AnteoTech Ltd (ASX: ADO) ("AnteoTech" or "the Company") is pleased to advise that it has today signed a Distribution Agreement (Agreement) with Eromediks Aparatura Medicala (Eromediks) for the distribution of the EuGeni Reader platform and SARS-CoV-2 Antigen Rapid Diagnostic Test (RDT)¹ in Romania.

AnteoTech CEO Derek Thomson said, "We are delighted to welcome the team at Eromediks to the EuGeni and AnteoTech family. Eromediks have a history of distributing quality reader based diagnostics in the Romanian market and the addition of EuGeni will provide a high quality rapid diagnostic platform to their stable of products. Eromediks further expands our presence in Europe and is another clear endorsement of AnteoTech's initiative to provide a suite of qualitative and quantitative tests, superior performance, data capability, and ease of use in a rapid testing platform."

Key terms of the Agreement:

- The Agreement commences effective 1 October 2021. There are no conditions precedent to the Agreement.
- The Agreement is for exclusive sales into Romania
- The initial term of the distribution agreement is for three years, renewable for a further two years after the initial term on mutual agreement.
