Dear Sir

With reference to clarification sought vide above mentioned communication, we wish to clarify that the facts are different from what have been projected and there is nothing at all which is adverse in the case of the Company. We are considering for taking legal action against them.

The transactions which they talked about relates to the year 2014/15 and further relates to the sales proceeds of the Company. These transactions have already been verified by State Sales Tax Department and the Company has been assessed and there is nothing pending against the Company.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully
