Malaysia says palm oil dispute with India is 'temporary'

Kuala Lumpur Malaysia said on Tuesday that India's move to cut back on palm oil purchases from the Southeast Asian nation is temporary and will be resolved amicably between the two nations.Last month, India restricted imports of refined palm oil and asked importers to avoid purchases from Malaysia after its criticism of India's actions in Kashmir and a new citizenship law.Having long-standing bilateral ties, the two nations will overcome the current challenges, and prevail towards mutual and beneficial outcomes, the Malaysian Palm Oil Council said in a statement, citing Primary Industries Minister Teresa Kok.Malaysia's push to implement B20 biodiesel starting this month will also help sustain high crude palm oil prices, the statement read.

Oil hits 13-month lows as coronavirus outbreak cuts demand

New York. Oil prices fell to the lowest in more than a year on Monday as the coronavirus outbreak curtailed Chinese demand and sparked potential supply cuts by OPEC and its allies.

Brent crude LCOc1 settled down $2.17, or 3.8 per cent at $54.45 a barrel, its lowest since January last year.US West Texas Intermediate (WTI) crude CLc1 fell $1.45 a barrel to $50.12 after touching a session low of $49.91, also the lowest since January 2019."We have not seen a demand destruction event of this scale that moves this quickly," said Phil Flynn, analyst at Price Futures Group in Chicago.As the outbreak hits fuel demand in China, the world's biggest crude oil importer, refiner Sinopec Corp (0386.HK) told its facilities to cut throughput this month by about 600,000 barrels per day (bpd), or 12 per cent, the steepest cut in more than a decade.

Independent refineries in Shandong province, which collectively import about a fifth of China's crude, cut output by 30 per cent to 50 per cent in a little more than a week, executives and analysts said.The outbreak could particularly curtail jet fuel demand growth in China, wrote analyst Paul Sankey, managing director at Mizuho in New York. Wuhan airport is China's busiest inland hub carrying about 25 million passengers per year, and conservative estimates are that the number of travelers have fallen by about a third, Sankey said.

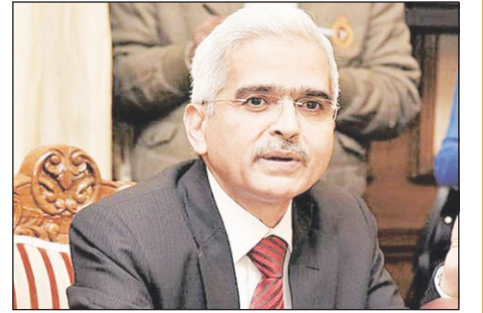

The Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) and its allies, a group known as OPEC+, are considering a further 500,000 bpd cut to their oil output, three OPEC sources and an industry source told Reuters. The Wall Street Journal reported that another option being considered would involve a temporary cut of 1 million bpd by Saudi Arabia to jolt oil markets.

"The market needs assurances that the supply/demand equation remains in balance for prices to hit a floor. This suggests a commitment from OPEC not just to extend oil supply cuts, but even implement deeper ones beyond March," said FXTM analyst Hussein Sayed.

Iranian Oil Minister Bijan Zanganeh said the oil market is under pressure with prices dropping below $60 a barrel, and "efforts must be made to balance it."Ratings agency Fitch on Monday said the coronavirus outbreak could push the global oil market into surplus and that OPEC+ may need to cut production further if the outbreak lasts for several months.

Shaktikanta Das named APAC 'central banker of the year'

MUMBAI: Reserve Bank of India (RBI) governor Shaktikanta Das's moves to regulate non-banking finance companies (NBFCs) without hand-outs has won him the title of Asia-Pacific's central banker of the year.The award has been instituted by a publication — The Banker — to celebrate the officials that have best managed to stimulate growth and stabilise their economy. In a note,

The Banker said the RBI has faced a series of challenges, from non-performing loans to issues around fraud."Faced with these challenges, Shaktikanta Das, governor of RBI, has taken steps to bring banking in India up to standard via a restrained approach to governance," the statement said. It also acknowledged Das's measures to tighten the rules around shadow banking, and bring lenders outside banking under greater scrutiny."Das has been outspoken on the lack of governance in banking, calling for tighter rules for the state-owned banks, which comprise 60% of India's banking sector. To make the banking system more robust, the central bank is to set up a college for supervisors with the aim of improving supervisory skills," the note said.In the past, former governor Raghuram Rajan was felicitated as central banker of the year (global and Asia-Pacific) in 2016 for his role in weathering the risks arising out of US tightening in 2015.
