of work experience in premier Organizations like Engineers India Limited, NTPC Limited and Power Grid Corporation of India. He retired as Director Personnel of POWERGRID. He was also on the Board of Nuclear Power Corporation, Power Trading Corporation and Power Links Transmission Limited.

Mr. Kaul has handled various multi-disciplinary functions like Contract Management, Project Management, Joint Venture, Quality Assurance and Inspection. He has worked on several super thermal power projects (2100 MW capacity) from initial stage to commissioning and was also incharge of contracts for 12 gas based combined cycle power projects of 6557 MW capacity. He was instrumental in setting up the Rs. 1200 crore first Public Private Transmission Project in Joint Venture with Tata Power in India. He was also responsible for setting up several other Joint Venture Projects in Transmission Sector.