Press Release:

Jubilant FoodWorks spreads joy through special pizza treat for kids on Children's Day

Noida, November 14, 2017: Jubilant FoodWorks Limited (JFL), master franchise of Domino's Pizza and Dunkin' Donuts in India, celebrated Children's Day with underprivileged children in various cities by treating them with their favourite pizzas. Jubilant FoodWorks employees also organised special activities to engage the kids and spread joy. The celebration was carried out across five cities including Delhi, Kolkata, Mumbai, Nagpur and Bengaluru.

The company had tied up with various NGOs and shelter homes for the celebration.

Speaking about the celebration Mr. Murugan S Narayanaswamy, Senior Vice President, Marketing Domino's Pizza India said "Today, JFL employees have come together to celebrate Children's Day with these kids. It is a small effort from our end to add moments of joy and happiness in their lives. This has also given all of us an opportunity to revisit our childhood memories. We hope that this celebration has created some sweet memories for the children that they could cherish."

Around 2500 children were treated to special pizza meals from Domino's across five cities. The employees spent quality time with the children understanding their aspirations and engaging them in fun filled activities.
