ASX ANNOUNCEMENT
(ASX: ANO)

23 SEPTEMBER 2005

ADVANCED NANOTECHNOLOGY LIMITED SHARES LISTED IN FREIVERKEHR MARKET OF FRANKFURT STOCK EXCHANGE

Advanced Nano has been informed that its stock has been admitted to trading in the Regulated Unofficial Market (Freiverkehr) of the Frankfurt Stock Exchange, a market operated by Deutsche Börse AG.

As advised by Deutsche Börse AG, the stock has been quoted in the Freiverkehr market by a member trading firm based on the identification of investor demand within Europe. This is not a full exchange listing.

Advanced Nano did not apply for the quotation of its stock, nor was it asked to give its consent. The Company is not subject to any new reporting requirements nor do any fees result from inclusion in the Freiverkehr market.

As advised by Deutsche Börse AG, the Freiverkehr market has been established as a market segment under German securities law and provides trading of over 10,000 securities for German and European investors.
