ENTITLEMENT ISSUE

Ansearch (ASX: ANH) advises that its 1:4 non-renounceable, entitlement issue to shareholders has now closed.

Shareholders subscribed for a total of 52,012,936 shares in the issue (an approximate 41 % take-up). The balance of 76,111,111 shares from the issue will be allocated by the Company's two underwriters – Lands Kirwan Tong Stockbrokers Pty Limited and Indian Ocean Capital Pty Ltd.

A General Meeting of Shareholders is to be held tomorrow (9 February 2007) to seek approval for a potential reduction in capital that would result from the Company waiving the final payment of 2 cents due on the issue in the event that the threshold level, as described in the prospectus, is not achieved.

Allotment of the entitlement shares and dispatch of the holding statements is scheduled for 15 February 2007.

The Company wishes to thank both its shareholders and its underwriters for their interest and participation in the issue.

About Ansearch Limited (ASX: ANH):

Ansearch is an online media company listed on the Australian Stock Exchange (ASX) with a stock code of ANH. The Ansearch group of companies generates revenue by selling advertising space on a growing network of search engines, portals and popular websites.

Ansearch specialises in delivering sponsored search, display and rich media advertising to Australian audiences. The Company originally provided this suite of products and services through its own search and directory websites, and has since extended its network and audience reach to include the distribution of advertising to third-party Australian, US and UK based search engines, websites and recently third party advertising networks.

With the Company's key technology and commercial relationships now firmly established, coupled with the support of proprietary business processes and systems, the focus of the Company today is to drive aggressive revenue growth to take the business through to sustained and growing profitability.

Ansearch is now well on track to become the leading independent online media company in Australia, by using its proprietary business model, technology and processes to generate the maximum amount of advertising revenue, at the highest possible yield, in the shortest possible timeframe.

The wholly owned subsidiary companies of Ansearch include: Ansearch.com.au Pty Ltd, soush Pty Ltd, Ads Alliance Pty Ltd and Enedia Pty Ltd.
