ARISTOCRAT TO FIGHT FORMER CEO'S PAYOUT CLAIMS

Aristocrat Leisure Limited (Aristocrat) announced that it has today been served with a statement of claim by the former CEO, Des Randall. The claim demands damages of the order of A$12 million and a bonus of A$900,000 plus interest and other alleged entitlements.

Mr John Ducker, Chairman of Aristocrat, announced that the Company would vigorously contest the claim.

"The Board of Aristocrat made a considered decision on April 4, 2003 to terminate the services of Mr Randall," Mr Ducker said, "Mr Randall has been paid his statutory entitlements. The Company believes that it is in our shareholders interest to contest these claims."
