Annexure-1Somany Ceramics Redefines the Smart Toilet Category, Launches Exquisite French Collection Range

Somany Ceramics Limited, one of the leaders in the Indian ceramic industry introduced their intuitive, design-forward French Collection range, their most premium offering till date. With this innovative collection, Somany Ceramics entered the smart and intelligent toilet market offering contemporary trendy designs, superior technology and flawless performance.

As the effects of global warming and climate change continue to take an ever-increasing toll on the planet, sustainable living is becoming a priority. Therefore, construction companies, globally and in India, are centered on the development of smart buildings with features like smart bathrooms to promote sustainable development and efficient energy management. Smart bathrooms offer optimally integrated solutions such as smart toilets, automatic flush systems, and automatic faucets. The demand for smart bathrooms, especially in urban areas and among rising affluent Indians, is increasing significantly as consumers move towards the trend of energy conservation adoption and maintain high standards of hygiene.

The French Collection is luxurious and its smart product line is inspired by the unique elements of French heritage while taking design aesthetics into cognizance making it a truly world class product line. The collection has over 28 products, ranging from water closets, urinals to wash basins, which fall under 11 different series, namely Jazz, Dior and Ace amongst others. Each series follows a particular theme with different patterns of technology integration as follows:

Stronger dual flush mechanism	5 meter long fully customized remote control	Warm wind drying
Wash-down system	Soft close mechanism for automatic opening & closing of lid	Night light
User defined energy save	Smart seat rim with temperature control	Warm rear & bidet wash
Seated sensors	Larger washing area	Sanitizer and deodorizer
Minimal touch points	Minimum pressure points	Automatic flushing

The star of the Somany French Collection is the “Ace” series having the first high IQ toilet by Somany Ceramics, which is designed to ensure there are minimum pressure points so as to enhance overall comfort.

Speaking at the launch, Mr. Abhishek Somany, MD, Somany Ceramics Limited, said, “The launch of this collection reiterates our promise of bringing the most fascinating and technologically advanced products for our valued customers in India. The addition of the new collection will strengthen our product portfolio and will continue to help us expand our consumer base.”

He further added, “The smart bathroom and toilet trend is here to stay as consumers get more environment and health conscious, and this collection caters to this growing segment. We are confident that the French collection will be a resounding success as it has been created keeping in mind the modern contemporary housing needs of consumers. With this launch, we hope to lead the smart toilet industry in India and aim to be among the Top 3 players over the next two years.”

The price range for the French collection varies according to the series and the products, starting from INR 7,990 for the Quest Art Basin to INR 1,65,000 for the Ace Automatic Toilet. The new collection is available across India at Somany Exclusive Stores and Experience Centres.

About Somany Ceramics Limited:
