

26 June 2007

Allomak Limited ASX Announcement

COMPLETION OF AUTOLAC NEWCASTLE ACQUISITION

Allomak Limited (ASX:AMA) today announced the completion of the acquisition of the business trading as Autolac Newcastle first announced to the market on 28 September 2006.

Managing Director of Allomak, Rob Allan said: "Autolac Newcastle is a logical add on for our existing Autolac business and expands our distribution and reach in the NSW smash repair workshop supply market as well as provide scale advantages which are expected to reduce costs and increase operating efficiencies."

About Autolac Newcastle

Autolac Newcastle is an established automotive paint, equipment and consumables supplier which has previously traded under licence from Autolac Pty Ltd. Autolac Newcastle is a leading supplier in the Greater Hunter region.

About Allomak Limited

Allomak Limited is a listed public company with expertise in transitioning businesses through succession planning and generational change, and initially focused on the wholesale automotive aftercare market. Allomak is building its business through growth, support and identification of synergies between existing operating companies as well as further acquisitions. Businesses currently in the group include ECB, Dyno Dynamics, Autolac, Fluidrive Transmissions, Dual LPG Diesel Test and Perth Brake Parts.

- ENDS -

For further information contact: Peter Brookes or Pip Green, Cannings, 02 9252 0622