New $10m CBA Finance Facility / Reduced pricing on Existing Loan

Melbourne, Australia - Atomos Limited (‘ASX:AMS’, ‘Atomos’ or the ‘Company’), a global leader in professional video monitoring and workflow tools, is pleased to announce that Commonwealth Bank of Australia (CBA) has committed to, and approved, a new $10m Business Finance Facility (Facility).

Highlights:

- Approved new $10m, variable market rate, 3-year, CBA Facility
- 10.35% funding cost based on current variable market rate of 4.35% (includes 3% Facility Line Fee and 3% Usage Fee)
- New Facility provides opportunities for:
    - Strategic M&A activity to complement and accelerate existing Product Roadmap;
    - Accelerated Product Development and associated Inventory investment;
    - Increased Inventory holdings of core product lines, enabling significant freight cost reductions by use of sea freight versus air freight; and
    - Ability to withstand unforeseen global demand and supply challenges.
- Negotiated reduction in cost of existing loan facility from 20% down to 13% ($700k pa savings)
- Settlement of Facility subject to signing Facility Agreement and customary Security documentation and Intercreditor Deed with existing financier, from whom consent has been received for a pari passu security arrangement
- Atomos reconfirms FY26 guidance for revenue to exceed $47.5m and EBITDA to exceed $3.8m, despite (albeit remain cautious) current global uncertainty and potential supply chain disruptions

Commenting on the new CBA Finance Facility, Atomos CEO, Peter Barber, said:

“The new Facility provides us flexibility to better manage our existing business operations, including logistics, and gives us the ability to accelerate product development and deliver upon our product roadmap.”

“It also provides us with the ability to explore strategic M&A opportunities.”

“Despite various global uncertainties, we remain on track to deliver on our prior FY26 financial guidance. The continued demand for our products highlights the embedded nature of our products in the professional workflows of our customers.”

This announcement has been authorised for lodgement with ASX by the Board of Directors.
