PM calls for discussion on 'one nation, one election'

Says let different points of view emerge on the matter; shows concerns over low voting turnout

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, 25 January

Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Tuesday expressed concern over low voting percentage, especially in urban areas considered educated and prosperous, and said this should change in a vibrant democracy like India.

In an interaction with BJP workers from across the country, Modi also raised the issues of “one nation, one election” and “one nation, one voters’ list”, saying that continuous cycle of elections result in politics being seen in everything while development works suffer.

His address coincided with the National Voters’ Day on Tuesday.

While noting that the voting percentage rose from 45 per cent in the first Lok Sabha polls in 1951-52 to 67 per cent in 2019, he said the rise in woman voters’ participation was a good thing, but added that everyone from citizens to members of different political parties should think over low polling.

It is seen that urban areas, which are considered educated and prosperous, have low polling, he said, lamenting that their residents discuss elections on social media but don’t go to vote.

PRIME MINISTER NARENDRA MODI HAS OFTEN PUSHED FOR HOLDING ELECTIONS, FROM THAT OF LOK SABHA TO STATE ASSEMBLIES AND LOCAL BODIES, SIMULTANEOUSLY, SAYING FREQUENT POLLS HAMPER DEVELOPMENT WORKS

Modi asked the BJP’s “panna pramukhs” and other ground workers to work to ensure 75 per cent polling in every election. Polling is the most sacred donation to strengthen democracy, the PM said, lauding the Election Commission for its initiatives to increase polling.

Referring to the recently passed legislation which seeks voters to link their Aadhaar number and voter ID, he said it will boost transparency.

Pushing for discussion on “one nation,

86% Indians want voting to be made compulsory: Survey

An overwhelming 86 per cent people want voting to be made mandatory in the country, according to a survey released on Tuesday on the occasion of the 12th National Voters’ Day.

The pan-Indian survey was conducted with a sample size of over 400,000 people by location-based social network platform Public App.

The survey, in which 60 per cent of respondents were under the age of 30, said 81 per cent of people trust the transparency of the current voting process in the country. On why people miss out on voting, 30.04 per cent of its respondents chose “being in another city” as their reason to have missed on casting their vote.

one election” and “one nation, one voters’ list”, he said let different point of views emerge.

Even this interaction with BJP “panna pramukhs”, those in charge of one page of voters list of a booth is linked to elections, he said, adding that he had been planning such an interaction for some time. Assembly polls in Uttar Pradesh, Punjab, Uttarakhand, Goa and Manipur will be held in seven phases beginning next month.

Poll freebies exceeding regular Budget, says SC

Issues notices to Centre, EC on PIL against populist sops

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, 25 January

The Supreme Court on Tuesday sought replies from the Centre and the Election Commission on a PIL seeking direction to seize the symbol or deregister a political party that promises or distributes “irrational freebies” before polls, saying it is a “serious issue” as sometimes “freebie budget is going beyond regular Budget”.

A Bench comprising Chief Justice N V Ramana and Justices A S Bopanna and Hima Kohli sought the response in four weeks on the PIL filed by BJP leader and lawyer Ashwini Upadhyay. The plea, filed ahead of Assembly polls in five states, said there should be a total ban on such populist measures to gain undue political favour from voters as they violate the Constitution and the EC should take suitable deterrent measures.

The Bench took note of submissions of senior advocate Vikas Singh, appearing for Upadhyay, that a law need to be framed on the issue and steps like seizure of party symbols or taking back the registration of parties or both may be thought of as ultimately it is the citizens who have to pay up. “Let us see. For the time being, we will issue notice and let the Government of India and the Election Commission come back with some response,” the Bench said after hearing.

The Bench said that political parties may be included as parties to the plea later.

“Legally, I am asking some legal questions in the debate. We want to know how to control all this. It is a serious issue, no doubt. Freebie budget is going beyond regular Budget and sometimes, as observed by the Supreme Court in this paragraph (of an earlier judgment), it is not the level playing field.

