In 2021, Zydus is likely to bring in more variants of Complian and explore sub categories such as adult health drinks. The company is also leveraging its relationships with the doctor community to push Complian as a

It is not just the newly acquired brands that are under focus at Zydus Wellness, old staples such as Sugar Free are too. With a closer grasp of the consumer mindset with its new portfolio, the company has cut prices for a Sugar Free Green variant. It is also pitch- ing the brand as more than sugar-free, hoping to expand its scope since Sugar Free is already the largest player in the category. The new challenge we face is the myth around sugar substitutes. Even after author- ities say that they are safe, we are still fighting perceptions, Arora says. The company currently spends around 5 per cent of its revenues for advertising and marketing, which is likely to stay unchanged.
