

Mutares has successfully completed the acquisition of inTime Group from Super Group Limited

- Transport and logistics services company
- New platform acquisition to strengthen the Goods & Services segment
- Revenues of approximately EUR 115 million in 2024

Munich, August 4, 2025 – Mutares SE & Co. KGaA (ISIN: DE000A2NB650) has successfully completed the acquisition of inTime Group from Super Group Limited. The transaction strengthens the Mutares Goods & Services segment by establishing a powerful platform in the field of time-critical logistics services.

The inTime Group is a service provider with a broad portfolio in the transport and logistics sector. The company is divided into three operating divisions. The core business addresses the high-growth market for the transport and logistics of time-critical deliveries (inTime). The service portfolio is complemented by comprehensive services in the areas of third-party logistics and fifth-party logistics, including consulting and warehousing (Trans-Logo-Tech). With LibCycle, the third business segment, the company is entering a strategically relevant field of the future: integrated and sustainable transport management of lithium-ion batteries – both from industrial surplus stocks and end consumers.

The company is represented throughout Europe with its network and has its headquarters in Isernhagen, Germany. With around 450 employees, it generated revenues of approximately EUR 115 million in 2024.
