
NMPA secured for China Hearing Aid Launch

Highlights

- ▶ NMPA certification secured, confirming full regulatory approval for launch in China.
- ▶ Product positioned within a market-leading hearing aid brand sold through China's top e-commerce channels.
- ▶ Supports large-scale commercial rollout and visibility across dominant online healthcare platforms.
- ▶ Strengthens Audeara's strategy to drive repeatable, high-margin licensing revenue through global partners.
- ▶ Reinforces the robustness and scalability of Audeara's proprietary hearing personalisation technology.

Brisbane, Australia – Audeara Limited (ASX: AUA) is pleased to advise that the hearing personalisation technology licensed to long-term manufacturing partner Eastech has received National Medical Products Administration (NMPA) certification in China.

This certification marks a key regulatory and commercialisation milestone as Audeara establishes its position within China's hearing aid market, where the product will be sold under a market leading, high-volume brand through leading e-commerce channels and major online healthcare platforms.

This announcement follows previous updates regarding the partnership and purchase order arrangements with Eastech:

- ▶ Partnership Agreement Announcement: 12 August 2025 (Licensing Agreement with Eastech Huizhou Co., Ltd.)
- ▶ Purchase Order Announcement: 15 October 2025 (Maiden Purchase Order for China hearing aid market)

Under the established partnership framework, Audeara supplies its proprietary hearing personalisation technology, and Eastech leads product development, regulatory submissions and market readiness activities. Achieving NMPA certification confirms full regulatory compliance and positions the product for large-scale commercial rollout, including visibility across China's top-tier e-commerce marketplaces, which dominate national hearing aid purchasing behaviour.

Audeara Managing Director and CEO, Dr James Fielding, said:

"Securing NMPA certification is an important achievement for our partnership with Eastech and a strong validation of our proprietary hearing personalisation technology. It reinforces the commercial potential of this product in a high-growth hearing aid market, strengthens our strategic collaboration with Eastech, and enhances Audeara's pathway to delivering repeatable, high-margin licensing revenue."

The certification enables Eastech to commence production and activation planning ahead of launch. Under the licensing arrangement, Audeara will receive technology licensing revenue per unit sold as commercial rollout occurs.

This milestone supports Audeara's global licensing and commercial expansion strategy, strengthens the Company's position in the rapidly growing hearing health technology sector, and is expected to contribute to scalable, recurring licensing revenue as the product enters China's high volume, market-leading e-commerce ecosystem.

This announcement has been authorised by the board of Audeara Limited.
