

Thinksoft flags off its new delivery centre on OMR, Chennai

Chennai, Jan 28th, 2013: Thinksoft's new delivery centre at Prince Infocity II on OMR, Chennai, was formally inaugurated on Thursday, 24th Jan 2013, with Smt. Justice Prabha Sridevan, Chairperson of the Intellectual Property Appellate Board, and Sri.T.T.Srinivasaraghavan, MD, Sundaram Finance, gracing the occasion as guests of honor.

Smt. Sridevan, in her inaugural speech, gave a bird's eye view on the jurisdictions concerning intellectual property rights and called on the audience, who belonged to the Knowledge industry, to become creators and owners of intellectual property.

Speaking at the event, Sri. Srinivasaraghavan in his keynote address elaborated about "Regulatory Arbitrage" in the NBFC sector and how there should be a balance in the regulations brought in by the government so that there is a fair chance for all the players. He emphasized the relevance and criticality of Specialists, as more and more clients look up to them to make their business the best in class.

As per the management of Thinksoft, when combined with their existing MEPZ, Tambaram facility they now have a 700 seater delivery capacity in Chennai. The key reason for the purchase of the property is to reduce operating costs and achieve administrative efficiency. The new facility meets client requirements and is in conformity with international security and confidentiality standards.

Other unique feature of this facility is the customer lounge, an exclusive area for visiting customers of Thinksoft to interact with Thinksoft team, engage in business discussions and experience the latest from the company. The touch screen based 'Fresh from the lab' showcases the latest innovations in financial software testing by Thinksoft, which customers can feel/ play with and provide feedback.
