Revised J&K poll rolls may expand 33% with 25L new voters over 3 years: CEO

Says Anyone Ordinarily Living In UT Can Get Enlisted In Accordance With RP Act

Sanjay Khajuria | TNN

Jammu: J&K's electorate could swell by 20 to 25 lakh new voters after the ongoing special summary revision of electoral rolls, accounting for not just those who have turned 18 since the last update in 2019 but also the potential addition of people from other states living in the UT and now eligible to vote, chief electoral officer Hirdesh Kumar said on Wednesday.

"We are expecting massive changes in the rolls given the fact that a special summary revision is taking place for the first time since January 1, 2019," the CEO told reporters at Jammu's Nirvachan Bhawan, triggering a howl of protest from mainstream regional parties that fear BJP would "import" voters to win elections.

In the 2019 Lok Sabha elections, the then undivided state of J&K had 78.4 lakh registered voters. Excluding what is now the UT of Ladakh, the number would have been 76.7 lakh. An addition of 20 to 25 lakh voters would hence constitute an increase by about 26 to 33% over a three-year period. Between 2014 and 2019, the increase in voters had been about 6.5 lakh.

Census projections peg the population 18 years or older in J&K at about 94 lakh in 2021.

"After the nullification of Article 370, many people who were not enlisted as voters in the erstwhile state of J&K are now eligible to do so. Besides, anyone from any part of the country ordinarily living here can choose to get enlisted as a voter in accordance with the provisions of the Representation of the People Act, 1951," Kumar said.

A domicile certificate is not necessary to become a voter as long as the applicant is legally based in J&K for work, business or education, the CEO said

He clarified that a domicile certificate wasn't necessary to become a voter as long as the applicant was legally based in J&K for work, business or education. "Their documents will be properly scrutinised by the authorities before a decision is taken to reject or accept the claim," he said.

The cut-off for age eligibility is October 1.

National Conference vice-president and ex-CM Omar Abdullah questioned if BJP was "so insecure about support from genuine voters of J&K" that it needed to get "temporary voters to win seats". "None of these things will help the BJP when the people of J&K are given a chance to exercise their franchise," he tweeted.

PDP president Mehbooba Mufti, another ex-CM, termed the roll revision an exercise to "disempower" the local population.

"GOI's decision to defer polls in J&K preceded by egregious gerrymandering tilting the balance in BJP's favour, and now allowing non locals to vote is obviously to influence election results. Real aim is to continue ruling J&K with an iron fist," she said.

People's Conference chief Sajad Gani Lone called it a "dangerous" and "disastrous" move. "I don't know what they want to achieve. This is much more than mischief. Democracy is a relic, especially in the context of Kashmir. Please remember 1987. We are yet to come out of that. Don't replay 1987," he tweeted, referring to alleged rigging in the assembly polls that year being the trigger for terror in the Valley.

CEO Kumar said the target of completing the special summary revision by November 25 was a challenging one, but it was on track.

According to the Election Commission's rescheduled timeline, an integrated draft electoral roll will be published on September 15, while the period for filing claims and objections has been fixed between September 15 and October 25. Disposal of claims and objections are to be completed by November 10.

Harassment charge won't stand due to woman's 'provocative dress': Court

Times News Network

Kozhikode: The Kozhikode sessions court has observed in its order granting anticipatory bail to writer and activist Civic Chandran that IPC Section 354A pertaining to sexual harassment will not prima facie stand against the accused as the complainant was wearing a "sexually provocative" dress.

The remarks by district sessions judge S Krishna Kumar, relying on photographs of the complainant produced by the accused, have kicked up a row, with women activists and legal experts criticising the order. "The photographs produced along with the bail application by the accused would reveal that the de facto complainant herself is exposing to dresses which are having some sexual provocative one (sic). So Section 354A will not prima facie stand against the accused," the order said.

ORDER KICKS UP ROW

The August 12 order also said it is impossible to believe that a 74-year-old man, who is physically disabled, can forcefully put the complainant in his lap and sexually press her breast. The complainant's advocate, P Rajeev, said they would approach the high court against the order.

The court also observed that the wording of IPC Sec 354 makes it clear that there must be an intention on the part of the accused to outrage the modesty of a woman.

Shopian 'terrorist' identified in KP killing; property attached

Saleem.Pandit @timesgroup.com

Srinagar: J&K police launched a hunt Wednesday after identifying a man named Adil Ahmad Wani of Kutpora village in south Kashmir's Shopian district and a Pakistani terrorist as the killers of a Kashmiri Pandit orchard owner in Chotigam village the day before.

Jammu & Kashmir police chief Dilbagh Singh told reporters that strict action would be taken against them, while additional DGP Vijay Kumar said a search team seized arms and ammunition from Wani's home.

Another officer said Wani's house was attached and three men related to him were picked up for "harbouring" a terrorist. Properties of the arrested trio—Arif Ahmad Wani, Shabir Ahmad Wani and Touseef Ahmad Wani—will likely be attached too under relevant sections of the law.

Sources said a combined team of police, Army's 34 Rashtriya Rifles and CRPF's 178 Battalion raided Wani's house in a pre-dawn swoop Wednesday following information that he was hiding there. The terrorist threw a grenade, prompting the search party to fire back, but he escaped in the darkness.

The security forces found an AK-series rifle, a magazine and a pistol in the house that police said was used as a hideout. The attic served as an armoury for terrorist weapons/ammo.

ED names actor Jacqueline as accused in extortion case

Times News Network

New Delhi: In a supplementary chargesheet filed on Wednesday before a special court here against conman Sukesh Chandrashekhar, the Enforcement Directorate (ED) as accused Bollywood actor Jacqueline Fernandez of being aware of the extortion racket run by the conman and helping him in transferring 'proceeds of crime'.

According to sources, Fernandez had initially denied any knowledge of the 'proceeds of crime', but when confronted with evidence of her involvement and being beneficiary of it, the actor admitted to her association with the conman.

A special PMLA court is likely to take cognisance of the ED's chargesheet on August 31, which will initiate the beginning of trial against the actor who will be required to be present in the court.

This is Enforcement Directorate's second supplementary chargesheet with the agency earlier having filed two other prosecution complaints in which conman Sukesh Chandrashekhar, his wife Leena Maria and associate Pinki Irani were accused of laundering the proceeds of crime.

Fernandez has been made an accused in the case following attachment of her assets earlier in April this year worth Rs 7.3 crore.

She had benefited from acquiring properties to expensive cars and bank deposits from the 'proceeds of crime'.

The agency had earlier claimed that the conman had transferred more than Rs 1.5 crore to family members of Fernandez in foreign accounts using hawala dealers.

Fernandez was last questioned by the Enforcement Directorate on June 27 this year at its Delhi office in connection with the conman spending over Rs 20 crore on luxury properties, bribing prison staff and offering expensive gifts to Bollywood actresses and models.
