Disturbed Areas Act won't affect Morbi's image: BJP; Cong says move to help realtors

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
AHMEDABAD, RAJKOT, NOV 8

THE STATE government's decision to extend the Disturbed Areas Act to certain parts of Morbi town will not impact negatively the image of the tile town of India, insist leaders of the ruling Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) but Congress says the move is aimed at facilitating real estate business run by BJP functionaries.

The government imposed Disturbed Areas Act in parts of Morbi on October 29. Nirmal Harindran

The state government imposed the Gujarat Prohibition of Transfer of Immovable Property and Provisions of Tenants from Eviction from Premises in Disturbed Areas Act, popularly known as Disturbed Areas Act, in parts of Morbi town through a notification on October 29.

The Act, which prohibits transfer of immovable property in the notified disturbed area without the prior permission of Morbi district collector, came into force just a day before the Jhoolto Pul suspension bridge collapse.

The notification by the revenue department of the state government extended the Act to 11 localities in the new areas as well as the old parts of Morbi town falling under the jurisdiction of Morbi 'A' Division police station.

The notification mentioned that "public order in the said areas was disturbed for a substantial period by reason of riots or violence of mob," and added the Act will remain in force till October 28, 2027.

Gangs of Hitendra Zala alias Hitubha and Mustak Mir had clashed in Kalika Plot area in 2018, killing a boy who was trapped in crossfire and injuring a minor girl. Groups of the same communities, allegedly led by Mohammed Hanif Kasmani alias Mammu Dadhi and Rafiq Mandaviya alias Rafiq Mandaliya had clashed in Khatkivas area of the town in December 2020, killing two.

In retaliation, Dadhi was allegedly shot dead by the rival group near Bhaktinagar Circle in Morbi in September 2021. However, all these incidents took place in areas other than those notified as "disturbed" by the October 29 notification.

Congress Morbi unit general secretary and former Municipality councillor Mahesh Rajyaguru said that Peace continued to prevail in Morbi even during the post-Godhra riots of 2002.

"You must have seen that people from minority community who were living near the bridge were among the first to respond and saved lives of dozens of people after the Jhoolto Pul collapsed," he said.

"The imposition of the Disturbed Areas Act will force people with small houses in these areas to sell their houses to builders associated with the BJP, who in turn will build new homes in their place and sell at premium to make money," the Congress leader alleged.

However, Mohan Kundariya, the BJP MP from Rajkot and resident of Morbi town, denied Congress the allegations and said Morbi's image will not be impacted negatively.

"The government must have taken the decision based on demand from the people of Morbi... The town's image will not be impacted negatively as this Act is already in force in cities like Rajkot, Ahmedabad, Surat etc. So, it's nothing new."

Durlabhji Dethariya, the Morbi district president, meanwhile, contended that the government action was aimed at maintaining peace in the town.

"There was demand from residents of these areas that this Act be extended to those areas also... While it is true that the town has not witnessed any communal riots, disputes between individuals were taking place. After all, properties in these areas are costly ones and the government must not have acted without receiving demand to that effect from some corners," said the BJP leader.

Morbi district collector GT Pandya could not be contacted for comments. However, Kamal Dave secretary of the Morbi district unit of the Vishwa Hindu Parishad said he was the first to seek imposition of Disturbed Areas Act in Morbi. "It is true that Morbi has not witnessed any sizable communal riots. But minority community has been trying to gain a toehold in the areas located right in the heart of the town," said Dave.

VANDE BHARAT EXPRESS
Cracks on window pane when Owaisi was traveling, probe begins

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
SURAT, NOVEMBER 8

WESTERN RAILWAY police has started a probe into the incident where cracks were found on the window pane of Vande Bharat train in which AIMIM MP Asaduddin Owaisi and his team were travelling.

According to the Railway police, the incident took place on Monday near Ankleshwar Railway station in Bharuch, when AIMIM MP Asaduddin Owaisi and his team were travelling from Ahmedabad to Surat to attend a public meeting in Limbayat. When the train crossed the Narmada bridge, some concrete pieces hit the window near seat number 25, while Owaisi was on seat number 18, they said.

The incident came into light when a passenger noticed the crack after the train halted at the Surat railway station. The passenger immediately informed police and railway authorities.

Mentioning about the incident at a public event in Limbayat on Monday, advocate Waris Pathan said that someone threw stones on the coach in which Owaisi was travelling.

Talking to The Indian Express, Western Railway Superintendent of police Rajesh Parmar said, "We have sought a report from the railway technical team. Our teams surveyed the area but found no clues from where the incident had taken place."

He added, "After primary investigations, we found that repairing of railway tracks was in progress near Ankleshwar railway station. There was an alert for trains to run at low speed. May be some concrete pieces hit the window due to the high speed of the Vande Bharat train."

Laws should change with changing times: Shah

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
GANDHIANGAR, NOVEMBER 8

Shah was giving interview to a Gujarati TV channel

REACTING TO the Supreme Court judgment upholding the constitutional validity of an Act introducing 10 per cent reservation for Economically Weaker Sections (EWS) in education and government jobs, Union Minister for Home & Cooperation Amit Shah said "laws should change with changing times".

In an interview to a Gujarati television channel Zee 24 Kalak that was telecast Tuesday, Shah said, "People will naturally welcome it. With changing times, rules and laws must also change. Over a period of time, a number of people of the society had a feeling that, 'I too do not have means, I too do not have facilities, that I am also economically backward. Then why don't I get preference?' BJP's Narendra Modi government has given 10 per cent reservation to those communities who do not get benefit of reservation."

"It was widely welcomed in the society. Some people had challenged it in the Supreme Court. And Constitution bench of the court has upheld it and said that there is nothing unconstitutional in it. The law has been framed in a completely constitutional manner," Shah added.

Asked if the freebies announced by various political parties will have any impact on Gujarat elections, Shah said, "If you add up the total promises made, then it exceeds Gujarat's budget by Rs 1.10 lakh crore against the budget of Rs 2.42 lakh crore... new promises alone come to around Rs 3.50 lakh crore. People of Gujarat understand if how can these promises be fulfilled. There is no way (provided) to increase the income." In this context, Shah said, "I am fully confident that the people of Gujarat do not give votes merely on the basis of promises. (They give vote) on the basis of performance. And BJP has got performance."

On the party's policy for ticket distribution, Shah said, "Winnability is the only criteria...There is no decision taken because of which the old (current MLAs) do not get ticket."
