MEDIA RELEASE

21 December 2006

DECISION RELEASED FOR ROMA BRISBANE PIPELINE

Australian Pipeline Trust (APA) notes that the ACCC today released its Final Decision on the proposed Access Arrangement submitted by APA for its Roma to Brisbane Pipeline (RBP).

The proposed Access Arrangement was submitted under the National Gas Access Code. The Code process allows APA to make further submissions to the ACCC on this Decision. APA's response is due in February 2007.

Managing Director, Mick McCormack said, "We will continue to work through the Code process with a view to obtaining regulatory approval for our Access Arrangement early in the New Year. Importantly, whatever the outcome, there is no material financial impact until at least 2012 as the pipeline is almost fully contracted."
