WABAG BAGS INR 262 CRORE ORDER FROM NEPAL

VA TECH WABAG LIMITED, a leading Indian MNC, in a joint venture with Pratibha Industries Limited has won an INR 262 crore order from Melamchi Water Supply Development Board, Nepal. The scope of work comprises construction of Water Treatment Plant at Sundarijal, Nepal which will have an initial capacity of 85 MLD and will be designed to be expanded to 170 MLD, and to 510 MLD at a later stage. The water treatment plant at Sundarijal is part of the Melamchi Water Supply Project, under the auspices of the Melamchi Water Supply Development Board (MWSDB). The project has been funded by the Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA). This Project will treat water from the Melamchi River and discharge the treated water through pipeline upto battery limits.

Commenting on the new order, Mr. S. Natrajan, Head - Sales, VA Tech Wabag Limited mentioned: "We are delighted to receive the First Order from our neighboring country, Nepal and are proud to make our project management capabilities and technical expertise available to the project in our neighboring country. Award of this contract is another testimony to Wabag's ability to expand its global footprints to new territories. Further, this order reinforces the leadership position that our Company enjoys across the globe."
