Statement of Consolidated Cash Flow for January 2007

Ansearch Limited ('Ansearch') is pleased to present its consolidated Cash Flow Statement for the month ended 31 January 2007.

The January sales revenue has pleasingly continued the positive growth trend. The company is particularly impressed with the January figures given that January is traditionally a slow month.

January sales were up 17% on December and more than 500% on the corresponding period last year.

"This has been another outstanding month with a continuing expansion of revenues from our global search network and a strong contribution from our recently launched domain name product," said Dean Jones, CEO of Ansearch. "We expect to see revenue growth continue to escalate as the expansion of existing programmes and products come on stream. The new acquisitions, projects and partnerships as recently outlined by the company will further accelerate our growth."
