Top US scientist Lander resigns

WASHINGTON: President Joe Biden's top science adviser Eric Lander resigned, hours after the White House confirmed that an internal investigation found credible evidence that he mistreated his staff, marking the first Cabinet-level departure of the Biden administration. An internal review last year, prompted by a workplace complaint, found evidence that Lander, the director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy and science adviser to Biden, bullied staffers and treated them disrespectfully.

Now, truckers from UK, US, Aus rise against Covid curbs

Truckers from England, Australia, Netherlands and New Zealand have begun to or-

Protesters and supporters play street hockey as they continue to protest vaccine mandates implemented by Prime Minister Justin Trudeau on Monday in Ottawa, Canada.

ganise their own version of "Freedom Convoy" following the protests in Canada's Ottawa against Covid vaccination mandates. Not only these counties, but another group of truckers is planning a protest in the United States, driving to the US Capitol in Washington, DC reported Fox News. "I think you're starting to see what will become a big global movement to end these mandates," Brian Brase, co-organizer of the US protest, told Fox News Digital on Sunday. "It's a violation of your human rights to be mandated to take this vaccine. If you want it, go get it, but is mandated to get it, we're standing up against that. We think it's wrong", he added. Earlier, Canada's two main airlines have demanded that Ottawa reverse Covid travel restrictions amid the ongoing protests against the vaccine mandates that have overwhelmed the nation's capital.

The current wave of protests against Covid measures started when thousands of demonstrators gathered in Ottawa expressing strong opposition to vaccine mandates for truckers crossing the US-Canada border. WestJet Airlines Ltd. has cancelled 20 per cent of its flights in March amid continuing uncertainty over trucker protest, The Globe and Mail newspaper reported.

Texas shooting: USAF to pay $230mn

WASHINGTON: A judge has ordered the US Air Force to pay more than 230 million in damages to survivors and victims' families of a 2017 Texas church shooting. In an ongoing civil lawsuit, US District

Judge Xavier Rodriguez on Monday ruled that the federal government failed to flag a conviction that might have kept the gunman from legally buying the weapon used in the shooting, reports Xinhua news agency. On November 5, 2017, 26 people were killed and 22 others injured when Devin Patrick Kelley opened fire during a Sunday service at First Baptist Church of Sutherland Springs. Kelley died of an apparent self-inflicted gunshot wound afterwards. Rodriguez had ruled in July 2021 that the Air Force was "60 per cent liable" for the tragedy since Kelley had threatened mass violence while in the Air Force before the attack.

'Covid infections increase risk of heart conditions'

WASHINGTON: People who have had Covid are at increased risk of developing cardiovascular complications within first month to a year, according to a study in the US. The study found that such complications include disruptive heart rhythms, inflammation of the heart, blood clots, stroke, coronary artery disease, heart attack, heart failure or even death.

Lancet: Vaccine protection better against severe C-19

AGENCIES / London

The vaccine-induced protection against SARS-CoV-2 infection wanes within a few months, but protection against severe Covid appears to be better maintained, according to a study published in The Lancet journal. Researchers noted that the protection wanes at different speeds depending on the type of vaccine used. "The bad news is that the protection against infection seems to be diminished by seven months after the second dose of vaccine," said Peter Nordstrom, a professor at Umea University in Sweden. "The good news, however, is that the protection against a severe infection that leads to hospitalisation or death seems to be better maintained. Vaccination is therefore very wise and important," Nordstrom said.

Sri Lankan Navy arrests 11 Indian fishermen

The arrest of 11 Indian fishermen comes as the local immigration officials are making arrangements to repatriate the 56 Indian fishermen released by a Sri Lankan court in the northern Jaffna peninsula last month.

poaching in the country's territorial waters, an official statement said on Tuesday.

The arrests were made close to Delft Island in the north on Monday. They were indulging in bottom trawling, the Navy said. The arrests are part of the Navy's patrols to cut illegal fishing in the Sri Lankan waters to minimise impact from poaching on the local fishermen and sustainability of fishery resources in Sri Lanka, the statement said. The fishermen issue is a contentious one in ties between the two countries. The issue of fishermen also figured in the talks between External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar and Sri Lankan counterpart GL Peiris in New Delhi on Monday.
