Kamala Harris 'story is the American story', says Joe Biden

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Washington, August 21

DEMOCRATIC PARTY'S PRESIDENTIAL nominee Joe Biden praised his Indian-American running mate Kamala Harris during his nomination acceptance speech, describing the California senator as a "powerful voice" in the US and said her "story is the American story."

Harris, 55, scripted history in US politics as she became the first Indian-American and Black woman to get a major party's vice presidential nomination on the third day of the virtual Democratic National Convention on Wednesday.

"It will be the work of the next president to restore the promise of America to everyone. And I am not going to have to do it alone. I will have a great vice president at my side," Biden, 77, said in his acceptance speech on Thursday.

He highlighted Harris' diverse family heritage, her parents are Jamaican and Indian, and her perseverance to "overcome every obstacle she has ever faced."

"Her story is the American story. She knows about all of the obstacles thrown in the way of so many in our country. Women, Black women, Black Americans, South Asian Americans, immigrants. The left out and the left behind. She has overcome every obstacle she has ever faced," he said on the last day of the four-day convention.

"No one has been tougher on big banks and the gun lobby. No one has been tougher on calling out the current administration for its extremism, its failure to follow the law, its failure to simply tell the truth." Kamala and I both draw from our families. That is where we get our strength. For Kamala, it is Doug, and their families. For me, it is Jill, and ours," Biden said.

Introducing herself as the daughter of Indian and Jamaican immigrants at the virtual convention on Wednesday, Harris fondly remembered her Chennai-born mother who she said taught her two daughters to "be conscious and compassionate about the struggles of all people" and to believe that "the fight for justice is a shared responsibility."

"One of the most powerful voices we hear in the country today is from our young people. They're speaking to the inequity and injustice that has grown up in America. Economic injustice. Racial injustice. Environmental injustice," Biden said.

Later, Harris said in a tweet that Biden will be an incredible president.

"Tonight, Joe Biden spoke to the moment. Just like he'll do as president for our country," she tweeted.

US faces opposition to demand to 'snap back' sanctions on Iran

THE TRUMP ADMINISTRATION ran into immediate opposition after its top diplomat officially informed the United Nations it is demanding the restoration of all UN sanctions on Iran, with allies and opponents declaring the US action illegal and doomed to failure. US Secretary of State Mike Pompeo insisted that the United States has the legal right to "snap back" UN sanctions even though President Donald Trump pulled out of the 2015 nuclear deal. -AP

FDA official says would resign if agency rubber-stamps an unproven vaccine

REUTERS
August 21

ATOPUS health regulator who will help decide the fate of a coronavirus vaccine has vowed to resign if the Trump administration approves a vaccine before it is shown to be safe and effective, Reuters has learned.

Peter Marks, director of the Food and Drug Administration's Center for Biologics Evaluation and Research, made the statement in response to concerns raised on a conference call late last week of government officials, pharmaceutical executives and academics who serve on a vaccine working group organised by the National Institutes of Health, according to three sources. When contacted by Reuters, Marks confirmed the account.

Scientists, public health officials and lawmakers are worried that the Trump administration will pressure the FDA to authorise a Covid-19 vaccine in advance of the November presidential election, even if data from clinical trials do not support its widespread use.

Marks told Reuters he has not faced any political pressure and that the FDA would be guided by science alone. Should that change, "I could not stand by and see something that was unsafe or ineffective that was being put through," Marks said.

"You have to decide where your red line is, and that's my red line," he said.

"I would feel obligated (to resign) because in doing so, I would indicate to the American public that there's something wrong."

He added that he would equally object if someone sought political gain by holding up approval of a vaccine.

'How to avoid another Cambridge Analytica?'

Facebook Inc told the Federal Trade Commission that the social-media company needs clear guidance on how to comply with new laws that grant consumers the right to transfer their data, without running afoul of user privacy.

Regulators in Europe and California have ruled that consumers have the right to collect and move their personal information to new websites - "data portability" laws that are meant to empower people to choose different products, increasing competition for giants like Facebook. But on Facebook, every user's data is intertwined with that of their friends.
