Dear Sirs,

Sportzwhistle Orders Received

Australian commercialisation company, TechStar Limited, and its subsidiary company Sportzwhistle announce that they have received a 10,000 unit order for their electronic Sportzwhistle from global distributor J. Hudson & Co (ACME Whistles).

This large order is the result of the consistent efforts of ACME Whistles presenting the product to the European and USA distribution channels through direct representation and trade shows, and is for supply to a number of their international clients.

TechStar are pleased to support ACME Whistles continued sales and distribution efforts, and will continue to work with J.Hudson & Co. to drive the sales of the Sportzwhistle into a broader range of markets and distribution channels capitalising on their efforts to date.

Yours faithfully

J B Reid AO
Chairman