“The parties who make more promises have the advantage and chance of winning the elections even though it does not amount to corrupt practices under the law,” the Bench said.

It took note of the fact that the poll panel has conducted only one meeting on the issue of promise of freebies during the polls after the apex court’s judgment on the issue.

“The apex court had directed the Election Commission to frame guidelines on this. They have framed guidelines but without any teeth,” the lawyer responded.

At the outset, Singh said in states, having huge debt, parties are promising freebies and please see, ultimately it is the public, whose money is promised to be given. Every party is doing the same thing and there has to be some legislation on this aspect, he said, adding “I do not want to name any party”.

SC refuses to pass interim direction on FCRA licences

The Centre on Tuesday told the Supreme Court that Foreign Contribution Regulation Act (FCRA) registrations of 11,594 NGOs, which applied within the cut-off date, have already been extended.

Taking note of Solicitor General Tushar Mehta’s submission, a Bench headed by Justice A M Khanwilkar refused to pass an interim direction that FCRA registrations of all organisations that were valid as on September 30 last year ought to be continued until further orders.

The Bench, also comprising Justices Dinesh Maheshwari and C T Ravikumar, said the petitioners are free to make representation to the concerned authorities which may be considered on its merits in accordance with law. The FCRA registration is mandatory for any association and NGO to receive foreign funding.

Mehta told the top court that 11,594 NGOs had applied within the cut-off date and their registrations have been extended for the time being.

Majithia gets three-day protection from arrest

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Chandigarh, 25 January

The Punjab and Haryana High Court has granted a three-day protection from arrest to SAD leader Bikram Singh Majithia for approaching the Supreme Court to challenge its order in which the anticipatory bail plea of the former minister had been dismissed.

The court of Justice Lisa Gill on Monday had dismissed the anticipatory bail plea of Majithia, who had been booked in a drug case earlier. “....petitioner is afforded three days to enable him to approach the Hon’ble Supreme Court for challenging this order. Till then, petitioner be not arrested,” according to the order which came out on Tuesday.

Majithia’s counsel had prayed for protection for seven days from the court. The dismissal of the anticipatory bail plea has come as a setback to Majithia, who is the Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) candidate from the Majitha Assembly in Amritsar.

The process for filling of nomination papers for the February 20 polls began on Tuesday.

RPN Singh quits Cong, joins BJP fortnight before UP polls

May contest Padrauna seat against BJP turncoat Maurya

ADITI PHADNIS
New Delhi, 25 January

After years of warning that the popularity of the Congress I, then his party, was waning in Uttar Pradesh, RPN Singh (57), the Raja of Padrauna or ‘Ritchie’ to friends, crossed over to the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) on Tuesday.

He is most likely to contest the Assembly elections against Swami Prasad Maurya, who last week quit the BJP (he was MLA from Padrauna) to join the Samajwadi Party.

“This is a new beginning for me and I look forward to my contribution to nation building under the visionary leadership & guidance of the Honourable Prime Minister Shri @narendramodi, BJP president Shri @JPNadda ji & Honourable Home Minister @AmitShah ji,” Singh tweeted before joining the BJP in Union minister Dharmendra Pradhan’s presence. Jyotiraditya Scindia, who quit the Congress to join the BJP and is the civil aviation minister, was present for at ceremony. Singh is the second big exit from the Congress in UP after Jitin Prasada quit last year.

Sabha elections only once from the Kushinagar seat in 2009, he has won the Padrauna Assembly seat thrice — in 1996, 2002, and 2007.

Singh held the Union minister of state for home and other portfolios in the second term of the Manmohan Singh government. He was made the party in charge of Jharkhand, where the Congress and the Jharkhand Mukti Morcha formed a coalition government in the last Assembly election.

He contested the 2019 Lok Sabha elections from the Kushinagar seat, but came third after the BJP and the SP candidates, getting only 13 per cent of the vote.
