Re: Update in relation to title suit no. 205 of 2016 filed by Mr. Keshav Malani and Mr. Yash Malani before the City Civil Court at Calcutta against Quick Heal Technologies Limited (the "Company")

Dear Sir/Madam,

This is with respect to the captioned matter.

Mr. Keshav Malani and Mr. Yash Malani, relatives of Manohar Malani, (the "Petitioners") had filed a Title Suit No. 205 of 2016 before the City Civil Court at Calcutta (the "Court") against our Company alleging to be shareholders of the Company and seeking injunction on allotment of equity shares in the Initial Public Offering (IPO) of the Company (the "Suit"). The Court by its order dated June 8, 2016 (which was received by the Company on June 22, 2016), has dismissed the Suit.

The Suit was primarily dismissed by the Court on account of Petitioners being absent after repeated calls. Since the Petitioners did not show any seriousness in pursuing the Suit, it is evident that the Petitioners had no real ground for the Suit and it was frivolous in nature and that the Petitioners had ulterior motive to stall the IPO of the Company.

The dismissal of the Suit re-confirms that the Company has not indulged into any wrongdoing in relation to the shareholding of the Company. The Company strongly reiterates it has always represented its books, registers and shareholding and membership data truthfully, accurately and correctly.

For Quick Heal Technologies Limited
