TCS and GE Partner to Enable Healthcare Industry Transformation

TCS' Business and Healthcare IT Expertise Offers New Solutions on GE Health Cloud for its Customers

SANTA CLARA | MUMBAI, May 25, 2016: Tata Consultancy Services, (TCS), (BSE: 532540, NSE: TCS) a leading global IT services, consulting and business solutions organization, today announced that as a strategic partner of GE Healthcare and GE Digital (NYSE: GE), it will develop innovative digital solutions on the GE Health Cloud to deliver benefits to its customers across the healthcare industry.

TCS will leverage its comprehensive healthcare IT, business and technology expertise to provide industrywide transformation to value-based healthcare. Additionally, TCS will bring its consulting experience to work alongside GE Healthcare to ensure quality control and regulatory compliance on the GE Health Cloud and its solutions.

"TCS sees great opportunities to improve care pathways for patients through its digital solutions, enriching the GE Health Cloud ecosystem to improve outcomes for healthcare providers," said Anupam Singhal, Vice President, Tata Consultancy Services.

"We are excited about the GE Health Cloud and its ability to turn data into insights that empower actions for healthcare providers. We will work alongside companies like TCS to make critical, impactful use of the data deluge the healthcare industry faces today," added Justin Steinman, Chief Marketing Officer, GE Healthcare IT.

TCS has significant expertise on the GE Predix platform, recently releasing IoT solutions such as supply chain monitoring, prognostic maintenance and engine telematics. As an early adopter of the Predix Platform and the GE Health Cloud, TCS will help customers seize business opportunities and propel industrywide transformation.
