Australian Stock Exchange Limited

NEW APPOINTMENTS

7 June 2006: Ansearch (ASX: ANH) announces a re-structure to the corporate, financial and legal divisions within the Group.

In promoting a positive growth strategy, Ansearch has resolved that it would be expedient to split the roles previously occupied by the CFO into two divisions – legal and company secretarial and accounting and financial.

To this end the Company is pleased to advise of two new appointments to head those divisions – Jan Macpherson as General Counsel and Company Secretary and Phillip Simpson as Senior Accountant and Financial Advisor.

Jan Macpherson is a barrister and solicitor of the High Courts of Australia and New Zealand and holds a Bachelor of Laws degree from the University of Adelaide. Jan also holds an MBA from Deakin University and a Graduate Diploma in Applied Corporate Governance and is a member of the Law Council of Australia; the Australian Institute of Company Directors and is a qualified Chartered Secretary. Jan will replace Stephen Munday as Company Secretary.

Phillip Simpson is a Chartered Accountant with a Bachelor of Business (Accounting & Law) and is an Associate member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia.

Ansearch Chairman, Peter Jermyn said; “We believe both new appointees bring considerable skills and experience to the Company and will assist the Group during our very exciting growth phase. We are delighted to welcome them on board”.
