300 schools allowed to open in Covid free areas

AIZAWL, AUG 23: More than 300 schools in COVID-19 free areas outside the jurisdiction of Aizawl Municipal Corporation (AMC) have been allowed to re-open for the new academic session 2021-2022, an official said on Sunday.

The new COVID-19 guidelines issued by the state government on August 8 had allowed the re-opening of schools in areas outside the AMC's jurisdiction where there is no COVID-19 case.

Following the new COVID-19 guidelines, the state school education department had on August 9 issued an order allowing re-opening of schools for primary to higher secondary level in COVID-19 free towns and villages subject to prior consultation with deputy commissioners.

A standard operating procedure (SOP) issued by the department shall be strictly followed, the order had said.

School education department director James Lalrinchhana said that at least 376 schools in seven districts, including the Aizawl district, have been allowed to re-open for the new academic session 2021-2022. Majority of the permitted schools have already started regular classes, while 27 more schools in Khawzawl district will be re-opened from Monday, he said.

He said that the school education department is currently undertaking identification of schools in COVID-19 free areas and more schools will be re-opened in the next few days.

At least 49 schools have so far been allowed to re-open in Aizawl district, 151 in Champhai district, 74 in Serchhip district, 47 in Lawngtlai district, 11 in Siaha district, 20 in Saitual district and 27 in Khawzawl district, he said.

Of the 11 districts, four districts-Lunglei, Kolasib, Mamit and Hnahthial are yet to submit lists of COVID-19 free villages where re-opening of school can be allowed, according to Lalrinchhana.

He said the schools, which have been permitted to re-open, are mostly located in remote rural villages where internet connectivity is very poor.

The re-opening of schools in such villages has immensely helped students, who could not get good internet access, he said.

Online classes are still going on for schools in COVID-19 areas, he said.

So far, no student has been infected with COVID-19 in such villages where schools were re-opened, he said.

Unlike previous years, the new academic session (for 2021-2022) was delayed by a month due to COVID-19 and the academic calendar commenced from May.

Schools and other educational institutions have been closed for about 15 months starting from March last year due to the spread of COVID-19. Following the dip in COVID-19 cases from around November last year, schools were reopened for certain classes on January 22 this year but have been shut again since April with the onset of the second wave of COVID-19. Independence Day celebrations at J.D. Birla Institute GUWAHATI, AUG 23: As India embarks on its year-long celebrations of the grand Diamond Jubilee of Indian Independence, J.D. Birla Institute also celebrated the day with enthusiasm and patriotic fervor on Sunday, 15th August 2021.

The legacy and spirit of our freedom fighters have been redefined today with the courage and determination of our COVID warriors and the theme for the program was aptly selected as 'Warriors of Independence'. While the Pandemic has cast a cloud of uncertainty in our lives, the freedom struggle of our great freedom fighters nurtures our young generation with its glory, fills a sense of pride and provides reassurance that human spirit to fight all odds is indomitable.

The story of Indian independence is as unique and as extraordinary as the country and her people. Never before had the world seen freedom claimed by civil disobedience and non cooperation rather than violence and force.

The leaders of India's freedom struggle through the years have been revolutionary thinkers and change makers who ideology have found resonance in countries across the world and prevailed to this day. Not a single shot was fired, no war was waged and no treaty was drafted as the British handed over power and quit India. It was an act with no parallel in history.

As Indians we have negotiated with our colonial past and emerged victorious 75 years ago. The same spirit continues to imbue us in our fight against COVID as well. Students, faculty and staff attended the program virtually with some present at the college premises to host the National tricolor while maintaining standard COVID protocols.

A sapling planting ceremony by students and teachers was also held as part of a constant endeavor of the Institute to instill greater environmental awareness.
