Mutares has completed the acquisition of the Flooring Business of Hamberger Industriewerke

- Leading parquet and hard-flooring manufacturer in Germany with strong European and Asian footprint
- Revenues of ca. EUR 150 million with significant growth opportunities in a sustainable consumer market
- New platform acquisition to strengthen the Goods & Services segment

Munich, March 31, 2026 – Mutares SE & Co. KGaA (ISIN: DE000A2NB650) has successfully completed the acquisition of the Flooring Business of Hamberger Industriewerke GmbH. The company will strengthen the Goods & Services segment as a new platform investment.

The business is a market-leading manufacturer of parquet and other hard floor coverings, operating under the nationally recognized and leading brand HARO. It has operations in Germany and Bulgaria, comprising two highly automated production sites, as well as a global sales network covering more than 70 countries. With over 700 employees, the company manufactures parquet, laminate, design flooring, sports flooring, and acoustic panels. Leveraging advanced production technology and a high degree of automation, the business generates revenues of approximately EUR 150 million. Mutares sees significant growth potential, particularly through the targeted expansion of its product portfolio and the development of international markets.
