Intense Technologies featured as one of the 20 most promising BPM solution providers of 2018 by CIOReview

Hyderabad – May 3, 2018:

Intense Technologies has been featured on the list of top 20 promising BPM solution providers published by CIOReview magazine. The list features innovative leading solution providers from across the globe offering technologies and service that aid in Business Process Management. A distinguished panel comprising of CEOs, CIOs, CMOs, analysts, and the editorial board of CIOReview have selected these top players that have exhibited vast knowledge and in-depth expertise in delivering BPM related solutions.

As mentioned by CIO Review, BPM platforms continue to evolve and Intense Technologies' BPM platform ingrains agility in organizations' BPM efforts through a host of enterprise applications that enables seamless collaboration with employees, processes, customers, and partners.

Mr. Shastri, MD Intense Technologies also mentioned in the feature article that "our widespread success attributes to our turnkey BPM platform UniServe™ NXT. This is a LCDP (Low-code Development Platform) developed on bimodal IT architecture to ensure accelerated delivery of BPM solution with zero downtime. The platform is future-ready and includes domain-specific templates for quick adoption."
